Place Of Ones Own:

A Place of Our Own June Thomas, 2024-05-28 A riveting and indispensable Alison Bechdel cultural history of queer women's lives in the second half of the twentieth century told through six iconic spaces. For as long as queer women have existed they've created gathering grounds where they can be themselves. From the intimate darkness of the lesbian bar to the sweaty camaraderie of the softball field these spaces aren't a luxury they're a necessity for queer women defining their identities. In A Place of Our Own journalist June Thomas invites readers into six iconic lesbian spaces over the course of the last sixty years including the rural commune the sex toy boutique the vacation spot and the feminist bookstore. Thomas blends her own experiences with archival research and rare interviews with pioneering figures like Elaine Romagnoli Susie Bright and Jacqueline Woodson. She richly illustrates the lives of the business owners entrepreneurs activists and dreamers who shaped the long struggle for queer liberation. Thomas illuminates what is gained and lost in the shift from the exclusive tight-knit women's spaces of the 70s toward today's more inclusive yet more diffuse LGBTQ communities. At once a love letter a time capsule and a bridge between generations of queer women A Place of Our Own brings the history and timeless present of the lesbian community to vivid life.

A Place of Their Own Karen George, 1999 Blending oral history with historical records A Place of Their Own tells the story of the men and women of War Service Land Settlement at Loxton in South Australia's Riverland.

The Experiences of Film Location Tourists Stefan Roesch, 2009 This book examines the on-site experiences of film-induced tourists at various film locations including locations from The Lord of the Rings Star Wars and The Sound of Music. The study attempts to understand the needs and wants of film location tourists and also examines how to use films for destination marketing.

Judaism's Story of Creation Jacob Neusner, 2021-09-06 During the formative age of Judaism the first seven centuries CE the great rabbis thought deeply about beginnings in light of endings. They imposed upon their sequential reading of each passage the accumulated results of their reflection about all passages. Thus they encompassed Scripture so as to describe the world as God had intended it to be. This act of intellect resulted in two distinct ahistorical media of thought and expression the Halakhah law and Aggadah lore. The author provides three systematic accounts of the Halakhic reading and two Aggadic accounts. The Halakhic accounts cover 1 Work and Rest 2 Ownership and Possession Eden and the Land and 3 Ownership and Possession in the Household. The Aggadic accounts pertain to 1 the Six Days of Creation and 2 Adam and Eve.

Stories of Culture and Place Michael G. Kenny, Kirsten Smillie, 2017-11-06 Stories of Culture and Place makes use of one of anthropology's most enduring elements storytelling to introduce students to the excitement of the discipline. The authors invite students to think of anthropology as a series of stories that emerge from cultural encounters in particular times and places. References to classic and contemporary ethnographic examples from Coming of Age in Samoa to Coming of Age in Second Life allow students to grasp anthropology's sometimes problematic past while still capturing the potential of the discipline. This new edition has been significantly reorganized and includes two new chapters one on health and one on economic change as well as fresh ethnographic examples The result is a more streamlined introductory text that offers thorough coverage but is still manageable to teach Planning and Place in the City Marichela Sepe, 2013-03-05 Under the influence of globalization the centres of many cities in the industrialised world are losing their place identity the set of cultural markers that define a city's uniqueness and make it instantly recognisable A key task for planners and residents working together is to preserve that unique sense of place without making the city a parody of itself In Planning and Place in the City Marichela Sepe explores the preservation reconstruction and enhancement of cultural heritage and place identity She outlines the history of the concept of placemaking and sets out the range of different methods of analysis and assessment that are used to help pin down the nature of place identity This book also uses the author's own survey based method called PlaceMaker to detect elements that do not feature in traditional mapping and identifies appropriate planning interventions Case studies investigate cities in Europe North America and Asia which demonstrate how surveys and interviews can be used to draw up an analytical map of place identity This investigative work is a crucial step in identifying cultural elements which will influence what planning decisions should be taken in the future The maps aim to establish a dialogue with local residents and support planners and administrators in making sustainable changes The case studies are amply illustrated with survey data sheets photos and coloured maps Innovative and broad based Planning and Place in the City lays out an approach to the identification and preservation of place and cultural heritage suitable for students academics and professionals alike African Cinema and Human Rights Mette Hjort, Eva Jørholt, 2019-03-01 Bringing theory and practice together African Cinema and Human Rights argues that moving images have a significant role to play in advancing the causes of justice and fairness The contributors to this volume identify three key ways in which film can achieve these goals documenting human rights abuses and thereby supporting the claims of victims and goals of truth and reconciliation within larger communities legitimating and consequently solidifying an expanded scope for human rights and promoting the realization of social and economic rights Including the voices of African scholars scholar filmmakers African directors Jean Marie Teno and Gaston Kabor and researchers whose work focuses on transnational cinema this volume explores overall perspectives and differences of perspective pertaining to Africa human rights and human rights filmmaking alongside specific case studies of individual films and areas of human rights violations With its interdisciplinary scope attention to practitioners self understandings broad perspectives and particular case studies African Cinema and Human Rights is a foundational text that offers questions reflections and evidence that help us to consider film's ideal role within the context of our ever continuing struggle towards a more just global society The Growing Place Ron Brandon, Brenda Brandon, 2009-12 If you are facing addiction in any facet of your life The Growing Place is a one of a kind must have comprehensive resource focusing on living the major themes of the New Testament one day at a time The Growing Place contains straightforward honest powerful and gripping insights that will captivate your mind and stimulate your

