Stewart,2005-07-07 Studies of African derived religious traditions have generally focused on their retention of African elements This emphasis says Dianne Stewart slights the ways in which communities in the African diaspora have created and formed new religious meaning In this fieldwork based study Stewart shows that African people have been agents of their own religious ritual and theological formation She examines the African derived and African centered traditions in historical and contemporary Jamaica Myal Obeah Native Baptist Revival Zion Kumina and Rastafari and draws on them to forge a new womanist liberation theology for the Caribbean      Ideology and Class Conflict in Jamaica Abigail Bess Bakan,1990

Abigail Bakan argues that there has been a recurrent ideological tradition of resistance to oppression among the black labouring classes in Jamaica She reveals this pattern through analysis of three periods of mass resistance the 1831 rebellion led by slaves the revolt of 1865 in which former slaves demanded greater control over and entitlement to agricultural land and the 1938 rebellion provoked by the Jamaican working class      Afro-Asian Connections in Latin America and the Caribbean Debbie Lee-DiStefano,Luisa Marcela Ossa,2018-11-27 Afro Asian Connections in Latin America and the Caribbean explores the connections between people of Asian and African descent in Latin America and the Caribbean Although their journeys started from different points of origin spanning two separate oceans their point of contact in this hemisphere brought them together under a hegemonic system that would treat these seemingly disparate continental ancestries as one Historically an overwhelming majority of people of African and Asian descent were brought to the Americas as sources of labor to uphold the plantation agrarian economies leading to complex relationships and interactions The contributions to this collection examine various aspects of these connections The authors bring to the forefront perspectives regarding history literature art and religion and engage how they are manifested in these Afro Asian relationships and interactions They investigate what has received little academic engagement outside the acknowledgement that there are groups who are of African and Asian descent In regard to their relationships with the dominant Europeanized center references to both groups typically only view them as singular entities What this interdisciplinary collection presents is a more cohesive approach that strives to place them at the center together and view their relationships in their historical contexts      Jah Kingdom Monique A. Bedasse,2017-08-11 From its beginnings in 1930s Jamaica the Rastafarian movement has become a global presence While the existing studies of the Rastafarian movement have primarily focused on its cultural expression through reggae music art and iconography Monique A Bedasse argues that repatriation to Africa represents the most important vehicle of Rastafari's international growth Shifting the scholarship on repatriation from Ethiopia to Tanzania Bedasse foregrounds Rastafari's enduring connection to black radical politics and establishes Tanzania as a critical site to explore gender religion race citizenship socialism and nation Beyond her engagement with how the Rastafarian idea of Africa translated into a lived reality she demonstrates how Tanzanian state and nonstate actors not only validated the Rastafarian idea of diaspora but were also crucial to defining the parameters of Pan Africanism Based on previously undiscovered oral and written sources from Tanzania Jamaica England the United States and Trinidad Bedasse uncovers a vast and varied transnational network including Julius Nyerere Michael Manley and C L R James revealing Rastafari's entrenchment in the making of Pan Africanism in the postindependence period
