Old Testament

Creation

Creation describes how God created the world. In the Outbreak of the Old Testament, it says that God created the earth in seven days. On the first day he created the light, on the second day the sky and on the third day the land and the plants.

On the fourth day, God created the sun, the moon and the stars, which determine day and night. The fifth day was for the creation of the water and the air. On the sixth day, God created the land animals and man. Man was created in God's image, which means that he has a special place in creation.

On the seventh day, God rested, which is still observed today as the

Moses

Moses was an important leader of the people of Israel. He was found as a baby in the Nile by Pharaoh's daughter and grew up in Egypt. Later, as an adult, Moses fled because he had killed an Egyptian.

God spoke to Moses from a burning bush and gave him the task of leading the people of Israel from slavery in Egypt to the land of Canaan. Moses led the Israelites out of Egypt and across the Red Sea. Through miracles, God ensured the survival of the Israelites during the journey.

Moses received the 10 commandments from God on Mount Sinai, which helped the Israelites to live in a just society. Through Moses, God wanted to lead his community in Canaan.

The 10 plagues

The 10 plagues were divine punishments that God brought upon Egypt because Pharaoh wouldn't release the people of Israel. The plagues began with the turning of the Nile into blood and ended with the death of the first-born of the Egyptians.

Each plague was a challenge to the Egyptians, and each was a sign of God's power. Despite the plagues, Pharaoh refused to let the Israelites go. After Pharaoh's death, the Israelites escaped, but he changed his mind and persecuted the Israelites.

The last plague, the death of the first-born, finally led to Pharaoh allowing the Israelites to leave. The plagues showed God's justice and power and his willingness to punish evil when people don't listen to his commands.

Noah

Noah was a righteous man who lived in a time when people were wicked. He warned the world because people were evil and God decided to send a flood to destroy them.

God told Noah of the coming flood and gave him the plan to build an ark. He and a pair of each animal species entered the ark and the flood began. It rained for 40 days and 40 nights. During the time, Noah stayed in the ark's protection.

After the flood, God made a covenant with Noah and his descendants. He promised that he would never again send a flood to destroy the world. This covenant is still important today as it is the basis of the world.

10 Commandments

The 10 commandments are moral and religious guidelines that God gave Moses on Mount Sinai. They are the basis for the life of the Israelites and also play an important role for Christians.

The commandments include the prohibition against worshipping other gods, as well as commandments such as "Thou shalt not kill" and "Thou shalt not steal". These commandments help to

Abraham

Abraham was the father of Isaac. He lived in the land of Canaan and was called by God to leave his homeland and go to a new land. God promised him that his descendants would be as numerous as the stars in the sky.
