Multi Ethnic Coalition Building In Los A:

Multiethnic Coalition Building in Los Angeles Eui-Young Yu, Edward T. Chang, 1995 Making Space for Coalition Building Melvin L. Oliver, David M. Grant, Alaric Battle, 1994 Making Space for Coalition Building Melvin L. Oliver, David M. Grant, Alaric Battle, 1994 Los Angeles--Struggles toward Multiethnic Community Edward T. Chang, Russell Charles Leong, 2017-08-24 Myths and theories of the American melting pot of assimilation and of pluralistic society were shattered as racial violence during the 1992 Los Angeles uprising vividly exposed the inadequacy of our prior assumptions The uprising revealed that radical approaches are needed to address structural issues of economic and political inequality and issues of race and representation Los Angeles has emerged as a focal point for social scientists as they develop new ideas about race relations This volume based on a special issue of Amerasia Journal focuses on race and ethnic relations in Los Angeles as they emerged out of the uprising and within the broader national picture Latino and Asian and African American scholars journalists and writers have contributed two dozen essays commentaries and literary works Among the scholarly essays are Jewish and Korean Merchants in African American Neighborhoods by Edward Chang Communication between African Americans and Korean Americans before and after the Los Angeles Riots by Ella Stewart Asian Americans and Latinos in San Gabriel Valley California by Leland T Saito The South Central Los Angeles Eruption A Latino Perspective by Armando Navarro and Race Class Conflict and Empowerment On Ice Cube's Black Korea by Jeff Chang Commentaries by Asian and African American writers feature Larry Aubry Angela E Oh Sharon Park Amy Uyematsu Erich Nakano Walter Lew and Miriam Ching Louie A selection of literary writings features Mari Sunaida Ko Won Wanda Coleman Mellonee R Houston Sae Lee Nat Jones Arjuna Chungmi Kim and Lynn Manning Contemporary Asian America (second Edition) Min Zhou, J. V. Gatewood, 2007-10 When Contemporary Asian America was first published it exposed its readers to developments within the discipline from its inception as part of the ethnic consciousness movement of the 1960s to the more contemporary theoretical and practical issues facing Asian America at the century's end This new edition features a number of fresh entries and updated material It covers such topics as Asian American activism immigration community formation family relations gender roles sexuality identity struggle for social justice interethnic conflict coalition and political participation As in the first edition Contemporary Asian America provides an expansive introduction to the central readings in Asian American Studies presenting a grounded theoretical orientation to the discipline and framing key historical cultural economic and social themes with a social science focus This critical text offers a broad overview of Asian American studies and the current state of Asian America Diasporic Media beyond the Diaspora Sherry S. Yu, 2018-04-23 Media for diasporic communities have emerged in major cities such as Vancouver and Los Angeles and reflect a multicultural multiethnic and multilingual reality But do these media serve their respective communities exclusively or are they available and accessible to members of greater society at large Diasporic Media beyond the Diaspora explores structural and institutional challenges and opportunities for these media and suggests policy directions with the aim of fostering broader intercultural dialogue Using case studies of Korean media in Vancouver and Los Angeles Sherry Yu examines the potential of an intercultural media system for culturally ethnically and linguistically diverse societies This is the first book to explore the potential of diasporic communicative spaces as being open to people outside of specific diasporic communities and their further potential to establish an infrastructure that facilitates conversation and contributes to building an interculturally engaging and inclusive media system The Los Angeles Riots Mark Baldassare,David O Sears,Edgar W Butler,Peter A Morrison,2019-06-12 The Los Angeles riots in the Spring of 1992 were among the most violent and destructive events in twentieth century urban America This collection of original essays by leading urban experts offers the first comprehensive analysis of the unrest that took place after a jury acquitted the police officers who were accused of using excessive force in t Ethnic Peace in the American City Edward Taehan Chang,Jeannette Diaz-Veizades,1999-08 The Los Angeles riot of 1992 marked America s first high profile multiethnic civil unrest Latinos Asian Americans whites and African Americans were involved as both victims and assailants Nearly half of the businesses destroyed were Korean American owned and nearly half of the people arrested were Latino In the aftermath of the unrest Los Angeles with its extremely diverse population emerged as a particularly useful site in which to examine race relations Ethnic Peace in the American City documents the nature of contemporary inter ethnic relations in the United States by describing the economic political and psychological dynamics of race relations in inner city Los Angeles Drawing from local as well as international examples the authors present strategies such as coalition building dispute resolution and community organizing Moving beyond the stereotyped focus on negative interactions between minority groups such as Korean owned businesses and the African American community and countering the white black or bi racial paradigms of American race relations the authors explore practical means by which ethnically fragmented neighborhoods nationwide can work together to begin to address their common concerns before tensions become explosive Asian and Latino Immigrants in a Restructuring Economy Marta López-Garza,2002-06-01 Experiencing both the enormous benefits and the serious detriments of globalization and economic restructuring Southern California serves as a magnet for immigrants from many parts of the world This volume advances an emerging body of work that centers this region s future on the links between the two fastest growing racial groups in California Asians and Latinos and the economic and social mainstream of this important sector of the global economy The contributors to the anthology scholars and community leaders with social science urban planning and legal backgrounds provide a multi faceted analysis of gender class and race relations They also examine various forms of immigrant economic participation from low wage workers to entrepreneurs and capital investors Asian and Latino Immigrants in a Restructuring Economy documents the entrenchment of various immigrant communities in the socio political and economic fabric of United States society and these communities role in transforming the Los Angeles region The Politics of Protest Nadia E. Brown,Ray Block Jr.,Christopher Stout,2020-12-17 This collection provides a deep engagement with the political implication of Black Lives Matter This book covers a broad range of topics using a variety of methods and epistemological approaches In the twenty first century the killings of Black Americans have sparked a movement to end the brutality against Black bodies In 2013 BlackLivesMatter would become a movement building project led by Alicia Garza Patrisse Cullors and Opal Tometi This movement began after the acquittal of George Zimmerman who murdered 17 year old Trayvon Martin The movement has continued to fight for racial justice and has experienced a resurgence following the 2020 slayings of Ahmaud Arbery George Floyd Breonna Taylor Sean Reed Tony McDade and David McAtee among others The continued protests raise questions about how we can end this vicious cycle and lead Blacks to a state of normalcy in the United States In other words how can we make any advances made by Black Lives Matter stick The chapters in this book were originally published in the journal Politics Groups and Identities

