Poetics And Literature Of The Sicilian Diaspora:

Poetics and Literature of the Sicilian Diaspora Justin Vitiello, 1993 Twentieth-century Italian Literature in English Translation Robin Healey, 1998-01-01 This bibliography lists English language translations of twentieth century Italian literature published chiefly in book form between 1929 and 1997 encompassing fiction poetry plays screenplays librettos journals and diaries and correspondence Italian Literature since 1900 in English Translation 1929-2016 Robin Healey, 2019-03-07 Providing the most complete record possible of texts by Italian writers active after 1900 this annotated bibliography covers over 4 800 distinct editions of writings by some 1 700 Italian authors Many entries are accompanied by useful notes that provide information on the authors works translators and the reception of the translations This book includes the works of Pirandello Calvino Eco and more recently Andrea Camilleri and Valerio Manfredi Together with Robin Healey's Italian Literature before 1900 in English Translation also published by University of Toronto Press in 2011 this volume makes comprehensive information on translations from Italian accessible for schools libraries and those interested in comparative literature The Heart and the Island Chiara Mazzucchelli, 2015-08-04 Makes the case for a distinctly Sicilian American literature In The Heart and the Island Chiara Mazzucchelli explores the strong bond between Sicilian American writers and the island of Sicily Self contained yet connected to the mainland geographically separated from yet politically united to the rest of Italy Sicily occupies a unique position Throughout the twentieth century the sense of a distinct sicilianit or Sicilianness has manifested itself in a corpus of texts that although subsumed under the broader context of Italian literature have distinguished themselves as examples of an exquisitely Sicilian literary experience Mazzucchelli argues that a parallel phenomenon sicilianamericanit has emerged in the United States Focusing on the island's geography history and culture she examines how many American authors of Sicilian descent derive inspiration from their ethnic milieu and lay out a recognizable set of Sicilian culture markers in their works thereby producing a literature that is distinctly Sicilian American Drawing on both Italian and Italian American scholarship The Heart and the Island is the first full length study of Sicilian American literature and it opens a space for new interdisciplinary discussions on what it means to be Italian on both sides of the ocean The Heart and the Island makes a distinctive contribution to the field of Italian American studies provocatively extending it as well as continuing the invaluable work of providing reflection on a variety of narratives distinguished by generic innovation and distinctive responses to sicilianit Chiara Mazzucchelli has beautifully advanced the field interweaving with skill and poise the voices of Sicilian and Sicilian American writers Mary Jo Bona author of By the Breath of Their Mouths Narratives of Resistance in Italian America Dagoes Read Fred L. Gardaphé, 1996 Since 1987 writer and critic Fred Gardaph has regularly reviewed Italian North American literature in Fra Noi an Italian American monthly newspaper based in Chicago This volume features the best of Parole Scritte his monthly columns Introduced by an essay from which the collection gets its title Dagoes Read is the first publication of its kind in the history of Italian North American literature It serves as a fine introduction to this literary movement as well as a survey of recent publications by Italian North Americans Works reviewed include those by Tony Ardiaone Dorothy Bryant Pietro di Donato John Fante Maria Mazziotti Gillan Frank Lentricchia Jay Parini Diane Raptosh Gay Talese Sal LaPuma and many others Beyond the Margin Paolo Giordano,Anthony Julian Tamburri,1998 The editors goal in this book is to give a critical overview of where Italian American literary and cultural studies are today To this end Beyond the Margin includes three types of essays the characteristics of Italian American literature and culture in a general sense specific writers and film Encyclopedia of Italian Literary Studies Gaetana Marrone,Paolo Puppa,2006-12-26 The Encyclopedia of Italian Literary Studies is a two volume reference book containing some 600 entries on all aspects of Italian literary culture It includes analytical essays on authors and works from the most important figures of Italian literature to little known authors and works that are influential to the field The Encyclopedia is distinguished by substantial articles on critics themes genres schools historical surveys and other topics related to the overall subject of Italian literary studies The Encyclopedia also includes writers and subjects of contemporary interest such as those relating to journalism film media children s literature food and vernacular literatures Entries consist of an essay on the topic and a bibliographic portion listing works for further reading and in the case of entries on individuals a brief