epidemic to public health and medicine in general Laura C Leviton PhD Senior Advisor for Evaluation Robert Wood Johnson Foundation Princeton NJ Qualitative Research & Evaluation Methods Michael Quinn Patton, 2023-02-07 Drawing on more than 40 years of experience conducting applied social science research and program evaluation author Michael Quinn Patton has crafted the most comprehensive and systematic book on qualitative research and evaluation methods inquiry frameworks and analysis options available today Now offering more balance between applied research and evaluation this Fourth Edition illuminates all aspects of qualitative inquiry through new examples stories and cartoons more than a hundred new summarizing and synthesizing exhibits and a wide range of new highlight sections sidebars that elaborate on important and emergent issues For the first time full case studies are included to illustrate extended research and evaluation examples In addition each chapter features an extended rumination written in a voice and style more emphatic and engaging than traditional textbook style about a core issue of persistent debate and controversy Ethiopia Bahru Zewde, Siegfried Pausewang, 2002 Democracy is a concept reflecting European philosophies struggles and concerns Many Ethiopian ethnic groups have traditions which may offer more satisfactory and culturally acceptable foundations for a sovereignty of the people through time honored ways of voicing political ideas ironic observations and vital interests In line with modern urban life Ethiopians also organize and express their interests in non governmental organizations the independent press and advocacy groups representing political and social alternatives The contributors to this book analyze the democratic potential of these movements and practices their ability to give a voice to the view from below and their potential contribution to a more genuine participation by the majority of Ethiopians in democratic decision making and bringing the sovereignty of the people a step closer to reality Evaluation Mary Odell Butler, 2016-07 This book informed by the author's many years of practice in program evaluation and expertise as an anthropologist discusses in plain prose the theory and methods of culturally competent evaluation across a number of disciplines such as health and education for graduate and advanced undergraduate students and professionals Shared Landscapes Rodney Harrison, 2004 The heritage of the pastoral industry stands as an integral symbol of identity for rural communities both black and white in New South Wales Modern changes in pastoral land management infrastructure and technology combined with broader land use changes and increased community interest in the conservation and rehabilitation of former grazing lands has meant that many former pastoral properties have been abandoned or acquired for other uses Tracking the history of these land use changes Shared Landscapes presents new ways of understanding historic heritage in settler societies through cross disciplinary case studies that examine the heritage of the pastoral industry in two national parks Assessing its current state of interpretation and management in New South Wales Rodney Harrison shows that pastoral heritage is more than just woolsheds and homesteads the showpieces of white male settler colonial economies Pastoral heritage is the product of the mutual histories of Aboriginal and settler Australians It is a form of heritage that is both in and a part of the landscape His archaeological approach to the heritage of the pastoral industry involves both recording sites and revealing attachments to community heritage demonstrating that writing shared histories and celebrating shared heritage has the creative power to reconcile Aboriginal and settler Australians in powerful and positive ways

The Potential for Anthropology and Urban Community Engagement Jill Florence Lackey, Rick Petrie, 2024-07-01 The relationship between anthropology departments and their surrounding urban communities has been traditional limited by a number of factors The Potential for Anthropology and Urban Community Engagement pushes past these limitations developing a firm foundation from which applied anthropology can support grassroots research and lasting community programs Using two partnering Milwaukee organizations as examples this volume explores the need in urban neighborhoods for practicing anthropologists how a high volume of asset building programs can be developed by practicing anthropologists and the potential efficacy of anthropology departments in partnering with urban neighborhoods

Revolutions in Development Inquiry Robert Chambers, 2012-05-04 Robert Chambers returns with a new book that reviews together for the first time some of the revolutionary changes in the methodologies and methods of development inquiry that have occurred in the past forty years and reflects on their transformative potential for the future This book breaks new ground by describing and analysing the evolution of a sequence of approaches Starting with the dinosaurs of large scale multi subject questionnaire surveys and the biased visits and perceptions of rural development tourism and urban based professionals there follows a look at the explosive proliferation of methodologies and methods of recent years These include rapid rural appraisal RRA participatory rural appraisal PRA and dramatic developments in the still largely unrecognized fields of participatory numbers and statistics and of participatory mapping and GIS Chambers shows how these can empower local people and provide rigorous and valid substitutes for some more traditional methods of inquiry Also presented is a repertoire for offsetting the biases of the urban trap which has become so serious for officials and aid agency staff Importantly Chambers points out that we are now in a different space methodologically from a few years ago He makes the case that participatory methodologies evolved through creative and eclectic pluralism can be a transformative wave for the future as drivers of personal professional and institutional change This book is for all who are concerned with development regardless of profession discipline or organization who seek to be abreast of the revolutionary breakthroughs in approaches and methods of inquiry of recent years and what Chambers calls their unlimited potentials Published with IDS

Mobile User Research Sunny Consolvo, Frank R. Bentley, Eric B. Hekler, Sayali S. Phatak, 2022-06-01 This book will give you a practical overview of several methods and approaches for designing mobile technologies and conducting mobile user research including how to understand behavior and evaluate how such technologies are being or may be used out in the world Each chapter includes case studies from our own work and highlights advantages limitations and very practical steps that should be taken to increase the validity of the studies you conduct and the data you collect This book is intended as a practical guide for conducting mobile research focused on the user and their experience We hope that the depth and breadth of case studies presented as well as specific best practices will help you to design the best technologies possible and choose appropriate methods to gather ethical reliable and generalizable data to explore the use of mobile technologies out in the world

Human Rights along the U.S.-Mexico Border Kathleen Staudt, Tony Payan, Z. Anthony Kruszewski, 2022-08-23 Much political oratory has been devoted to safeguarding America's boundary with Mexico but policies that militarize the border and criminalize immigrants have overshadowed the region's widespread violence against women the increase in crossing deaths and the lingering poverty that spurs people to set out on dangerous northward treks This book addresses those concerns by focusing on gender based violence security and human rights from the perspective of women who live with both violence and poverty From the Pacific to the Gulf of Mexico scholars from both sides of the 2 000 mile border reflect expertise in disciplines ranging from international relations to criminal justice conveying a more complex picture of the region than that presented in other studies Initial chapters offer an overview of routine sexual assaults on women migrants the harassment of Central American immigrants at the hands of authorities and residents corruption and counterfeiting along the border and near death experiences of border crossers Subsequent chapters then connect analysis with solutions in the form of institutional change social movement activism policy reform and the spread of international norms that respect human rights as well as good governance These chapters show how all facets of the border situation globalization NAFTA economic inequality organized crime political corruption rampant patriarchy promote gendered violence and other expressions of hyper masculinity They also show that U S immigration policy exacerbates the problems of border violence in marked contrast to the border policies of European countries By focusing on women s everyday experiences in order to understand human security issues these contributions offer broad based alternative approaches and solutions that address everyday violence and inattention to public safety inequalities poverty and human rights And by presenting a social and democratic international feminist framework to address these issues they offer the opportunity to transform today s security debate in constructive ways
