Rape Of The Masters How Political Correctness Sabotages Art:

The Rape of the Masters Roger Kimball, 2004 In this witty and provocative book a noted art critic shows how academic art history is increasingly held hostage to radical cultural politics feminism cultural studies postcolonial studies and the whole armory of academic antihumanism

Art Schooled Larry Witham, 2012-01-01 One year in the life of the students teachers and artists at one of the nation's oldest and most prestigious art colleges

What is Wrong with Us? Eric Coombes, Theodore Dalrymple, 2016-11-08 Can any of us entirely banish from our hearts and minds grave misgivings about the condition of the culture we now inhabit Expressions of those misgivings are mostly unheard in public forums ignored in the dominant media and if noticed at all dismissed by state supported bureaucracies and commercial vested interests To have any chance of gaining attention they must resolve themselves into coherent forms We need to clarify our perceptions of the things that trouble us by articulating and developing our thoughts about them That is we are in need of serious criticism serious criticism aesthetic social and political which is notably lacking in the contemporary world especially in places readily available to the educated non specialist such as the quality weekend newspapers and especially perhaps in relation to the visual arts The pieces collected in this volume are not presented as amounting to an overall account or theory of our cultural condition They are offered merely as examples of serious criticism of what we need if we are to begin to think more profitably about our condition daring in defiance of contemporary dogmatism to make the necessary judgements of value without which our culture will continue to disintegrate

Hobbema and Heidegger Rivca Gordon, Hayim Gordon, 2008 This book shows how the beautiful landscape paintings of Meindert Hobbema a seventeenth century painter of the Dutch Golden Age are in accord with the thought of Martin Heidegger a twentieth century philosopher on beauty and truth Since little is known about Hobbema s life this work concentrates on ideas that are central to Heidegger s philosophy of art and beauty and the way these ideas are attuned to Hobbema s landscapes Heidegger holds that the beauty of a great work of art calls out from that work and is firmly linked to the disclosure of hidden truths concerning essences of beings This book illustrates in detail that beauty and such truths indeed call out from Hobbema s paintings Ayn Rand's Atlas Shrugged Edward W. Younkins, 2016-04-15 Since its publication in 1957 Atlas Shrugged the philosophical and artistic climax of Ayn Rand s novels has never been out of print and has received enormous critical attention becoming one of the most influential books ever published impacting on a variety of disciplines including philosophy literature economics business and political science among others More than a great novel Atlas Shrugged is an abstract conceptual and symbolic work that expounds a radical philosophy presenting a view of man and man s relationship to existence and manifesting the essentials of an entire philosophical system metaphysics epistemology politics and ethics Celebrating the fiftieth year of Atlas Shrugged s publication this companion is an exploration of this monumental work of literature Contributions have been specially commissioned from a diversity of eminent scholars who admire and have been influenced by the book the included essays analyzing the novel s integrating elements of theme plot and characterization from many perspectives and from various levels of meaning The Practice of Quixotism S. Gordon, 2006-11-13 Using postmodern theory The Practice of Quixotism explores eighteenth century women s texts that use quixote narratives which typically demand that individuals purge their minds of internalized fictions to insist instead that the reality we encounter is inevitably mediated by the texts we have read The Formalesque Bernard Smith, 2007 In this well illustrated book Professor Bernard Smith who is often referred to as the father of art history in Australia condenses the arguments presented in an earlier publication Modernisms History 1998 into a very accessible and helpful text will prove useful for students and arts interested readers He begins by listing and carefully explaining those terms which frequently occur in arts literature dealing with the modern period and then goes on to show that modernism has become an historical period with its art forms both institutionalised and globalised Now an historical entity art history s basic tools can be employed to explain and describe it They include an investigation of the periods style use of form and attitudes to meaning In his defence of art history s traditions and methodologies he argues that the period that encompasses modernism in the arts might now be known as The Formalesque Partisan Canons Anna Brzyski, 2007-10-08 Case studies that counter the idea of a transcendent art canon by demonstrating that the content of any and every canon is historically and culturally specific

