The Griot Tradition as Remixed through Hip Hop Frederick Gooding Jr.,2023-08-08 Although Hip Hop is known to come from the streets of South Bronx New York its origins go far deeper than that Unconsciously the innovative souls of the 1970s Hip Hop movement demonstrated the captivating vibrational sound of the five regions in Africa Northern Africa Western Africa Eastern Africa Central Africa and Southern Africa Thus The Griot Tradition as Remixed through Hip Hop Straight Outta Africa fleshes out the common threads of Hip Hop's creative genius across the African diaspora and provides an analytical rubric as a guide to a greater understanding of Hip Hop. The author Frederick Gooding examines why Hip Hop holds such an important place within contemporary culture in order to determine how a genre that was so controversial and marginal could become mainstream and central. Through the use of various genres, artists' styles, sounds, images, and rhetorical techniques, Gooding analyzes how Hip Hop, when seen through the lens of African connection, can be appreciated for its regenerative and connective power to create relationships between people both nationally and internationally. Congressional Record United States.

MacDonald, 2016-07-15 Many hiphoppas labour to sustain Hip-hop Culture in their communities far from the big stages, world tours, and hit singles enjoyed by a shockingly few American hiphoppas. The creative labour of these few mega stars is calculated in billions of dollars. But for most hiphoppas, their creative labour may never get expressed in economic terms. Instead, it is expressed in social capital: the production of collective and individual subjectivities, the bonds of love that build and hold communities together, and the healing of broken hearts, broken homes, and broken neighborhoods in broken cities. Hip-hop Culture is NOT a music genre; it is MUCH more, and exploring how the sharing of aesthetic resources builds community and how situated learning plays a necessary role in cultural sustainability draws out questions that may lead to a model of community-located cultural education and a starting point for a critical pedagogy of music. I ain't going to front, academics talking about hip-hop scares me and often pisses me off. I'm protective about this culture like it's my own baby because it's meant so much to me and my close friends. In my less angry moments, I do appreciate the fact that this culture still has so much to give to the rest of the world and that the next level is what we give back. Well, we need allies in this complex world to move things forward. As I've gotten to know Michael, I consider him such an ally, and that his intent is firmly squared in empowering cats in the front lines. I also really dig the fact that he is committed to helping document the histories of those who laid the groundwork in the Edmonton scene. This is the respectful place to start. I look forward to bearing witness to Grassroots Hip-hop reclaiming its voice and being at the forefront with academics supporting their community efforts. Stephen Buddha Leafloor, Founder of the Canadian Floor Masters Founder of Blueprintforlife.ca Ashoka Fellow Social Worker and an aging bboy Dr Michael B MacDonald's research into Hip Hop's pedagogical ingenuity have not only led us to the grassroots of Hip Hop's rich and vibrant global culture but to the very Ethos of Hip Hop. With bold examination this exciting research stands at the forefront of contemporary post colonial Hip hop literature. Enter Mike Segretto and his mammoth 33 1/3 Revolutions Per Minute a history of the rock LP era told through a very personal selection of nearly 700 albums. Beginning with the birth of rock and roll in the 1950s Segretto moves through the explosive innovations of the 1960s the classic rock and punk albums of the 1970s the new wave classics of the 1980s and the alternative revolution of the 1990s always with an eye to both the iconic and the ephemeral the failed experiments and the brilliant trailblazers. It's all here everything from the classics Sgt Pepper's Lonely Hearts Club Band Purple Rain Nevermind and countless other usual suspects to such oddities as albums by Johnny Guitar Watson P.P. Arnold The Dentists and Holly Golightly. Throughout Segretto reveals the perpetual evolution of a modern art form tracing the rock album's journey from a vehicle for singles and filler sold to kids through its maturation into a legitimate self-contained medium of expression by 1967 and onward to its dominance in the 70s 80s and 90s. Whether you read it from cover to cover seek out specific albums or just dip in at random and let the needle fall where it may 33 1/3 Revolutions Per Minute is a fun informative and unapologetically opinionated read.

While many authors, journalists and commentators have argued that the internet and digital technologies will bring us democracy equality and freedom digital culture often results in loss of privacy misinformation and exploitation. This collection challenges celebratory readings of digital technology by suggesting digital culture's potential is limited because of its fundamental relationship to oppressive social forces. The Dialectic of Digital Culture explores ways the digital realm challenges and reproduces power. The contributors provide innovative case studies of various phenomena including metoo Etsy mommy blogs music streaming sustainability and net neutrality to reveal the reproduction of neoliberal cultural logics. In seemingly transformative digital spaces these essays provide dialectical readings that challenge dominant narratives about technology and study specific aspects of digital culture that are often underexplored.
