The Food Section Kimberly Wilmot Voss, 2014-04-24 Food blogs are everywhere today but for generations information and opinions about food were found in the food sections of newspapers in communities large and small Until the early 1970s these sections were housed in the women's pages of newspapers where women could hold an authoritative voice The food editors often a mix of trained journalist and home economist reported on everything from nutrition news to features on the new chef in town They wrote recipes and solicited ideas from readers The sections reflected the trends of the time and the cooks of the community The editors were local celebrities judging cooking contests and getting calls at home about how to prepare a Thanksgiving turkey They were consumer advocates and reporters for food safety and nutrition They helped make James Beard and Julia Child household names as the editors wrote about their television appearances and reviewed their cookbooks These food editors laid the foundation for the food community that Nora Ephron described in her classic 1968 essay The Food Establishment and eventually led to the food communities of today Included in the chapters are profiles of such food editors as Jane Nickerson Jeanne Voltz and Ruth Ellen Church who were unheralded pioneers in the field as well as Cecily Brownstone Poppy Cannon and Clementine Paddleford who are well known today an analysis of their work demonstrates changes in the country's culinary history The book concludes with a look at how the women's pages folded at the same time that home economics saw its field transformed and with thoughts about the foundation that these women laid for the food journalism of today

The Kitchen John Ota,2020-02-25 One man s quest to seek out and be inspired by the great historic kitchens of Canada and the USA John Ota was a man on a mission to put together the perfect kitchen He and his wife had been making do with a room that was frankly no great advertisement for John s architectural expertise It just about did the job but for a room that s supposed to be the beating heart of a home and a joy to cook in the Otas left a lot to be desired And so John set out on a quest across North America exploring examples of excellent designs throughout history to learn from them and apply their lessons to his own restoration Along the way he learned about the origins and evolution of the kitchen its architecture and its appliances He cooked with expert instruction And he learned too about the homes and their occupants who range from pilgrims to President Thomas Jefferson from turn of the century tenement dwellers to 21st century Vancouver idealists from Julia Child to Georgia O Keeffe and from Elvis Presley to Louis Armstrong John Ota has a refreshingly upbeat approach and a hunger for knowledge and indeed for food His energy and enthusiasm are contagious and his insights of lasting value Illustrated throughout with photographs and also with drawings by the author this is a book for homeowners home makers interior designers cooks armchair historians and for anyone who like John Ota before them is looking for inspiration for a renovation Soup's On! Leslie Jonath,2007-09-20