The Age of the Avant-garde Hilton Kramer, 2017-07-12 Hilton Kramer well known as perhaps the most perceptive courageous and influential art critic in America is also the founder and co editor with Roger Kimball of The New Criterion This comprehensive book collects a sizable selection of his early essays and reviews published in Artforum Commentary Arts Magazine The New York Review of Books and The Times and thus constituted his first complete statement about art and the art world The principal focus is on the artists and movements of the last hundred years the Age of the Avant Garde that begins in the nineteenth century with Realism and Impressionism Most of the major artists of this rich period from Monet and Degas to Jackson Pollock and Claes Oldenburg are discussed and often drastically reevaluated A brilliant introductory essay traces the rise and fall of the avant garde as a historical phenomenon and examines some of the cultural problems which the collapse of the avant garde poses for the future of art In addition there are chapters on art critics museums the relation of avant garde art to radical politics and on the growth of photography as a fine art This collection is not intended to be the last word on one of the greatest as well as one of the most complex periods in the history of the artistic imagination The essays and reviews gathered here were written in response to particular occasions and for specific deadlines in the conviction that a start in the arduous task of critical revaluation needed to be made not because a critical theory prescribed it but because our experience compelled it

Engaging Art Steven J. Tepper, Bill Ivey, 2012-08-21 Engaging Art explores what it means to participate in the arts in contemporary society from museum attendance to music downloading Drawing on the perspectives of experts from diverse fields including Princeton scholars Robert Wuthnow and Paul DiMaggio Barry Schwartz author of The Paradox of Choice and MIT scholars Henry Jenkins and Mark Schuster this volume analyzes key trends involving technology audience demographics religion and the rise of do it yourself participatory culture Commissioned by The Wallace Foundation and independently carried out by the Curb Center at Vanderbilt University Engaging Art offers a new framework for understanding the momentous changes impacting America's cultural life over the past fifty years This volume offers suggestive glimpses into the character and consequence of a new engagement with old fashioned participation in the arts The authors in this volume hint at a bright future for art and citizen art making They argue that if we center a new commitment to arts participation in everyday art making creativity and quality of life we will not only restore the lifelong pleasure of homemade art but will likely seed a new generation of enthusiasts who will support America's signature nonprofit cultural institutions well into the future

Overcoming Matthew Arnold James Walter Caufield, 2016-05-13 Opening the way for a reexamination of Matthew Arnold's unique contributions to ethical criticism James Walter Caufield emphasizes the central role of philosophical pessimism in Arnold's master tropes of culture and conduct Caufield uses Arnold's ethics as a lens through which to view key literary and cultural movements of the past 150 years demonstrating that Arnoldian conduct is grounded in a Victorian ethic of renouncement a form of altruism that wholly informs both Arnold's poetry and prose and sets him apart from the many nineteenth century public moralists Arnold's thought is situated within a cultural and philosophical context that shows the continuing relevance of renouncement to much contemporary ethical reflection from the political kenosis of Giorgio Agamben and the pensiero debole of Gianni Vattimo to the ethical criticism of Wayne C Booth and Martha Nussbaum In refocusing attention on Arnold's place within the broad history of critical and social thought Caufield returns the poet and critic to his proper place as a founding father of modern cultural criticism The Civil Contract of

