Drugs in Afghanistan David Macdonald, 2007-01-20 Afghanistan is seen as a major drug producer but its own people are becoming the victims David Macdonald not only explores the reasons for this but also tells an addictive tale that is difficult to resist Shirazuddin Siddiqi BBC This stunning book provides a first hand account of the Afghan drug problem David Macdonald has written the definitive text on drugs in Afghanistan Professor Gerry Stimson Executive Director International Harm Reduction Association David Macdonald tells a story about the diversity of drug use in Afghanistan that no one has ever told before Ethan Nadelmann Executive Director Drug Policy Alliance New York Afghanistan is the world's largest producer of opium and heroin This book explores the devastating impact that the drugs trade has had on the Afghan people Author David Macdonald has worked as a drugs advisor to the UN Based on his extensive experience this book breaks down the myths surrounding the cultivation and consumption of drugs providing a detailed analysis of the history of drug use within the country He examines the impact of over 25 years of continuous conflict and shows how poverty and instability has led to an increase in drugs consumption He also considers the recent rise in the use of pharmaceutical drugs resulting in dangerous chemical cocktails and analyses the effect of Afghanistan's drug trade on neighbouring countries

Domestic Violence in Asia Emma Fulu, 2013-08-15 This book explores changing patterns of domestic violence in Asia Based on extensive original research in the Maldives it argues that forces of globalisation consumerism Islamism and democratisation are changing the nature of domestic relations with shifting ideas surrounding gender and Islam being particularly significant The book points out that domestic violence has been relatively low in the Maldives in comparison with other Asian countries as a result of the book argues a history of relatively equal gender relations an ideology of masculinity that is associated with calmness and rationality where violence is not considered an acceptable means of dealing with problems and flexible marriage and divorce practices The book shows how these factors are being undermined by new ideas which emphasise the need for wifely obedience increasing gender inequality and the right of husbands to be coercive Report of the International Narcotics Control Board for ...

Her Majesty's Stationery Office,2004 The SAGE Encyclopedia of World Poverty Mehmet Odekon,2015-06-15 The SAGE Encyclopedia of World Poverty Second Edition addresses the persistence of poverty across the globe while updating and expanding the landmark work Encyclopedia of World Poverty originally published in 2006 prior to the economic calamities of 2008 For instance while continued high rates of income inequality might be unsurprising in developing countries such as Mexico the Organization of Economic Co operation and Development OECD reported in May 2013 even countries with historically low levels of income inequality have experienced significant increases over the past decade including Denmark Sweden and Germany The U N and the World Bank also emphasize the persistent nature of the problem It is not all bad news In March 2013 the Guardian newspaper reported Some of the poorest people in the world are becoming significantly less poor according to a groundbreaking academic study which has taken a new approach to measuring deprivation The report by Oxford University s poverty and human development initiative predicts that countries among the most impoverished in the world could see acute poverty eradicated within 20 years if they continue at present rates On the other hand the U N says environmental threats from climate change could push billions more into extreme poverty in coming decades All of these points lead to the need for a revised updated and expanded edition of the Encyclopedia of World Poverty Key Features 775 evaluated and updated and 175 entirely new entries New

