Lost Hunters:

The Lost Hunters Joseph Alexander Altsheler, 1920 The Lost Hunters is the second volume of the Great West Series of which The Great Sioux Trail was the first In this story young Will Clarke who has long been a captive among the Sioux and who has risen to high favor has become Sioux himself not only in manners and customs but in thought The world is clothed for him in a new atmosphere and he believes with the Indians that good and evil spirits fill air earth and water in truth all things Hence his eye and mind in this story are the eye and mind of the Sioux It is well known that bear deer and wolf grow much larger in the great valleys of far Northwestern Americans than anywhere else in the world and it may be possible that still more gigantic specimens will yet be found in remote regions The struggle of primeval man with wild beasts carried on for ages is here reproduced in the advent of the Sioux warriors among them armed only with bow and arrow The names applied to animals and inanimate objects in this book are note the coinage of the author but are those used by the Sioux

Foreword Lost Hunters: a Story of Wild Man and Great Beasts Joseph A. Altsheler, 2015-12-14 Book two The lost Hunters A story of wild man and great beasts The new start was made the next morning Capa's shoulder now being well on the way to recovery and further delay being a waste of time The forest into which they entered was unlike those they had left It had the aspects of a vast northern jungle The trees were large but the soil was so deep and black that the undergrowth was astonishing in its extent and thickness They made their way in the usual single file through a vast and intricate tangle of vines bushes and creeping briars The air was heavy with the odor of bloom and they wondered at and admired the extraordinary display of vegetable and arboreal life but neither Roka nor Pehansan trusted it They knew that the great animals seeking their lives would find splendid ambush in these green depths While the young warriors rejoiced at what they saw the two older men were wary and apprehensive
