Croatians in Australia Ilija Šutalo, 2004 Ilija Sutalo has given us a detailed and fascinating insight into Croatian settlers from the 1800s to the present the likes of which has never before been attempted Yet Croatians have been here for 150 years and by the 1930s were well organised and conscious of their heritage A people without whom Australia could not have developed and grown

The Life and Times of Six Australian Pioneers James Arthur Loftus, 2022-11-21 This true life adventure story is the saga of four ordinary Englishmen a pair of banished first time petty thieves and a couple chosen to be settlers who charted a course that led them to help build and mould an infant country on the remotest continent in the known world Two of their offspring united to continue the adventure Vivid first hand accounts have been pried from the daily hand written journals and writings of first class passengers crew and one of the convicts aboard the small wooden sailing ships as they battled winter storms on the treacherous North Atlantic and Southern Oceans and endured scorching doldrums in the equatorial region Mutinies inventions discoveries and wars have been chronicled to provide a backdrop of the prevailing international societal and interpersonal relationships of the period Characters from history's stage weave their way through these pages figures including James Cook Horatio Nelson Robert Emmet Jonathan Swift William Bligh Lachlan Macquarie Samuel Marsden Walter Lawry Alfred Howitt and some long forgotten souls like the tragic Margaret Sullivan Artwork of the period is included to help stimulate the imagination and help place the reader beside the characters as they toiled to eke out an existence The primary objective of this biography is a quest to achieve a broader deeper understanding and appreciation of the typical person including their struggles challenges and contributions in early colonial New South Wales Victoria and New Zealand The goal is to further the development of a robust comprehension of the Life and Times that these Six Australian Pioneers experienced as well the millions of other pioneers just like them This book will also appeal to those with an interest in eighteenth and nineteenth century Australian European and New Zealand history late eighteenth century ocean voyages and those with an interest in artwork of the period

Pioneers & Icons of Australian Motorsport Bill Pearson, 2025-02-21 The author has captured in words and lavish illustrations many of his own that have never been seen before the stories of over one hundred men and women whose personal motor racing journeys paved the way to establish and explode this sport They did so both locally and overseas showing that Aussies were as good as the world's best when it came to not only skill behind the wheel but also in the design and manufacture of the fastest cars and in organising events of the highest level and regard. Most of these names are extremely well known by all Aussie petrol heads household names admired around any backyard barbecue. Just the mention of their names brings nods of respect. But you will additionally read accounts of some very significant lives and racing achievements you previously knew nothing about and some are quite simply amazing. There's our first woman to race commercially overseas. Just how she got there is incredible. Then you share the exploits of an illegal inter-capital record holder who went to New Zealand to break the land speed record, the farmers whose sons and grandsons became racing dynasties and the home-grown mechanics and car builders whose designs obliterated all competition. Strap yourself in and hang on. It's gonna be a bloody wild ride.

The Golden South: Memories of Australian Home Life from 1843 to 1888
Kathleen Lambert, 2019-12-09. In The Golden South: Memories of Australian Home Life from 1843 to 1888 Kathleen Lambert intricately weaves personal narratives and historical accounts to render a vivid tapestry of domestic life in 19th century Australia. Through a collection of evocative memoirs Lambert explores themes such as resilience, community and the negotiation of identity within the context of colonialism. Her literary style is characterized by rich descriptive prose and a deep engagement with the socio-cultural dynamics of the time, placing her work firmly within the tradition of Australian historical literature that seeks to understand the lived experiences behind significant historical events. Kathleen Lambert, a scholar with a profound interest in Australian history and culture, draws upon her extensive research and firsthand accounts to craft this poignant narrative. Her background in sociology and history has equipped her with the analytical tools to delve into the complexities of family life and social practices during a transformative period in Australia's development. Lambert's passion for preserving these historical memories is evident as she connects contemporary readers to the personal stories that shaped a burgeoning nation. This enlightening book is highly recommended for readers interested in Australian history, social anthropology and personal narratives of resilience. The Golden South not only provides a rich historical context but also invites readers to reflect on the enduring themes of home, belonging and the human experience. Whether for academic study or personal enrichment, Lambert's work serves as an essential addition to the understanding of Australia's past.

Number 2 Home Noreen Jones, 2002. The Japanese who migrated to Australia before 1901 were not only the prostitutes, pimps and pearlers of popular fiction. They were families, farmers and fishermen, entrepreneurs and itinerants. With determination and ambition, many of them successfully established themselves in their new home. But the few who were granted citizenship were later stripped of the status and untold numbers made
