

The background of the entire page is a reproduction of Michelangelo's 'Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden'. It depicts Adam lying on his back, reaching for the forbidden fruit from Eve, who is seated and holding the apple. The scene is set in a lush garden with various plants and animals, including a serpent coiled around a tree branch. The lighting is dramatic, with strong highlights on the figures' bodies and deep shadows in the surrounding foliage.

Luca Giordano Oreste Ferrari, Luca Giordano, Giuseppe Scavizzi, 2003 Paolo de Matteis Livio Pestilli, 2017-07-05 This volume represents a long overdue reassessment of the Neapolitan painter Paolo de Matteis an artist largely overlooked in English language scholarly publications but one who merits our attention for the quality of his work and the originality of its iconography as well as for his remarkable ability to respond creatively to his patrons aesthetic ideals and agendas Following a meticulous examination of the ways in which posterity's impression of de Matteis has been conditioned by a biased biographical and literary tradition Livio Pestilli devotes rich detailed analyses to the artist's most significant paintings and drawings More than just a novel approach to de Matteis and the Neapolitan Baroque however the book makes a significant contribution to the study and understanding of early eighteenth century European art and cultural history in general not only in Naples but in other major European centers including Paris Vienna Genoa and Rome The Deaths of Seneca James

Ker, 2012 The forced suicide of Seneca former adviser to Nero is one of the most tortured death scenes from classical antiquity Here James Ker offers a comprehensive cultural history of Seneca's death scene situating it in the Roman imagination and tracing its many subsequent interpretations Luca Giordano at the Museo Nacional Del Prado Andrés Ubeda de los Cobos, 2017 In spite of the huge number of paintings by this artist in the Prado Luca Giordano Naples 1634 1705 is seldom studied and is therefore little known to the public who often do not see beyond the cliché of his prodigious speed of execution The present volume sets out to remedy this lack of knowledge It begins with three introductory essays that set the Prado paintings in the context of Giordano's life survey the painter's critical fortunes from his own time to the present day and provide information on his Spanish period which lasted from 1692 to 1702 These initial texts also look into specific issues among them Giordano's relationship with his dealers and more controversial aspects such as the commercial strategies he used to disseminate his work The second part of the book the catalogue raisonné proper consists of entries for each of the paintings studied including information on their provenance condition restoration history related literature iconography visual sources and critical fortunes It features a total of 99 paintings executed on different supports and in various media which span all the stages of his production except the period following his return to Naples in 1702 This catalogue is the result of many years of thorough research conducted by its author Andrés Ubeda de los Cobos Deputy Director for Conservation and Research at the Museo del Prado He is a specialist on Luca Giordano and has published various articles and books on the artist's works such as a study on the fresco of the Apotheosis of the Spanish Monarchy in the Casón del Buen Retiro in 2008 a project which in a sense has been brought to a successful completion by this book Depositi
