Steve Gerber Jason Sacks, Eric Hoffman, Dominick Grace, 2019-06-27 Steve Gerber 1947-2008 is among the most significant comics writers of the modern era. Best known for his magnum opus Howard the Duck, he also wrote influential series such as Man-Thing, Omega the Unknown, The Phantom Zone, and Hard Time, expressing a combination of intelligence and empathy rare in American comics. Gerber rose to prominence during the 1970s. His work for Marvel Comics during that era helped revitalize several increasingly clichéd generic conventions of superhero horror and funny animal comics by inserting satire, psychological complexity, and existential absurdism. Gerber's scripts were also often socially conscious, confronting among other things capitalism, environmentalism, political corruption, and censorship. His critique also extended into the personal sphere, addressing such taboo topics as domestic violence, racism, inequality, and poverty. This volume follows Gerber's career through a range of interviews, beginning with his height during the 1970s and ending with an interview with Michael Eury just before Gerber's death in 2008. Among the pieces featured is a 1976 interview with Mark Lerer originally published in the low-circulation fanzine Pittsburgh Fan Forum, where Gerber looks back on his work for Marvel during the early to mid-1970s, his most prolific period. This volume concludes with selections from Gerber's dialogue with his readers and admirers in online forums and a Gerber-based Yahoo Group wherein he candidly discusses his many projects over the years. Gerber's unique voice in comics has established his legacy. Indeed, his contribution earned him a posthumous induction into the Will Eisner Comic Book Hall of Fame.

Best Horror of the Year Ellen Datlow,2024-10-29 For more than four decades Ellen Datlow has been at the center of horror Bringing you the most frightening and terrifying stories Datlow always has her finger on the pulse of what horror readers crave Now with the sixteenth volume of the series Datlow is back again to bring you the stories that will keep you up at night Encompassed in the pages of The Best Horror of the Year have been such illustrious writers as Neil Gaiman Stephen King Stephen Graham Jones Joyce Carol Oates Laird Barron Mira Grant and many others Mysterious Travelers Zack Kruse,2021-02-01 2022 Honorable Mention Recipient of the Charles Hatfield Book Prize from the Comics Studies Society Steve Ditko 1927 2018 is one of the most important contributors to American comic books As the cocreator of Spider Man and sole creator of Doctor Strange Ditko made an indelible mark on American popular culture Mysterious Travelers Steve Ditko and the Search for a New Liberal Identity resets the conversation about his heady and powerful work Always inward facing Ditko s narratives employed superhero and supernatural fantasy in the service of self examination and with characters like the Question Mr A and Static Ditko turned ordinary superhero comics into philosophic treatises Many of Ditko s philosophy driven comics show a clear debt to ideas found in Ayn Rand s Objectivism Unfortunately readers often reduce Ditko s work to a mouthpiece for Rand s vision Mysterious Travelers unsettles this notion In this book Zack Kruse argues that Ditko s philosophy draws on a complicated network of ideas that is best understood as mystic liberalism Although Ditko is not the originator of mystic liberalism his comics provide a unique window into how such an ideology operates in popular media Examining selections of Ditko s output from 1953 to 1986 Kruse demonstrates how Ditko s comics provide insight into a unique strand of American thought that has had a lasting impact Conversations with Steve Martin Robert E. Kapsis,2014-09-02 Conversations with Steve Martin presents a collection of interviews and profiles that focus on Martin as a writer artist and original thinker over the course of more than four decades in show business While those less familiar with his full body of work may think of Martin as primarily the wild and crazy guy with an arrow through his head this book makes the case that he is in fact one of our nation's most accomplished and varied artists. It shows the full range of Martin's creative work tracing the source of his comic imagination from his early standup days starting in the mid to late 1960s through the films he has written and starred in and emphasizing his more recent creative outpourings as playwright, essayist, novelist, memoirist, songwriter, composer, musician, and art critic. Standup is the hardest material in the world to write for someone else; it's like trying to condense 10 years of experience into 20 minutes of new material. Martin says. But commenting on his fiction writing he says I think you have to be able to find as a writer that state where you don't know what you're going to say or what the character is going to say or who the characters are. That's the biggest thrill of all. When you start to trust that subconscious thing and you don't censor yourself just remember you can always throw it away that's when the good stuff comes out. The selected materials consist not only of pieces focused primarily on Martin's writings but also broader profiles and conversations that help explain Martin's development as a writer within the larger context of his many other accomplishments, talents, and performance skills.
