political processes and institutions from the perspective of liberals and conservatives alike Border-Line Personalities Michelle Herrera Mulligan, Robyn Moreno, 2009-03-17 A collection of essays from some of the best writers in America about what it means to be a fully functional and sometimes fully dysfunctional 21st century born in the USA Latina Tired of the trite cultural clichés by which the media has defined Latinas the editors of this collection of personal essays by both established and emerging authors have gathered them with the intention of representing their varied experiences through hilarious anecdotes from each of their colorful lives While there is no one Latina identity the editors believe that by offering a glimpse into these writers dynamic lives they will facilitate a better understanding of their unique challenges and their dreams and most important their oftentimes shared histories The contributors to this collection mirror the compassionate pleas Latinas usually reserve for each other over conversations in dark bars and late night gatherings Do they have to think that just because I'm a Latina that I can speak Spanish curl my hair paint my toe nails and dance a rumba all at the same time This along with other interesting questions results in a spectacular line up that has Latinas musing on their battling the world the men that have done them wrong and of course the mothers who more often than not just never understood that their daughters were more Americanas than not Latin American Women Writers Kathy S. Leonard, 2007-09-19 There is a wealth of published literature in English by Latin American women writers but such material can be difficult to locate due to the lack of available bibliographic resources In addition the various types of published narrative short stories novels novellas autobiographies and biographies by Latin American women writers has increased significantly in the last ten to fifteen years To address the lack of bibliographic resources Kathy Leonard has compiled Latin American Women Writers A Resource Guide to Titles in English This reference includes all forms of narrative short story autobiography novel novel excerpt and others by Latin American women dating from 1898 to 2007 More than 3 000 individual titles are included by more than 500 authors This includes nearly 200 anthologies more than 100 autobiographies biographies or other narrative and almost 250 novels written by more than 100 authors from 16 different countries For the purposes of this bibliography authors who were born in Latin America and either continue to live there or have immigrated to the United States are included Also titles of pieces are listed as originally written in either Spanish or Portuguese If the book was originally written in English a phrase to that effect is included to better reflect the linguistic diversity of narrative currently being published This volume contains seven indexes Authors by Country of Origin Authors Titles of Work Titles of Work Authors Autobiographies Biographies and Other Narrative Anthologies Novels and Novellas in Alphabetical Order by Author and Novels and Novellas by Authors Country of Origin Reflecting the increase in literary production and the facilitation of materials this volume contains a comprehensive listing of narrative pieces in English by Latin American women writers not found in any other single volume currently on the market This work of reference will be of special interest to scholars students and instructors interested in narrative Bibliographic Guide to Chicana and Latina Narrative Kathy Leonard, 2003-08-30 There has been a dramatic increase in the amount of narrative work published by Chicana and Latina authors in the past 5 to 10 years Nonetheless there has been little attempt to catalog this material This reference provides convenient access to all forms of narrative written by Chicana and Latina authors from the early 1940s through 2002 In doing so it helps users locate these works and surveys the growth of this vast body of literature The volume cites more than 2 750 short stories novels novel excerpts and autobiographies written by some 600 Mexican American Puerto Rican Cuban American Dominican American and Nuyorican women authors These citations are grouped in five indexes an author title index title author index anthology index novel index and autobiography index Short annotations are provided for the anthologies novels and autobiographies Thus the user who knows the title of a work can discover the author the other works the author has written and the anthologies in which the author s shorter pieces have been reprinted along with information about particular works

America's Urban Crisis and the Advent of Color-Blind Politics Curtis L. Ivery, Joshua Bassett, 2011-09-16 Over 40 years ago the historic Kerner Commission Report declared that America was undergoing an urban crisis whose effects were disproportionately felt by underclass populations In America s Urban Crisis and the Advent of Color blind Politics Curtis Ivery and Joshua Bassett explore the persistence of this crisis today despite public beliefs that America has become a post racial nation after the election of Barack Obama to the presidency Ivery and Bassett combine their own experience in the fields of civil rights and education with the knowledge of more than 20 experts in the field of urban studies to provide an accessible overview of the theories of the urban underclass and how they affect America s urban crisis This engaging look into the still present racial politics in America s cities adds significantly to the existing scholarship on the urban underclass by discussing the role of the prison industrial complex in sustaining the urban crisis as well as the importance of the concept of multiracial democracy to the future of American politics and society America s Urban Crisis and the Advent of Color blind Politics encourages the reader not only to be aware of persisting racial inequalities but to actively engage in efforts to respond to them
