German composer and pianist Beethoven's musical prowess was recognised from an early age and he soon became famous as a virtuoso pianist and composer. However, after having gone almost completely deaf by 1814, Beethoven ceased public performances and appearances entirely. One of the most celebrated composers in Western history, Beethoven's music remains amongst the most commonly performed classical music around the world. His most notable compositions include Symphony No. 1 in C major, Op. 21, Violin Concerto in D major, Op. 61, and Piano Concerto No. 5 in E major, Op. 73. This brand new volume offers unique insights into the life and mind of this incredible composer and will appeal to those with an interest in classical music.

Connecting Comics to Curriculum Karen W. Gavigan, Mindy Tomasevich, 2011-09-29 Here is the essential guide for librarians and teachers who want to develop a quality curriculum based graphic novel collection and use its power to engage and inform middle and high school students. Connecting Comics to Curriculum: Strategies for Grades 6-12 provides an introduction to graphic novels and the research that supports their use in schools. The book examines best curriculum practices for using graphic novels with students in grades 6-12, showing teachers and school librarians how they can work together to incorporate these materials across the secondary curriculum. Designed to be an essential guide to harnessing the power of graphic novels in schools, the book covers every aspect of graphic novel use in libraries and classrooms. It illuminates the criteria for selecting titles, explores collection development strategies, and suggests graphic novel tie-ins for subjects taught in secondary schools. One of the first books to provide in-depth lesson plans for teaching a variety of middle and high school standards with graphic novels, the guide offers suggestions for differentiating instruction and includes resource lists of recommended titles and websites.