Reader s Guide categories Signed articles with cross references Further Readings will be accompanied by pedagogical elements Updated Chronology Resource Guide Glossary and thorough new Index The SAGE Encyclopedia of World Poverty Second Edition is a dependable source for students and researchers who are researching world poverty making it a must have reference for all academic libraries      Women in the Republic of Maldives ,2001 These publications form a series that provides information on the status and role of women in developing member countries They also assist ADB staff integrate gender concerns in country programming work project design and implementation      Understanding Gender in Maldives Jana El-Horr,Rohini Prabha Pande,2016-05-16 Within the past decade the Maldives moved from poverty to middle income status introduced democracy and was hailed as a Millennium Development Goal Plus country Women face little discrimination in basic aspects of life such as primary education health and survival unlike in much of South Asia This economic and social progress has yet to be fully inclusive however and gender inequality endures despite constitutional guarantees to the contrary This is at least partly due to a shift in the nature of Islamic practice in the Maldives towards more rigidly patriarchal interpretations Women s labor force participation is high but limited to lower echelons of the economy Women are slightly more likely than men to be unemployed Despite gender equal primary schooling girls access to tertiary and professional education is hampered by beliefs about girls and women s mobility and primacy of household roles over others Within the home women face challenges that men do not such as high risks of domestic violence and little control over household assets Finally women have limited presence in politics and governance Men struggle with different gendered situations Unemployment is high among young men who also increasingly are alienated from society and family This alienation combined with a lack of strong alternative social structures to replace the breakdown of traditional family structures that has accompanied Maldives development trajectory appear to be propelling young men towards greater social conservatism participation in gangs drug use and violence Nonetheless women are more disadvantaged in more realms of life than are men Moreover public support for gender equality and women s rights appears to be declining These developments are worrying for the future of gender equality in the Maldives as well as for a more inclusive development model that would offer opportunities to both men and women      Yearbook of the United Nations United Nations,1947 Issue for 1946 47 includes a summary of the organization s activities from its inception to July 1 1947      Current Perspectives on Substance Use Disorders in South Asia S. M. Yasir Arafat,Sujita Kumar Kar,2024-11-25 This book is about public mental health needs and aspects of substance use disorders in South Asian countries South Asia consists of eight countries with low and middle income backgrounds The people of this region with a combined population of around 2 billion share common cultures beliefs and behavioral patterns regarding physical and mental health Among them more than 66 million people use different forms of substances including cannabis opium and opiates amphetamine and prescription drugs Substance abuse brings deadly consequences It affects almost all spheres of life i e personal social recreational criminal and family aspects both physical and mental health and economy of the society as well as the country. Advanced management and holistic prevention are public health priorities. However, very little attention has been paid to the issues as a region as well as in countries like Afghanistan, Bangladesh and Pakistan. Hence the editors of this book aimed to publish a book that discusses the public mental health and healthcare issues related to substance use disorder in a densely populated low and middle income setting.

Advancing Joint Risk Assessment using the One Health Approach in WHO South-East Asia Region Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, World Health Organization, World Organisation for Animal Health, 2024-06-27. Since 2017 the collaborative efforts of the Food and Agricultural Organization of the United Nations, the World Health Organization and the World Organisation for Animal Health have led to the development and roll out of the Joint Risk Assessment (JRA) Operational Tool (OT), a practical instrument linked to the Tripartite Zoonoses Guide. This meeting was held to strengthen JRA using a One Health approach in the WHO South East Asia Region. In the meeting the countries shared good practices, lessons and challenges in conducting JRA, practiced the application of the Tripartite JRA OT and identified priority actions to further advance JRA to guide collaborative risk management activities using a One Health approach. The meeting recommended further strengthening JRA at the human-animal environment interface by engaging multisectoral One Health stakeholders in the respective country context. It was suggested that the actual application of JRA in the country may require a learning-by-doing approach.

Report to the Economic and Social Council on the Work of the Board International Narcotics Control Board, 1994. South-East Asia Eye Health Taraprasad Das, Patanjali Dev Nayar, 2021-08-18. The book covers all aspects of eye health in South East Asia from public health to health system to education to industry in 6 sections. The World Health Organization WHO South East Asia region comprises of 11 countries: Bangladesh, Bhutan, DPR Korea, India, Indonesia, Maldives, Myanmar, Nepal, Sri Lanka, Thailand and Timor-Leste. This region is home to 26% of world population; there is a disproportionate amount of blindness (30.6%) and visual impairment (36%). This is a first of its kind book that discusses common conditions of visual impairment and blindness in the South East Asia region. In addition, the book documents the current eye care industry in the region and the contribution of all eye health INGOs in eye care program planning and service delivery for many decades. Majority of the countries in the South East Asia region are categorized in middle income country group. This book discusses the common challenges in these countries such as suboptimal public expenditure in health, acute shortage of skilled eye health workforce and rudimentary health industry. The book covers the following 6 sections: 1. Geographic description and health indices of the region; 2. Health system evolved over years including universal eye health, health financing and health management information system (HMIS); 3. Common eye problems including non-communicable disease (NCD) and diabetic retinopathy, neglected tropical disease (NTD) and Trachoma; 4. Health workforce in the region that includes ophthalmologists, optometrists and allied ophthalmic personnel; 5. Eye health support in the region of 13 international non-government organizations (INGOs) working for decades; 6. Eye health industry in the region that includes spectacles ophthalmic devices and equipment and the pharma industry The book would be a useful resource for ophthalmologists all public health personnel and policy makers in eye health in the South East Asia region specifically and all ophthalmologists and scientists interested in public health all over the world as well as for program planning to reach the Health for All strategy by 2030 United Nations Sustainable Development Goal SDG 2030
