pipelines and setting up improvement boards to maximize business success through the execution of continuous improvement projects It introduces to the Faster and Better visual facilitation approach that enables you to seamlessly leverage and combine fundamental tools in order to identify improvement opportunities for entire value streams compile them in a prioritized project pipeline and set up improvement display boards or kaizen kanbans linked to key business objectives Kaizen kanbans follow the same principles used with traditional kanbans They are visual communication tools and are visible to all levels of employees within the organization The difference is that instead of telling operators what to build next or what parts to retrieve the cards tell improvement teams what pre approved projects are most relevant to current business needs and are next in line for implementation This approach is designed to complement and enhance the effectiveness of quality lean continuous improvement and project management initiatives that may already be in place in an organization Group Decision Making Thomas L. Saaty,Kirti Peniwati,2013-11-15 When a group makes a decision that decision carries a lot more weight than when just one person does it Think of the founding fathers of the American constitution and how much power and influence their ideas have had in the entire world for more than two hundred years Also think of gravity a universal force brought about by an enormous number of minute particles that band together to make a universal law Together they create a massive force a law of nature alone they can barely be noticed That is how our minds work by deciding together to create a power that transcends our individuality Group decision making is a gift and an opportunity to create greater influence through the working together of many minds This book shows how to use the Analytic Hierarchy Process for hierarchical decision making and the Analytic Network Process for decision making in networks with dependence and feedback in group decision making Part I discusses the group and the decision and shows the importance of using a structured process particularly for those high value decisions involving many powerful parties with different interests It discusses how to facilitate a group decision combine individual judgments and smooth differences to arrive at a decision that everyone can live with and get behind Part II discusses the group in planning and how to draw out differences Part III is about conflict resolution and Part IV is about how to address significant issues that come up in group decision making and shows that it is possible to construct an overall group preference      Unmistakable Impact Jim Knight,2011 This book describes in simple terms exactly how schools should align and organize professional learning to ensure significant positive change in teaching and student learning The author s partnership principles a humanizing approach to professional learning apply to workshops intensive learning teams a focused form of professional learning communities and instructional coaching This is the first in a two volume series that is designed to provide a simple not simplistic framework and a set of tools for improving teaching in schools The second volume The Big Four was proposed last year      Design Strategy Nancy C. Roberts,2023-11-14 A new approach to addressing the contemporary world s most difficult challenges such as climate change and poverty Conflicts over the problem and the solution plague the modern world and land problem solvers in what has been called wicked problem territory a social space with high levels of conflict over problems and solutions In Design Strategy Nancy C Roberts proposes design as a strategy of problem solving to close the gap between an existing state and a desired state Utilizing this approach designers and change agents are better able to minimize self defeating conflicts over problems and solutions break the logjam of opposition and avoid the traps that lock problem solvers into a never ending cycle of conflict Design as a field continues to grow and evolve but Design Strategy focuses on three levels of design where wicked problems tend to lurk strategic design of private and public organizations systemic design of networked and overlapping economic technical political and social subsystems and regenerative design of life giving realignment between humanity and nature Within this framework Roberts presents refreshingly interdisciplinary case studies that integrate theory and practice across diverse fields to guide professionals in any domain from business and nonprofit organizations to educational and healthcare systems and finally offers hope that humanity can tackle the existential challenges we face in the twenty first century      Beyond Bullet Points Cliff Atkinson,2018-03-15 Beyond Bullet Points Fourth Edition Throw away those room