The Shifting Grounds of Race Scott Kurashige, 2010-03-15 Los Angeles has attracted intense attention as a world city characterized by multiculturalism and globalization Yet little is known about the historical transformation of a place whose leaders proudly proclaimed themselves white supremacists less than a century ago In The Shifting Grounds of Race Scott Kurashige highlights the role African Americans and Japanese Americans played in the social and political struggles that remade twentieth century Los Angeles Linking paradigmatic events like Japanese American internment and the Black civil rights movement Kurashige transcends the usual black white dichotomy to explore the multiethnic dimensions of segregation and integration Racism and sprawl shaped the dominant image of Los Angeles as a white city But they simultaneously fostered a shared oppositional consciousness among Black and Japanese Americans living as neighbors within diverse urban communities Kurashige demonstrates why African Americans and Japanese Americans joined forces in the battle against discrimination and why the trajectories of the two groups diverged Connecting local developments to national and international concerns he reveals how critical shifts in postwar politics were shaped by a multiracial discourse that promoted the acceptance of Japanese Americans as a model minority while binding African Americans to the social ills underlying the 1965 Watts Rebellion Multicultural Los Angeles ultimately encompassed both the new prosperity arising from transpacific commerce and the enduring problem of race and class divisions This extraordinarily ambitious book adds new depth and complexity to our understanding of the urban crisis and offers a window into America's multiethnic future

Making Of Asian America Pei-Te Lien, 2010-06-17 Asian Americans are widely believed to be passive and compliant participants in the U S political process if they participate at all In this ground breaking book Pei te Lien maps the actions and strategies of Asian Americans as they negotiate a space in the American political arena Professor Lien looks at political participation by Asian Americans prior to 1965 and then examines at both organizational and mass politics levels how race ethnicity and transnationalism help to construct a complex American electorate She looks not only at rates of participation among Asian Americans as compared with blacks Latinos American Indians and non Hispanic whites but also among specific groups of

Asian Americans Chinese Japanese Filipinos Koreans Asian Indians and Vietnamese She also discusses how gender socioeconomic class and place of birth affect political participation With documentation ranging from historical narrative to opinion survey data Professor Lien creates a picture of a diverse group of politically active people who are intent on carving out a place for themselves in American political life

Race and the War on Poverty Robert Bauman, 2022-08-16

President Lyndon B Johnson's War on Poverty did more than offer aid to needy Americans in some cities it also sparked both racial conflict and cooperation Race and the War on Poverty examines the African American and Mexican American community organizations in Los Angeles that emerged to implement War on Poverty programs It explores how organizers applied democratic vision and political savvy to community action and how the ongoing African American Chicano and feminist movements in turn shaped the contours of the War on Poverty's goals programs and cultural identity Robert Bauman describes how the Watts riots of 1965 accelerated the creation of a black community controlled agency the Watts Labor Community Action Committee The example of the WLCAC combined with a burgeoning Chicano movement inspired Mexican Americans to create The East Los Angeles Community Union TELACU and the Chicana Service Action Center Bauman explores the connections that wove together the War on Poverty the Watts revolt and local movements in ways that empowered the participants economically culturally and politically Although heated battles over race and other cultural issues sometimes derailed the programs these organizations produced lasting positive effects for the communities they touched Despite Nixon era budget cuts and the nation's turn toward conservatism the War on Poverty continues to be fought today as these agencies embrace the changing politics economics and demographics of Los Angeles Race and the War on Poverty shows how the struggle to end poverty evolved in ways that would have surprised its planners supporters and detractors and that what began as a grand vision at the national level continues to thrive on the streets of the community

Social Welfare Policy Jerome H. Schiele, 2011 This book examines the conceptual historical and practical implications that various social policies in the United States have had on ethnic minorities

Legacies of Struggle Angie Y. Chung, 2007 Since the 1992 Los Angeles riots Koreatown has become increasingly fractured by intergenerational conflict class polarization and suburban flight In the face of these struggles community organizations can provide centralized resources and infrastructure to foster an ethnic consciousness and political solidarity among Korean Americans This book analyzes the role of ethnic community based organizations and the dynamics of contemporary Korean American politics Drawing on two case studies the author identifies diverse ways in which community based organizations negotiate their political agendas and mainstream ties within the traditional ethnic power structures One organization promotes middle class ethnic goals through accommodation to immigrant leaders while the other emphasizes social justice through alliances with outside interest groups Both cases challenge the traditional assumption that assimilation undermines ethnicity as a meaningful framework for political identity and solidarity in immigrant groups Legacies of Struggle reveals how community based organizations create innovative
