Second Series Henry Smith (of King's College, London.), 1844      The Ultimate Manifestation of God to the World, Addressed to Believers of the Gospel David Waldie (of Liverpool.), 1847      Harmony, 1903      Complete Concordance to Miscellaneous Writings Mary Baker Eddy, 1915      Love's Redeeming Work Geoffrey Rowell, Kenneth Stevenson, Rowan Williams, 2003 There is a rich vein of writing within Anglican tradition that has helped to form the theology and spirituality of the contemporary church For many readers much of this material remains unfamiliar and is often difficult to access Love's Redeeming Work draws together the works of major writers from the sixteenth century to the present day who have contributed to this development Each selected writer is introduced with a brief biography which gives background information about the author and highlights the relationships that existed with others from the same period This will enable the reader to set the writings in their proper context enhancing understanding of the material The selections then follow In some instances these may be familiar but other examples will introduce fresh ideas for every reader Each writer's selection is concluded with a list of source texts which can encourage readers to explore in more depth those areas which intrigue and excite them Love's Redeeming Work traces a path that has enabled Anglicanism in particular and the wider church as well to develop an ever deepening awareness of the need for a spiritual depth in the Christian life informed by a better knowledge of tradition In exploring this material it is the compilers hope that readers will find new riches that will encourage and sustain their own quest for holiness Journal of Education, 1882

John Milton John T. Shawcross, 2014-10-17 The facts of John Milton's life are well documented but what of the person Milton the man whose poetic and prose works have been deeply influential and are still the subject of opposing readings John Shawcross's different biography depicts the man against a psychological backdrop that brings into relief who he was in his works and from his works While the theories of Freud Lacan Kohut and others underlie this pursuit of Milton's self Jung and some of his followers provide the basic understanding by which Shawcross places Milton in the panorama of history His explorations of the psychological underpinnings of Milton's decision to become a poet of the homoerotic dimensions of his personality and of his relationships with father and mother demonstrate the extent to which psychobiography proves itself invaluable as a means to appreciate this complex writer and his complex writings This biography combines the traditional chronological narrative with a technique akin to that of fiction a mixture of times and a triggering of remembrances from various time frames without time differentiations Such an approach offers a view of Milton not only in being but in process of being Shawcross's examination of two current concerns gender attitudes and political ideologies ranges Milton's work against the self he exhibits Specialists and nonspecialists alike will find in this magisterial biography a wealth of new insight into one of the greatest of English poets New Philosophies of Sex and Love Sarah LaChance Adams, Christopher M. Davidson, Caroline R. Lundquist, 2016-11-30 Our amorous and erotic experiences do not simply bring us pleasure they shape our very identities our ways of relating to ourselves each other and our shared world This volume challenges some of our most prevalent assumptions relating to identity the body monogamy libido sexual identity seduction fidelity orgasm and more In twelve original and philosophically thought provoking essays the authors reflect on the broader meanings of love and sex what their shifting historical meanings entail for us in the present how they are constrained by social conventions the ambiguous juxtaposition of agency and passivity that they reveal how they shape and are formed by political institutions the opportunities they present to resist the confines of gender and sexual orientation how cultural artefacts can become incorporated into the body and how love and sex both form and justify our ethical world views

Ideal for students both in philosophy and gender studies this highly readable book takes us to the very heart of two of the most important dimensions of human experience and meaning making to the seductive and alluring confusing and frustrating realms of love and sex

Textual Patterns and Cosmic Designs in Early China Benoît Vermander, 2024-05-30 Via a hermeneutics focused on Chinese numerology and concentric arrangements this book offers a novel construal of the textual universe proper to early China writings The author lays bare distinguishable patterns of textual composition while relating them to corresponding patterns of thinking He differentiates rhetorical variants through detailed studies of the Zhuangzi's Inner chapters the Laozi the Analects and the Huainanzi The philosophical depth and relevance of the Chinese ancient worldview appear in a fresh light when one unearths the patterns into which its content is embedded The focus on textual patterns and rhetorical arrangements also facilitates the reading of Chinese classics alongside other traditions The book will be a valuable reference for scholars and graduate students studying Chinese literary criticism Chinese philosophy and comparative philosophy
