Pc Wars Politics And Correctness In The Academy:

PC Wars Jeffrey Williams, 1995 First Published in 1995 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

PC Wars Jeffrey Williams, 2013-12-19 PC Wars Politics and Theory in the Academy addresses the very issue of political correctness and the current skirmishes in the culture wars It includes statements from many of our leading contemporary public intellectuals including Joan Wallach Scott Michael B rub Bruce Robbins Henry Giroux and Gerald Graff The collection marks a watershed in the debate about pc in that it presents serious considerations and analyses of the factors causes and consequences of the culture wars Carefully examining the construction of pc PC Wars analyses political correctness by focusing on the mass media class politics and the ideology of managerial democracy It places the disputes around pc in the context of contemporary developments in critical and cultural theory and the current backlash against theory manifested in the recent attacks on Marxism feminism and deconstruction The book also scrutinizes the undercurrents of anti intellectualism and anti professionalism which have tended to create a fertile ground for the pc hysteria Offering much more than slogans and slinging arrows PC Wars provides a spirited and critical look at the reaction ideology and political forces that have coalesced around the term Contributors Michael B rub Reed Way Dasenbrock Frank Farmer Henry Giroux Gerald Graff Darlene Hantzis and Devoney Looser John S Howard and James M Lang Tom Lewis James Neilson Christopher Newfield Richard Ohmann Burce Robbins Barry Sarchett Joan W Scott Michael Sprinker Jeffrey Williams The Demise of the Library School Richard J. Cox, 2010 In The Demise of the Library School Richard J Cox places the present and future of professional education for librarianship in the debate on the modern corporate university The book is a series of meditations on critical themes relating to the education of librarians archivists and other information professionals playing off of other commentators analyzing the nature of higher education and its problems and promises Bodymakers Leslie Heywood, 1998 Women with muscles are a recent phenomenon While generating a good deal of interest both positive and negative their importance to the cultural landscape has yet to be acknowledged Leslie Heywood looks at female body building as a metaphor for how women fare in our current political and cultural climate BODYMAKERS reveals how female bodybuilders find themselves both trapped and empowered by their sport 14 illustrations Speak No Evil Jon B. Gould, 2010-02-15 Opponents of speech codes often argue that liberal academics use the codes to advance an agenda of political correctness But Jon B Gould s provocative book based on an enormous amount of empirical evidence reveals that the real reasons for their growth are to be found in the pragmatic almost utilitarian considerations of college administrators Instituting hate speech policy he shows was often a symbolic response taken by university leaders to reassure campus constituencies of their commitment against intolerance In an academic version of keeping up with the Joneses some schools created hate speech codes to remain within what they saw as the mainstream of higher education Only a relatively small number of colleges crafted codes out of deep commitment to their merits Although college speech codes have been overturned by the courts

Speak No Evil argues that their rise has still had a profound influence on curtailing speech in other institutions such as the media and has also shaped mass opinion and common understandings of constitutional norms Ultimately Gould contends this kind of informal law can have just as much power as the Constitution After Political Correctness Christopher Newfield, 2018-02-20 This book resituates the political correctness debates in the humanities branch of the academy It contends that conservatives have tainted entire academic disciplines to cause university humanists to go from irrelevant to dangerous overnight American Studies International, 1995 Traveling through the Boondocks Terry Caesar, 2000-07-03 What is it like to be a faculty member at a university in the United States that enjoys no reputation or distinction Traveling through the Boondocks discusses this situation not from the top down but from the bottom up where the experience of exclusion ranges from that of departments where scholarship gets to count in hiring decisions to conferences where only individuals from elite institutions get to appear on stage This book reinvigorates our understanding of higher education by illuminating the everyday conditions under which academics work and the hierarchical distinctions in which they are always embedded Tiresian Poetics Ed Madden, 2008 Blind seer articulate dead and mythic transsexual the figure of Tiresias has always represented a liminal identity and forms of knowledge associated with the crossing of epistemological and ontological boundaries In twentieth century literature the boundaries crossed and embodied by Tiresias are primarily sexual and the liminal and usually prophetic knowledge associated with Tiresias is based in sexual difference and sexual pleasure Indeed in literature of the twentieth century Tiresias has come to function as a cultural shorthand for queer sexualities This book argues for the emergence of a Tiresian poetics at the end of the nineteenth century As Victorian and modernist writers reimagined Ovid's tale of sex change and sexual judgment they also created a poetics that grounded artistic or performative power in figures of sexual difference most often a feminized often homosexual male body which this study links to the developing discourses of homosexuality and sexual identity BOOK JACKET Post-Nationalist American Studies John Carlos Rowe, 2000-12-04 Post Nationalist American Studies seeks to revise the cultural nationalism and celebratory American exceptionalism that tended to dominate American Studies in the Cold War era The goal of the book's contributors is a less insular more trans national comparative approach to American Studies one that questions dominant American myths rather than canonizes them Articulating new ways to think about American Studies these essays demonstrate how diverse the field has become Contributors are concerned with cross cultural communication race and gender global and local identities and the complex tensions between symbolic and political economies Their essays explore among other topics the construction of foreign peoples and cultures the notion of borders territorial racial economic and sexual the multilingual reality of the United States the place of the Mexican American War in U S history and the significance of Tiger Woods in today's global market of consumption Together the essays propose a renewed vision of the United States role in the world and how American Studies scholarship can address that vision Each contributor includes a sample syllabus showing how the issues discussed in individual essays can be brought into the classroom Cooperative Argumentation