Nice Place, Shame About the Human Race Allan Gilmour, 2012-10-23 He knew the earth experiment was still working even though the human element component was running very much behind schedule Tommy made a grumbling sound and slowly shook his furry head from side to side crying Wars greed jealousy illnesses unhappiness dissatisfaction obsessions for power Its just not what I had expected I know but give it time It will happen one day The earth assignment is not as old as all the other projects we have been working upon Eric hastily reassured Tommy was not about to give up on the present venture and with this thought in mind he stared with his numerous eyes into Eric's multiple eyes and with many worrisome looks he mumbled its a nice place shame about the human race The above is an extract taken from the final piece of my foreword for the book Nice place shame about the human race which attempts to create a better awareness of our everyday actions and elucidates the importance of discovering ones true identity for a better chance of living a happier more balanced life Mounting dissatisfactions and insecurities of our modern world together with the general inquisitiveness of human nature to wish observe ones actions are areas of modern life which have gained popularity over the last decade when searching for reasoning or answers to our everyday problems Commencing at the aftermath of World War II and continuing to the present day a journey is undertaken in trying to illustrate modern western societys increased negative attitudes and behaviour and of the importance of discovering who we really are with a view to more personal happiness This book is an entertaining slightly ironical check in the mirror if you like of modern behaviour It observes how modern society has seemingly done away with aspiring to reach higher goals and standards and at the same time appears to have become content with mediocrity and of aiming towards lower levels of existence My main justifications for writing such a book were primarily based upon the search for answers as to why society in the modern western world has reached its present state of development in the constitution of which it finds itself in the present day if it is possible to live modern life in a more balanced friendlier frame of mind which would inexorably lead to more happiness and as an attempt to help you the reader into being more aware of our daily conscious and subconscious conduct towards fellow citizens and of the ensuing consequences of those actions We are to journey through the many different stages of modern western life as based upon our upbringing in an industrialised society and although you may have heard some of the themes and topics many times before I have attempted to pick out the quintessence of noting how individuals react within the confines of our various societies and communal boundaries What type of person is Nice place shame about the human race aimed for Well basically anybody who is still interested about the values of our modern society but specifically when amid the interference and confusion of modern society one is searching for personal direction into discovering oneself Emphasis has been placed upon the significance of living ones own individuality thus being aware of who one really is and of the importance of taking more self responsibility for ones actions Here is a short list of reasons compiled for those who would possibly find my work of interest 1 If feeling a little out of touch with our fast paced modern society 2 When interested in achieving more personal awareness in everyday activities 3 When concerned about societies present course of development 4 When trying to understand modern societies push and shove mentality 5 When searching for more in depth reasoning to our lives 6 W The Francis W. The Top Books of the Year Place Of Ones Own The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the captivating narratives that have captivated audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Place Of Ones Own : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and thrilling novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
