Co-Dependence Healing the Human Condition Charles Whitfield,2010-01-01 Of all the books on the often misunderstood concept of co dependence this is probably the clearest most complete and informative Charles Whitfield is a frontline clinician who has been assisting co dependents in their healing for over twenty years He has researched the literature on co dependence which he summarizes in this widely read book He sees co dependence as a way to more accurately describe the painful and confusing part of the human condition In careful detail he describes just what co dependence is and what it is not how it comes about and how to heal its painful aftereffects

Truth About Addiction and Recovery Stanton Peele,2014-06-30 A radical new approach to recovery using methods proven more effective than medical treatment or twelve step programs Drawing on the latest research and detailed case studies the authors expose the best kept secrets in the recovery field Addictions whether to food cigarettes sex alcohol or drugs are not diseases and they re not necessarily lifelong problems Many more people give up addictions on their own than are helped by medical treatment or twelve step programs Developing values skills and life resources enables people to quit addictions and to shed the addict identity altogether In their revolutionary Life Process Program for overcoming all kinds of addictions the authors emphasize self help and treatment through coping with stress and achieving one s goals As helpful as it is controversial The Truth About Addiction and Recovery will forever change the way we view and treat addiction A classic John Norcross PhD ABPP Distinguished Professor of Psychology at the University of Scranton and author of Changing for Good

Hollywood Shot by Shot Norman K. Denzin,2017-09-04 To what extent have Hollywood feature films shaped the meanings that Americans attach to alcoholics their families and the alcoholic condition To what extent has the mass culture of the movie industry itself been conceptually shaped by a broad external societal discourse Norman Denzin brings to his life long study of alcoholism a searching interest in how cultural texts signify and lend themselves to interpretation within a social nexus Both historical and diachronic in his approach Denzin identifies five periods in the alcoholism films made between 1932 and the end of the 1980s and offers a detailed critical reading of thirty seven films produced during these six decades
