Theology Theology and Doctrine Contemporary Theology Transforming Ministry Formation Hahnenberg, Edward P., Jewell, Marti R., Whapham, Theodore James, 2021 A theological and practical exploration of ministry formation in the church today The Commercial Church Mary Hinton, 2011-05-19 In this new book on the rise of commercial black mega churches Mary Hinton examines the rich legacy of the historic black church from the dual perspectives of theology and religious education She explores the new religious models emerging from the tradition of the historic black church and questions whether they are continuing to operate and practice according to the wisdom of this unique form of American religion Two mega church ministries those of T D Jakes and Creflo Dollar are examined in detail with regards to how they align with black church religious history Hinton concludes by proposing that the fastest growing religious phenomenon within and outside of the black community in the United States the mega church should no longer be analyzed based on size alone Instead Hinton urges readers to consider the ecclesiastical structures of churches in making appropriate assessments in determining should and should not be classified as a commercial church Religious Education in the African American Tradition Kenneth H. Hill, 2012-11 Schweitzer's goal in this book is to explore what postmodernity actually means for theology and how theology and the church may respond to its challenges He focuses on the life cycle as it is changing with the advent of postmodernity looking sequentially at segments of the life cycle using different lenses modernity postmodernity and responses from church and theology Schweitzer concludes with a theology of the life cycle Empowering Black Youth of Promise Sandra L. Barnes, Anne Streaty Wimberly, 2016-06-10 Informed by the experiences of 772 Black churches this book relies on a multidisciplinary mixed methodological lens to examine how today's Black churches address the religious and non religious educational and broader socialization needs of youth Drawing from a cultural and ecological framework of village mindedness Barnes and Wimberly examine the intersected nature of place space and race to propel a conversation about whether and how the Black Church can become a more relevant and empowering presence for youth and the Black community Intergenerational Catechesis timone a davis, 2021-03-12 In this work the author moves away from youth centered catechesis toward a catechetical method that gets at the heart of faith formation for ALL generations storytelling In the African American storytelling tradition both the storyteller and listener are important they embody the story What happens in the story exchange process is the discovery of connections The author s method of African American storytelling My Story Your Story brings to life the Christian story through our shared experiences Intergenerational catechesis invites us to see ourselves and one another across time through eyes that are young middle aged and elderly Based on an understanding of family intergenerational catechesis moves away from the domestic church as a starting point for growing in faith to the community as a starting point Where the domestic church focuses on those who live in the household intergenerational catechesis focuses on everyone in the Church community single persons divorced persons widows widowers teens young adults pre school and elementary children parents grandparents aunts and uncles In highlighting our connections we are better able to see ourselves and one another differently When we see ourselves and others transformed faith is revitalized Encyclopedia of Christian Education George Thomas Kurian, Mark A.

savvy hip hop violent and plagued with HIV AIDS The Church wants to guide youth toward a Christian identity with values for wise decision making Youth want their questions heard They want to see hope modeled They need leadership opportunities While there are no quick easy or singular approaches to working with black youth there can be a framework to offer vital and relevant youth ministry This book proposes a comprehensive framework that has evolved over ten years of annual youth and family convocations of the Interdenominational Theological Center as well as youth and family forums and activities related to the Youth Hope Builders Academy of ITC The framework builds on the image of the congregation as a village of hope where pastors and leaders get real to offer the church as a place of support guidance and accountability for youth parents and other adults who are raising today's black youth Contributors Daniel O Black Philip Dunston Maisha I Handy Michael T McQueen Tapiwa Mucherera Elizabeth J Walker Herbert R Marbury Annette R Marbury and Anne E Streaty Wimberly

And We Shall Learn through the Dance Kathleen S. Turner, 2021-07-28 Liturgical dance is a way to present reflect instruct learn study and share religious beliefs with one's self within one's worship community and with one's God Such a belief is confirmed and witnessed within a variety of religious settings throughout the world from the beginning of time to this present age However there is a vacuum of resources that connect liturgical dance within the Christian context as a tool for religious learning within the field of religious education With the continual rise of liturgical dance as an artistic form of expression this book proposes that liturgical dance offers unique attributes conducive to the teaching and learning of faith and to faith formation Kathleen S Turner shows how liturgical dance is religious education in two very important ways first by addressing the power and potential liturgical dance has in nourishing the faith life of Christian congregants through means that are both educative and reflective and second by giving examples of how liturgical dance can be implemented as a religious education tool within the teaching life of the church