Photography Ariella Azoulay, 2021-09-14 In this groundbreaking work Ariella Azoulay thoroughly revises our understanding of the ethical status of photography It must she insists be understood in its inseparability from the many catastrophes of recent history She argues that photography is a particular set of relations between individuals and the powers that govern them and at the same time a form of relations among equals that constrains that power Anyone even a stateless person who addresses others through photographs or occupies the position of a photograph's addressee is or can become a member of the citizenry of photography The crucial arguments of the book concern two groups that have been rendered invisible by their state of exception the Palestinian noncitizens of Israel and women in Western societies Azoulay's leading question is Under what legal political or cultural conditions does it become possible to see and show disaster that befalls those with flawed citizenship in a state of exception The Civil Contract of Photography is an essential work for anyone seeking to understand the disasters of recent history and the consequences of how they and their victims are represented What's Wrong with Benevolence David Stove, 2011-07-19 Is benevolence a virtue In many cases it appears to be so But when it comes to the enlarged benevolence of the Enlightenment David Stove argues that the answer is clearly no In this insightful provocative essay Stove builds a case for the claim that when benevolence is universal disinterested and external it regularly leads to the forced redistribution of wealth which in turn leads to decreased economic incentives lower rates of productivity and increased poverty As Stove points out there is an air of paradox in saying that benevolence may be a cause of poverty But there shouldn't be Good intentions alone are never sufficient to guarantee the success of one's endeavors Utopian schemes to reorganize the world have regularly ended in failure Easily the most important example of this phenomenon is twentieth century communism As Stove reminds us the attractiveness of communism the emotional fuel of communist revolutionaries for over a hundred years has always been exactly the same as the emotional fuel of every other utopianism the passionate desire to alleviate or abolish misery Yet communism was such a monumental failure that millions of people today are still suffering its consequences In this most prescient of essays Stove warns contemporary readers just how seductive universal political benevolence can be He also shows how the failure to understand the connection between benevolence and communism has led to many of the greatest social miseries of our age Beyond the Texts William G. Dever, 2017-11-03 A handbook for biblical scholars and historians of the Ancient Near East William G Dever offers a welcome perspective on ancient Israel and Judah that prioritizes the archaeological remains to render history as it was not as the biblical writers argue it should have been Drawing from the most recent archaeological data as interpreted from a nontheological point of view and supplementing that data with biblical material only when it converges with the archaeological record Dever analyzes all the evidence at hand to provide a new history of ancient Israel and Judah that is accessible to all interested readers Features A new approach to the history of ancient Israel Extensive bibliography More than eighty maps and illustrations

Art in Crisis Hans Sedlmayr, 2006-01-01 The history of art from the early nineteenth century on ward is commonly viewed as a succession of conflicts between innovatory and established styles that culminated in the formalism and aesthetic autonomy of high modernism In Art and Crisis first published in 1948 Hans Sedlmayr argues that the aesthetic disjunctures of modern art signify more than matters of style and point to much deeper processes of cultural and religious disintegration As Roger Kimball observes in his informative new introduction Art in Crisis is as much an exercise in cultural or spiritual analysis as it is a work of art history Sedlmayr s reads the art of the last two centuries as a fever chart of the modern age in its greatness and its decay He discusses the advent of Romanticism with its freeing of the imagination as a conscious sundering of art from humanist and religious traditions with the aesthetic treated as a category independent of human need Looking at the social purposes of architecture Sedlmayr shows how the landscape garden the architectural monument and the industrial exhibition testified to a new relationship not only between man and his handiwork but also between man and the forces that transcend him In these institutions man deifies his inventive powers with which he hopes to master and supersede nature Likewise the art museum denies transcendence through a cultural leveling in which Heracles and Christ become brothers as objects of aesthetic contemplation At the center of Art in Crisis is the insight that in art as in life the pursuit of unqualified autonomy is in the end a prescription for disaster aesthetic as well as existential Sedlmayr writes as an Augustinian Catholic For him the underlying motive for the pursuit of autonomy is pride The lost center of his subtitle is God The dream of autonomy Sedlmayr argues is for finite mortal creatures a dangerous illusion The book invites serious analysis from art critics and theological thinkers alike Hans Sedlmayr 1896 1984 was a founding member of the New Vienna School of art historians His books include The Architecture of Borromini The Revolution of Modern Art and Austrian Baroque Architecture Roger Kimball is co editor and publisher of The New Criterion and president and publisher of Encounter Books His most recent book is The Rape of the Masters How Political Correctness Sabotages Art

