Afro-Brazilian art, 2000 The Power of Form Ezio Bassani, Michael Bockemühl, Patrick R. McNaughton, 2002 Many elements converge in the construction of a high quality art collection making it a fascinating intellectual and emotional adventure a journey of discovery and a labour of love Formed over the course of thirty years by Udo Horstmann and his wife the Horstmann collection is rather exceptional inasmuch as it offers a captivating vision of the variety of solutions adopted by black artists over the course of the centuries nearly 120 extraordinary sculptures figures masks household objects and weapons from Guinea Bissau Mali Burkina Faso Cote d'Ivoire Ghana Togo Nigeria Cameroon Gabon Congo Angola Zambia Zimbabwe South Africa Swaziland Mozambique Kenya and Sudan The origin of the artworks selected for their perfection transcending the mere utilitarian function touches all of the lands of the continent including the southern and eastern lands rarely so authoritatively represented in other collections and their execution covers an arc of time of several millennia The presence of ancient works contributes to the demolition of the preconception that has weighed unfairly until recent years on African art and that is the absence of evolution in the artistic creation of Black Africa and therefore of any historic quality This is a difficult negation to cancel if African sculpture is still often labeled as primitive Another meritorious quality of the Horstmanns lies in the fact that they chose the sculptures in their collection not out of any generic passion for the exotic and neither for any abstract demand for representativity of ethnicity or significance or destination but for their quality for the enchantment of the form or better of the forms Paging through the book the reader will discover that the artistic creation that is the need to give form to the formless is a common heritage of mankind shared by the artists of Black Africa African Dream Machines Anita Nettleton, 2007-10-01 African Dream Machines takes African headrests out of the category of functional objects and into the more rarefied category of art objects Styles in African headrests are usually defined in terms of western art and archaeological discourses but this book interrogates these definitions of style and demonstrates the shortcomings of defining a single formal style model as exclusive to a single ethnic group Among the artefacts made by southern African peoples headrests were the best known Anita Nettleton's study of the uses and forms of headrests opened up a number of art historical methodologies in the attempt to gain an understanding of form style and content in African art objects Her drawings of each and every headrest encountered become a major part of the project Affinities of Form Diane Pelrine, Portland Museum of Art, 1996 This is both a study of the art of collecting and a look at the objects in the Wielgus collection of arts from Africa Oceania and the Americas The book examines the motives that led Raymond Wielgus to become a collector and puts the Wielgus collection in Annalen, 1996 Anthropos, 2004 African Faces, African Figures Alain Nicolas, Jean-Hubert Martin, Jacques Kerchache, 1997