biographical paragraph and list of works by the person It will be useful to people without specialized knowledge of Italian literature as well as to scholars Dark Mother Lucia Chiavola Birnbaum,2001 Bringing a feminist perspective to contemporary findings of geneticists and archeologists Lucia Chiavola Birnbaum cultural historian points out that the oldest veneration we know is of a dark mother of central and south Africa whose signs ochre red and the pubic V were taken by african migrants after 50 000 BCE to caves and cliffs of all continents The oldest sanctuary in the world was created in 40 000 BCE by african migrants in Har Karkom later called Mt Sinai foundation place of judaism christianity and islam Lucia documents the continuing memory of the dark mother and her values in prehistoric images of the dark mother in historic black madonnas and in other dark women divinities whose sanctuaries are on african paths She tracks the memory in rituals and stories of her sicilian grandmothers in persecution of dark others in patriarchal Europe and the United States in the rise of nonviolent dark others since the 1960s in the banners of the 1995 world conference of women at Beijing and in art She finds the dark mother s values justice with compassion equality and transformation in everyday and celebratory rituals of the world s subaltern cultures and suggests that the image and values are in the submerged memories of everyone Festival of the Poor Jane C. Schneider,Peter T. Schneider,2022-08-16 The historical decline of fertility in Europe has occupied a central place in social history and demography over the past quarter century Most scholars credit Europeans with modulating sexual behavior through either abstinence or the practice of coitus interruptus as a rational choice made in the interest of personal economic comfort yet peasant and working classes have typically lagged behind in birth control and have given rise to the adage that sexual embrace is the festival of the poor Scholarly analyses of lag often reinforce this stigmatizing view Now this subject is given a fresh look through a case study in Sicily one of the last outposts of Western Europe's demographic transition By examining population changes in a single community between 1860 and 1980 the authors offer an extended review and critique of existing models of fertility decline in Europe proposing a new interpretation that emphasizes historical context and class relations They show how the spread of capitalism in Sicily induced an unprecedented rate of population growth with boom and bust cycles creating the class experiences in which reputational networks came to redefine family life how Sicilians began to control their fertility in response to class mediated ideas about gender relations and respectable family size and how the town's gentry artisan and peasant classes adopted family planning methods at different times in response to different pressures Jane and Peter Schneider's anthropologically oriented political economy perspective challenges the position of Western Europe as a model for fertility decline on which every other case should converge looking instead at the diversity of cultural ideals and practices such as those found in Sicily that influence the spread and form of birth control Combining anthropological oral historical and archival methods in new and insightful ways the authors synthesis of a particular case study with a broad historical and theoretical discussion will play a major role in the ongoing debates over the history of European fertility decline and point the way toward integrating the analysis of demographic upheaval with the study of class formation and ideology

The Future Has an Ancient Heart

Lucia Chiavola Birnbaum,2012-08-16 Feminist cultural historian Lucia Chiavola Birnbaum caps her previous work with The Future has an Ancient Heart a scholarly study of the transformative legacy of African origins and values of caring sharing healing and vision carried by African migrants throughout the world Birnbaum focuses on the long endurance of these values from the first human communities in south and central Africa ones that Africans manifested in the region of the African mediterranean landmass that later separated Africa from Europe and Asia when the ice melted and waters rose These migrants reached every continent and later became spiritual as well as geographical migrations back to Africa from ancient times to the transformative present Using the same methods as her teaching Birnbaum employs a mutual learning process in her work to help us think about our own ancestral story adding to the wisdom we need to surmount contemporary crises and give us the energy to help bring a more equal and just world into being Her methodologies are grounded on empirical techniques of science and the social sciences and yet leave openings for the liminal knowledge that resides underneath and beyond boundaries of established religions secular ideologies and conventional science A true work of transformation The Future has an Ancient Heart opens the door to new possibilities within our world Italy in Transition Paolo Janni,1998