Visions of Community in Contemporary American Fiction Magali Cornier Michael,2008-04 In this engaging optimistic close reading of five late twentieth century novels by American women Magali Cornier Michael illuminates the ways in which their authors engage with ideas of communal activism common commitment and social transformation The fictions she examines imagine coalition building as a means of moving toward new forms of nonhierarchical justice for ethnic cultures that as a result of racist attitudes have not been assimilated power with each other rather than power over each other is a collective goal Michael argues that much contemporary American fiction by women offers models of care and nurturing that move away from the private sphere toward the public and political Specifically texts by women from such racially marked ethnic groups as African American Asian American Native American and Mexican American draw from the rich systems of thought histories and experiences of these hybrid cultures and thus offer feminist and ethical revisions of traditional concepts of community coalition subjectivity and agency Focusing on Amy Tan s The Joy Luck Club Barbara Kingsolver s The Bean Trees and Pigs in Heaven Ana Castillo s So Far from God and Toni Morrison s Paradise Michael shows that each writer emphasizes the positive liberating effects of kinship and community These hybrid versions of community which draw from other than dominant culturally specific ideas and histories have something to offer Americans as the United States moves into an increasingly diverse twenty first century Michael provides a rich lens through which to view both contemporary fiction and contemporary life The Making of Reverse Discrimination Ellen Messer-Davidow,2021-07-14 In The Making of

Reverse Discrimination Ellen Messer Davidow offers a fresh and incisive analysis of the legal judicial discourse of DeFunis v Odegaard 1974 and Regents of the University of California v Bakke 1978 the first two cases challenging race conscious admissions to professional schools to reach the US Supreme Court While the voluminous literature on DeFunis and Bakke has focused on the Supreme Court's far from definitive answers to important constitutional questions Messer Davidow closely examines each case from beginning to end She investigates the social surrounds where the cases incubated their tours through the courts and their aftereffects Her analysis shows how lawyers and judges used the mechanisms of language and law to narrow the conflict to a single white male applicant and a single white dominated university program to dismiss the historical sociological statistical and experiential facts of systemic racism and thereby to assemble reverse discrimination as a new object of legal analysis In exposing the discursive mechanisms that marginalized the interests of applicants and communities of color Messer Davidow demonstrates that the construction of facts the reasoning by precedent and the invocation of constitutional principles deserve more scrutiny than they have received in the scholarly literature Although facts precedents and principles are said to bring stability and equity to the law Messer Davidow argues that the white centered narratives of DeFunis and Bakke not only bleached the color from equal protection but also served as the template for the dozens of anti affirmative action projects lawsuits voter referenda executive orders that conservative movement organizations mounted in the following years academics have been socially constructed Wild Science Janine Marchessault, Kim Sawchuk, 2013-10-18 Wild Science investigates the world wide boom in health culture While self help health books and medical dramas are popular around the globe we are bombarded with daily media images of DNA research and news reports about cloning the fight against AIDS cancer and depression With popular culture now the principal means through which the non scientific population encounters science why do certain images of science get promoted above others Contributors examine the public meanings of science revealing the frictions and contradictions within popular representations of what medicine can and should do Focusing on the visual culture of medicine they show how representations of science have a direct impact on popular perceptions of the limits of science and ultimately on health education funding and research and examine the belief that media literacy in popular representations of medicine makes an ethical public discourse on the aims of science possible With sections addressing the new visual technologies which make the human body into a virtual territory the diagnostic and medical practices centered around women s bodies and popular debates around genetics and identity Wild Science argues that science is a practice bound in values and institutions and argues for a responsible engagement with the public cultures of science and health
