Menstruation Now: What Does Blood Perform? Berkeley Kaite, 2019-04-01 Each of the eight chapters in this volume addresses menstruation and/or menstrual blood in various media sites with a view to answering the question: what does blood perform? Menstrual blood may be enduringly feminine, but it is never just one thing. Menstruation Now contains chapters on the shifting conversation of menstruation in contemporary advertising; menstrual blood and the female complaint in Alice Munro's short story Chance; the signification of menstrual blood in legal discourse; blood as a para-text in pornographic films; the placement of Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis's phantasmized menstrual blood in biographies of her; contemporary menstrual art; menstrual blood as liminal space in Ingmar Bergman's film Cries and Whispers; and unruly blood in the TV show Orange Is the New Black. Blood is performative, disruptive, noisy, aesthetically fluid, difficult to discipline. It can thus now, as always, be performed again in the service of new meanings and experiences.

The New York Public Library's Books of the Century Elizabeth Diefendorf, Chief Librarian of the Research Division, New York Public Library, 1996-04-11 What are the books that helped shape and define the last hundred years? This was the question put to the librarians of The New York Public Library as part of the Library's 100th anniversary celebration. Which books had influenced the course of events for good or ill? Which interpreted new worlds? Or delighted millions of readers? Their answers to these questions formed Books of the Century, a highly popular exhibit during the Library's centennial celebration, 1895 to 1995, highlighting an exhilarating collection of important works by some of the greatest writers of our times. Now the companion volume, The New York Public Library's Books of the Century, takes readers on a thought-provoking tour of the last hundred years through the medium of the printed word. Here readers will find over 150 pivotal works organized into topical categories reflecting themes that have informed the century among them: Mind, Spirit, Protest, Progress, Women, Rise, or Nature's Realm. Each is introduced with a brief commentary illuminating the themes and issues the books in that section address, followed by an annotation for violence was wrong In 2007 economist Jens Ludwig moved to the South Side of Chicago to research two big questions Why does gun violence happen and is there anything we can do about it Almost two decades later the answers aren't what he expected Unforgiving Places is Ludwig's revelatory portrait of gun violence in America's most famously maligned city Disproving the popular narrative that shootings are the calculated acts of malicious or desperate people Ludwig shows how most shootings actually grow out of a more fleeting source interpersonal conflict especially arguments By examining why some arguments turn tragic while others don't Ludwig shows gun violence to be more circumstantial and more solvable than our traditional approaches lead us to believe Drawing on decades of research and Ludwig's immersive fieldwork in Chicago including countless hours spent in schools parks playgrounds housing developments courtrooms jails police stations police cars and lots and lots of McDonald's Unforgiving Places is a breakthrough work at the cutting edge of behavioral economics As Ludwig shows progress on gun violence doesn't require America to solve every other social problem first it only requires that we find ways to intervene in the places and the ten minute windows where human behaviors predictably go