Without Criteria Steven Shaviro, 2012-08-17 A Deleuzian reading of Whitehead and a Whiteheadian reading of Deleuze open the possibility of a critical aesthetics of contemporary culture In Without Criteria Steven Shaviro proposes and explores a philosophical fantasy imagine a world in which Alfred North Whitehead takes the place of Martin Heidegger What if Whitehead instead of Heidegger had set the agenda for postmodern thought Heidegger asks Why is there something rather than nothing Whitehead asks How is it that there is always something new In a world where everything from popular music to DNA is being sampled and recombined argues Shaviro Whitehead s question is the truly urgent one Without Criteria is Shaviro s experiment in rethinking postmodern theory especially the theory of aesthetics from a point of view that hearkens back to Whitehead rather than Heidegger In working through the ideas of Whitehead and Deleuze Shaviro also appeals to Kant arguing that certain aspects of Kant s thought pave the way for the philosophical constructivism embraced by both Whitehead and Deleuze Kant Whitehead and Deleuze are not commonly grouped together but the juxtaposition of them in Without Criteria helps to shed light on a variety of issues that are of concern to contemporary art and media practices

Essays on Aesthetic Education for the 21st Century ,2010-01-01 Essays on Aesthetic Education for the 21st Century co edited by Tracie Costantino and Boyd White brings together an international collection of authors representing diverse viewpoints to engage in dialogue about the ongoing critical relevance of aesthetics for contemporary art education Inspired by a conference symposium in which the four authors in the first section of the text titled Initiating a Dialogue explore a range of concepts including aesthetic experience beauty wonder and aesthetics this book enlarges the dialogue with eight additional chapters by authors from North America and Europe In addition to chapters that address issues of social awareness curriculum theory and research and applications to practice with pre service teachers there are several chapters that acknowledge historical influences on current notions of aesthetics as a basis on which to open the gate into the twenty first century This book will be a valuable resource for graduate students in art education and curriculum studies as well as practicing art educators pre service teachers and anyone interested in the significance of aesthetics not only in contemporary art education but the wider field of general education as well Persuasion in Society Jean G. Jones,Herbert W.

Simons,2017-04-07 Persuasion in Society Third Edition introduces readers to the rich tapestry of persuasive technique and scholarship interweaving rhetorical critical theory and social science traditions This text examines current and classical theory through the lens of contemporary culture encouraging readers to explore the nature of persuasion and to understand its impact in their lives Employing a contemporary approach authors Jean G Jones and Herbert W Simons draw from popular culture mass media and social media to help readers become informed creators and consumers of persuasive messages This introductory persuasion text offers A broad based approach to the scope of persuasion expanding students understanding of what persuasion is and how it is effected Insights on the diversity of persuasion in action through such contexts as advertising marketing political campaigns activism and social movements and negotiation in social conflicts The inclusion of sender and receiver perspectives enhancing understanding of persuasion in practice Extended treatment of the ethics of persuasion featuring opposing views on handling controversial issues in the college classroom for enhanced instruction Case studies showing how and why people fall for persuasive messages demonstrating how persuasion works at a cognitive level Discussion questions exercises and key terms for very nearly every chapter The core of this book is that persuasion is about winning beliefs and not arguments and that communicators who want to win that belief need to communicate with their audiences This new edition of Persuasion in Society continues to bring this core message to readers with updated case studies examples and sources On Thinking Institutionally Hugh Heclo,2011 The twenty first century mind deeply

distrusts the authority of institutions It has taken several centuries for advocates of critical thinking to convince western culture that to be rational liberated authentic and modern means to be anti institutional In this mold breaking book Hugh Heclo moves beyond the abstract academic realm of thinking about institutions to the more personal significance and larger social meaning of what it is to think institutionally His account ranges from Michael Jordan s respect for the game of basketball to Greek philosophy from twenty first century corporate and political scandals to Christian theology and the concept of office and professionalism Think what you will about one institution or another but after Heclo no reader will be left in doubt about why it matters to think institutionally
