Current Literature, 1906 The Burdens of Intimacy Christopher Lane, 1999 Why does passion bewilder and torment so many Victorian protagonists And why do so many literary characters experience moments of ecstasy before their deaths In this original study Christopher Lane shows why Victorian fiction conveys both the pleasure and anguish of intimacy Examining works by Bulwer Lytton Swinburne Schreiner Hardy James Santayana and Forster he argues that these writers struggled with aspects of psychology that were undermining the utilitarian ethos of the Victorian age Lane discredits the conservative notion that Victorian literature expresses only a demand for repression and moral restraint But he also refutes historicist and Foucauldian approaches arguing that they dismiss the very idea of repression and end up denouncing psychoanalysis as complicit in various kinds of oppression These approaches Lane argues reduce Victorian literature to a drama about politics power and the ego Striving instead to reinvigorate discussions of fantasy and the unconscious Lane offers a clear often startling account of writers who grapple with the genuine complexities of love desire and friendship

Swinburne's The Statue of John Brute Fabio Ciambella, 2018-04-18 Wrongly believed to be a parodic divertissement by the nineteenth century English poet Algernon Charles Swinburne The Statue of John Brute reveals itself as a highly interesting intertextual universe where echoes from Shakespeare the Restoration drama Beckford Gothic fiction and many other sources of inspiration mix together in an extremely short but explosive text At the heart of this volume is an absolutely original analysis of this relatively unknown text meant to acknowledge its paramount importance as Oscar Wilde's source for his well known The Picture of Dorian Gray While trying to confute the hypotheses put forward by critics from the 1920s and 1930s who believed The Statue to be a fin de siècle parody of Wilde's Aesthetic masterpiece this study anticipates its date of composition by almost twenty years through an accurate bio literary and corpus stylistic analysis thus recognising it not as a parody but as a possible hypotext of Dorian Gray
