decisions large and small By embodying the promise of a different and better self in different and better circumstances glamour stokes ambition and nurtures hope even as it fosters sometimes dangerous illusions From vacation brochures to military recruiting ads from the Chrysler Building to the iPad from political utopias to action heroines Postrel argues that glamour is a seductive cultural force Its magic stretches beyond the stereotypical spheres of fashion or film influencing our decisions about what to buy where to live which careers to pursue where to invest and how to vote The result is myth shattering a revelatory theory that explains how glamour became a powerful form of nonverbal persuasion one that taps into our most secret dreams and deepest yearnings to influence our everyday choices
