Raising Eyebrows:

Raising Eyebrows Dal LaMagna, 2010-10-18 The often hilarious and sometimes poignant story behind Dal LaMagna's rise in the beauty industry. By the time LaMagna graduated from the Harvard Business School his entrepreneurial activities including operating discotheques in drive-in theaters, working with the 1960s musical teen sensations the Cowsills, and opening an ice cream parlor on the Venice Beach boardwalk had landed him 150,000 of debt. Raising Eyebrows tells the story of how he finally succeeded. After years of failures and living penniless, LaMagna founded Tweezerman, one of the world's most respected innovative and successful beauty tool manufacturers with over 40 million customers. A leader for socially responsible companies, Tweezerman became a success by making helping communities and caring for the environment everyday practices not publicity gimmicks. A responsible capitalist, LaMagna wrote this roller coaster memoir for entrepreneurs who are struggling and disenchanted with the ever-changing economic system. Packed with business lessons, financial plans, and practical advice, Raising Eyebrows is full of inspiration, conscience, and good ideas for entrepreneurs and would-be entrepreneurs everywhere.

Ethnopragmatics Cliff Goddard, 2011-04-20 The studies in this volume show how speech practices can be understood from a culture internal perspective in terms of values, norms, and beliefs of the speech communities concerned. Focusing on examples from many different cultural locations, the contributing authors ask not only What is distinctive about these particular ways of speaking but also Why from their own point of view do the people concerned speak in these particular ways? What sense does it make to them? The ethnopragmatic approach stands in opposition to the culture external universalist pragmatics represented by neo-Gricean pragmatics and politeness theory. Using cultural scripts and semantic explications, techniques developed over 20 years, work in cross-cultural semantics by Anna Wierzbicka and colleagues, the authors examine a wide range of phenomena including speech acts, terms of address, phraseological patterns, jocular irony, facial expressions, interactional routines, discourse particles, expressive derivation, and emotionality. The authors and languages are Anna Wierzbicka, English; Cliff Goddard, Australian English; Jock Wong, Singapore English; Zhengdao Ye, Chinese; Catherine Travis, Colombian Spanish; Rie Hasada, Japanese; and Felix Ameka, Ewe. Taken together, these studies demonstrate both the profound cultural shaping of speech practices and the power and subtlety of new methods and techniques of a semantically grounded ethnopragmatics. The book will appeal not only to linguists and anthropologists but to all scholars and students with an interest in language communication and culture.

Varieties of Meaning Ruth Garrett Millikan, 2004 How the various things that are said to have meaning, purpose, natural signs, linguistic signs, perceptions, and thoughts are related to one another.
