ForewordI have had the utmost pleasure in not only calling Jill Delbridge a friend but a very close one more like a Sister to me There is not enough space or the proper words to capture her essence in a Foreword The Multi Faceted Jill Delbridge is a beautiful and extremely talented lady that has taken many young writers under her gentle wings and mentored them gracefully She is a natural Giver and to know her is to love her As for her own writing it is thoughtful deep and laden with profound messages that the readers may apply to their own lives as well as a feeling of familiarity as she lets you into her world Whether she is writing about the plight of the Home less Racism or a Lovers quarrel Ms Delbridge has the natural ability to not only paint a vivid picture so that we may see but she captures all five senses in the reader Her style may be considered by some as Eclectic and I d like to add that her use of Metaphors is strong and her vocabulary is prolific
