It's a hell of a war
that expects a man to lead his team into the jaws
of death every day—and bring them back alive.

Lrrp Team Leader:

LRRP Team Leader John Burford, 2011-01-12 For the LRRPs courage was a way of life Vietnam 1968 All of Sergeant John Burford's missions with F Company 58th Infantry were deep in hostile territory As leader of a six man LRRP team he found the enemy staged ambushes called in precision strikes and rescued downed pilots The lives of the entire team depended on his leadership and their combined skill and guts A single mistake a moment of panic could mean death for everyone Whether describing ambushes in the dreaded A Shau Valley or popping smoke to call in artillery only yards away from his position Burford demonstrates the stuff the LRRPs are made of the bravery daring and sheer guts that make the LRRPs true heroes

Inside the LRRPs Col. Michael Lee Lanning, 2011-07-20 Vietnam was a different kind of war calling for a different kind of soldier The LRRPs Long Range Reconnaissance Patrols were that new breed of fighting man They operated in six man teams deep within enemy territory and were the eyes and ears of the units they served This is their story of perseverance under extreme hardship and uncommon bravery and how they carried out the war's most hazardous missions

Bonding of Warriors (Compiled by) Bob Hernandez, 2014-08-18 They were men who were just the best at what they did They had to have patience and a good instinct for survival in the type of covert warfare we were involved in They also had to have the ability to accept danger and hardship without succumbing to the stress that went along with it They were good at what they did and they liked it
