Allen,2011-11-18 As a chef I wan to devote a tasted and unused jam to making as my grand fathers did it is still a pleasure to turn favorite fruit into a delicious jam Once you open a pot of homemade jam and store in the refrigerator and use within a few weeks U.S. Geological Survey Professional Paper ,1972 An Outline of Tectonic, Igneous, and Metamorphic Events in the Goshute-Toano Range Between Silver Zone Pass and White Horse Pass, Elko County, Nevada Keith Brindley Ketner,1998 U.S. Foreign Agricultural Trade Statistical Report , The Williwaw War Donald Goldstein,Katherine V. Symposium,2005 Accompanying CD ROM includes the symposium proceedings The Game Breeder Dwight Williams Huntington,1927 Television Variety Shows David M. Inman,2014-12-03 For the few hundred television viewers in 1946 a special treat on the broadcast schedule was the variety show called Hour Glass It was the first TV program to go beyond talking heads cooking demonstrations and sporting events featuring instead dancers comics singers and long commercials for its sponsor Chase and Sanborn coffee Within two years another variety show Texaco Star Theatre became the first true television hit and would be credited with the sales of thousands of television sets The variety show formula was a staple of television in its first 30 years in part because it lent itself to a medium where everything had to be live and preferably inside a studio Most of the early television stars including Jackie Gleason Milton Berle Sid Caesar Ed Sullivan Red Skelton Dinah Shore and Arthur Godfrey rose to prominence through weekly variety shows In the 1960s major stars such as Jerry Lewis Dean Martin Judy Garland and Danny Kaye were hosting variety shows By the 1970s the format was giving way to sitcoms and dramas but pop music stars Sonny and Cher Tony Orlando and Dawn and Donny and Marie Osmond hosted some of the last of the species This book details 57 variety shows from the 1940s through the 1990s A history of each show is first provided followed by a brief look at each episode Air date guest stars sketches performed and a listing of songs featured are included U.S. Foreign Agricultural Trade Statistical Report, Calendar Year , Ceramic Commodities and Common Containers Daniela Triadan,1997-03 For more than a century the study of ceramics has been a fundamental base for archaeological research and anthropological interpretation in the American Southwest The widely distributed White Mountain Red Ware has frequently been used by archaeologists to reconstruct late 13th and 14th century Western Pueblo sociopolitical and socioeconomic organization Relying primarily on stylistic analyses and the relative abundance of this ceramic ware in site assemblages most scholars have assumed that it was manufactured within a restricted area on the southeastern edge of the Colorado Plateau and distributed via trade and exchange networks that may have involved controlled access to these ceramics This monograph critically evaluates these traditional interpretations utilizing large scale compositional and petrographic analyses that established multiple production zones for White Mountain Red Ware including one in the Grasshopper region during Pueblo IV times The compositional data combined with settlement data and an analysis of archaeological contexts demonstrates that White Mountain Red Ware vessels were readily accessible and widely used household goods and that migration and subsequent local production in the destination areas were important factors in their wide distribution during the 14th century Ceramic Commodities and Common Containers provides new insights into the organization of ceramic production and distribution in the northern Southwest and into the processes of social reorganization that characterized the late 13th and 14th century Western Pueblo world As one of the few studies that integrate materials analysis into archaeological research Triadan's monograph marks a crucial contribution to the reconstruction of these prehistoric societies
