Poetic Bridge:

The Bridge Hart Crane, 1970 Hart Crane's Poetry John T. Irwin, 2011-11-17 In one of his letters Hart Crane wrote Appollinaire lived in Paris I live in Cleveland Ohio comparing misspelling and all the great French poet's cosmopolitan roots to his own more modest ones in the midwestern United States Rebelling against the notion that his work should relate to some European school of thought Crane defiantly asserted his freedom to be himself a true American writer John T Irwin long a passionate and brilliant critic of Crane gives readers the first major interpretation of the poet's work in decades Irwin aims to show that Hart Crane's epic The Bridge is the best twentieth century long poem in English Irwin convincingly argues that compared to other long poems of the century The Bridge is the richest and most wide ranging in its mythic and historical resonances the most inventive in its combination of literary and visual structures the most subtle and compelling in its psychological underpinnings Irwin brings a wealth of new and varied scholarship to bear on his critical reading of the work from art history to biography to classical literature to philosophy revealing The Bridge to be the near perfect synthesis of American myth and history that Crane intended Irwin contends that the most successful entryway to Crane's notoriously difficult shorter poems is through a close reading of The Bridge Having admirably accomplished this Irwin analyzes Crane's poems in White Buildings and his last poem The Broken Tower through the larger context of his epic showing how Crane in the best of these worked out the structures and images that were fully developed in The Bridge Thoughtful deliberate and extraordinarily learned this is the most complete and careful reading of Crane's poetry available Hart Crane may have lived in Cleveland Ohio but as Irwin masterfully shows his poems stand among the greatest written in the English language

Poetry, Architecture, and the New York School Mae Losasso, 2023-12-20 Poetry Architecture and the New York School Something Like a Liveable Space examines the relationship between poetics and architecture in the work of the first generation New York School poets Frank O Hara John Ashbery Barbara Guest and James Schuyler Reappraising the much debated New York School label Mae Losasso shows how these writers constructed poetic spaces structures surfaces and apertures and sought to figure themselves and their readers in relation to these architextual sites In doing so Losasso reveals how the built environment shapes the poetic imagination and how in turn poetry alters the way we read and inhabit architectural space Animated by archival research and architectural photographs Poetry Architecture and the New York School marks a decisive interdisciplinary turn in New York School studies and offers new frameworks for thinking about postmodern American poetry in the twenty first century The Lyrical Bridge Philip Grundlehner, 1979 Analyzes in detail nine German poems each representing a different literary era containing the bridge as a poetic symbol Includes poems by Holderlin Nietzsche Rilke and Benn Dakshina Prema Nanda Kumar, 1995 Isfahan Farshid Emami, 2024-04-02 A vibrant urban settlement from medieval times and the royal seat of the Safavid dynasty the city of Isfahan emerged as a great metropolis during the seventeenth century Using key sources this book reconstructs the spaces and senses of this dynamic city Focusing on nuances of urban experience Farshid Emami expands our understanding of Isfahan in a global context He takes the reader on an evocative journey through the city's markets promenades and coffeehouses bringing to life the social landscapes that animated the lives of urban dwellers and shaped their perceptions of themselves and the world In doing so Emami reveals seventeenth century Isfahan as more than a cluster of beautiful monuments and gardens It was a cosmopolitan city where senses and materials nature and artifice and ritual and sociability acted in unison engendering urban experiences that became paramount across the globe during the early modern period Drawing extensively on Persian literary and visual sources including the Guide for Strolling in Isfahan this book casts new light on the history of a major Eurasian city and opens up new possibilities for cross cultural studies of urban experience in the early modern period

Of Bridges Thomas Harrison, 2023-06-05 Offers a philosophical history of bridges both literal bridges and their symbolic counterparts and the acts of cultural connection they embody Always wrote Philip Larkin it is by bridges that we live Bridges represent our aspirations to connect to soar across divides And it is the unfinished business of these aspirations that makes bridges such stirring sights especially when they are marvels of ingenuity A rich compendium of myths superstitions and literary and ideological figurations Of Bridges organizes a poetic and philosophical history of bridges into nine thematic clusters Leaping in lucid prose between distant times and places Thomas Harrison questions why bridges are built and where they lead He probes links forged by religion between life's transience and eternity as well as the consolidating ties of music illustrated by the case of the blues He investigates bridges in poetry as flash points in war and the megabridges of our globalized world He illuminates real and symbolic crossings facing migrants each day and the affective connections that make persons and societies cohere In readings of literature film philosophy and art Harrison engages in a profound reflection on how bridges form and transform cultural communities Of Bridges is a mesmerizing vertiginous tale of bridges both visible and invisible both lived and imagined
