

A serene sunset scene over the ocean. The sun is a bright, glowing orb in the upper center, casting a warm, golden light across the sky and water. In the background, a large, dark rock formation rises from the sea, its silhouette softened by the low light. The foreground shows the gentle ripples of the water, reflecting the ambient light. A semi-transparent dark rectangle is centered over the image, containing the quote in white text.

Loving anything is bound

Loving And Losing:

Loving Losing & Living LaShonda Smalls McElveen, 2017-01-06 Loving Losing Living Loving Losing and Living is one woman's spiritual journey of how her faith and trust in God helped her through the death of her 32 year old husband who was killed in a car accident In a five year period her status changed from virgin to married to widow and single mother of two small children Her faith in God as healer of all wounds both physical and emotional is what got her through the roughest time of her life She declares that prayer and praise helped her to the other side of the rainbow where there was something wonderful awaiting her after the storm On Form ,2008-09-18 What is form Why does form matter In this imaginative and ambitious study Angela Leighton assesses not only the legacy of Victorian aestheticism and its richly resourceful keyword form but also the very nature of the literary She shows how writers for two centuries and more have returned to the idea of form as something which contains the secret of art itself She tracks the development of the word from the Romantics to contemporary poets and offers close readings of among others Tennyson Pater Woolf Yeats Stevens and Plath to show how form has provided the single most important way of accounting for the movements of literary language itself She investigates for instance the old debate of form and content of form as music or sound shape as the ghostly dynamic and dynamics of a text as well as its long association with the aestheticist principle of being for nothing In a wide ranging and inventive argument she suggests that form is the key to the pleasure of the literary text and that that pleasure is part of what literary criticism itself needs to answer and convey The Positive Power of Sadness Ron Johnson Ph.D., Deb Brock
