Lovely in Her Bones Jacob K. Jackson, 2005 Representing Rural Women Margaret Thomas-Evans, Whitney Womack Smith, 2019-06-27 Representing Rural Women highlights the complexity and diversity of representations of rural women in the U S and Canada from the nineteenth to twenty first centuries The 15 chapters in this collection offer fresh perspectives on representations of rural women in literature popular culture and print digital and social media They explore a wide range of time periods geographic spaces and rural women s experiences including Mormon pioneer women rural lesbians in the 1970s Canadian rural women s organizations and rural trans youth In their stories these women and girls navigate the complex realities of rural life create spaces for self expression develop networks to communicate their experiences and challenge misconceptions and stereotypes of rural womanhood The chapters in this collection consider the ways that rural geography allows freedoms as well as imposes constraints on women s lives and explore how cultural representations of rural womanhood both reflect and shape women s experiences

The Story Within Us Megan Sweeney, 2012-09-15 This volume features in depth oral interviews with eleven incarcerated women each of whom offers a narrative of her life and her reading experiences within prison walls The women share powerful stories about their complex and diverse efforts to negotiate difficult relationships exercise agency in restrictive circumstances and find meaning and beauty in the midst of pain Their shared emphases on abuse poverty addiction and mental illness illuminate the pathways that lead many women to prison and suggest possibilities for addressing the profound social problems that fuel crime Framing the narratives within an analytic introduction and reflective afterword Megan Sweeney highlights the crucial intellectual work that the incarcerated women perform despite myriad restrictions on reading and education in U S prisons These women use the limited reading materials available to them as sources of guidance and support and as tools for self reflection and self education Through their creative engagements with books the women learn to reframe their own life stories situate their experiences in relation to broader social patterns deepen their understanding of others experiment with new ways of being and maintain a sense of connection with their fellow citizens on both sides of the prison fence

Playing for time Geraldine Cousin, 2013-07-19 Playing for time explores connections between theatre time the historical moment and fictional time Geraldine Cousin persuasively argues that a crucial characteristic of contemporary British theatre is its preoccupation with instability and danger and traces images of catastrophe and loss in a wide range of recent plays and productions The diversity of the texts that are examined is a major strength of the book In addition to plays by contemporary dramatists Cousin analyses staged adaptations of novels and productions of plays by Euripides Strindberg and Priestley A key focus is Stephen Daldry's award winning revival of Priestley's An Inspector Calls which is discussed in relation both to other Priestley time plays and to Caryl Churchill's apocalyptic Far Away Lost children are a recurring motif Bryony Lavery's Frozen for example is explored in the context of the Soham murders which took place while the play was in production at the National Theatre whilst three virtually simultaneous productions of Euripides Hecuba are interpreted with regard to the Beslan massacre of schoolchildren B C
