Multilateral Trading System In A Globalizing World:

The Multilateral Trading System in a Globalizing World Lee-Jay Cho, Yoon Hyung Kim, 2000 The thoroughly updated Fifth Edition of this classic critical care reference remains an unsurpassed source of definitive practical guidance on adult patient care in the ICU This edition reflects the most recent advances in the discipline while retaining the fundamental strengths that have made it such a popular success Under the guidance of expert editors and authors this comprehensive resource balances in depth discussions of medical and surgical intensive care while retaining its clinical focus Features Comprehensive encyclopaedic coverage addresses every issue readers are likely to encounter in the critical care setting Multidisciplinary perspectives with balanced coverage of medical and surgical critical care Chapters function as mini textbooks of procedures and toxicology A comprehensive appendix of calculations and formulas The WTO Multilateral Trading System in a Globalizing World Maarten Smeets, 2017 Efficiency, Equity, and Legitimacy Roger B. Porter, 2001 Despite its widely acknowledged contribution to global prosperity over the past half century the movement toward further liberalization has increasingly been challenged This collection of essays examine several key issues at the heart of the debate over the multilateral trading system The Sovereign Remedy? Antoni Esteve de Ojal, Kati Suominen, 2009-04-23 Drawing on a number of unique new datasets the authors seek to explore in historical context the relationship between trade agreements and the flow of global trade and to identify how governments and countries might unilaterally and collectively leverage trade agreements to increase trade and prosperity The Evolving Global Trade Architecture Dilip K. Das, 2007 This book is useful for scholars and practitioners who did not follow the GATT WTO negotiations and who desire to acquire a comprehensive background on the subject Mordechai E Kreinin Journal of Economic Literature This comprehensive and accessible book examines the evolution of the multilateral trade regime in the ever changing global economic environment particularly during the WTO era and the ongoing Doha Round Professor Das explores how the creation of the multilateral trade regime or the GATT WTO system has been fraught with difficulties He describes the ways by means of various rounds of negotiations the multilateral trade regime has constantly adjusted itself to the new realities of the global economy One glance at the recent history indicates that the evolution of the multilateral trade regime was far from even handed and steady The GATT WTO system was repeatedly pushed to the brink of utter and ignominious disaster Yet as the author illustrates the participating economies persevered Consequently the fabric of multilateral trade regime is stronger its foundation deeper and its framework wider now than it was a generation ago Unlike the GATT era membership of the present trade regime is close to universal The author concludes that of the two phases the latter has turned out to be the more arduous intricate and complex phase of evolution Students and scholars of economics international trade international political economy and international relations will find this study of great interest The definitions and explanations of terminology and advanced concepts make the book accessible to those without an extensive economic background Policy Space Conflicts in

Global Trade Politics Qinyi Xu, Chuanjing Guan, 2025-06-30 Policy Space Conflicts in Global Trade Politics delves into the structure driving forces and contemporary influencing factors of trade relations dynamics providing insights into the present and future trajectories of the global trade order The post pandemic global governance challenges combined with the concurrent if not concomitant escalation of economic rivalries between great powers are catalysing a weakening of the liberal international order undermining the very foundations upon which contemporary global production network is built With the return of geopolitical tensions the conflict over global governance versus state governance has again become the nexus where global trade politics are contested and negotiated This book presents the Policy Space Conflict framework an analytical framework that diverges from extant concepts of policy diffusion power transition socialisation and neo liberal institutionalist models of analyses and is instead advanced as a framework that renews the classic concept of policy space the space left for one to freely use preferred national policy instruments when integrated into the globalisation and institutionalisation process in the past decades The tensions inherent in and arising from policy space can be captured in the term policy space conflict illuminating the dynamic shifts regarding the convergence of rules under globalisation and de convergence concerns of states This book emphasises the underlying logic and motivating rationale that lie beneath the evolution of policy space conflict by theoretically revisiting the concept providing an overview of its forms in history since the Bretten Woods and transitions from market oriented to strategy based This exploration is examined using case studies drawn from real world trade politics which encompasses discussions on the decline of multilateralism the asymmetry in development between the Global South and Global North and China US institutional contestation This book will be of interest to scholars in the fields of international relations law political economy political science economics and international trade as well as a broad range of audiences who are concerned of global trade politics in times of global uncertainty Foreign
