Nessim,2021-03-15 In the matrix of nascent Judaism and Christianity the Didache is a Christian Jewish voice seeking to mediate the Torah to its gentile recipients in a manner appropriate for them Steering diplomatically between the Scylla and Charybdis of the Law observant Jerusalem church and Pauline dogma the Didache is very clear that gentiles do not need to convert to Judaism On the other hand the author argues the Torah and in particular the second Table of the Decalogue is universally applicable to everyone Jew and gentile While gentiles are not required to keep commands specific to Israel the Deuteronomic paradigm of the Way of Life versus the Way of Death is applicable to all Jesus said my yoke is easy The Didache mandates bearing the yoke of the Lord in order to attain perfection The yoke it advocates is not as easy as one might suppose yet both Jews and Christians would recognize its morals as largely the same as those that underpin Judaeo Christian values today Further they reflect the requirements that Christian Jews saw as necessary for participation in the Christian community in a day when that community still looked very much to its Jewish progenitors The First Days of Jesus

Gerbern S. Oegema,Loren T. Stuckenbruck,Henry W. Morisada Rietz,2022-01-27 Leading international contributors on biblical texts including the New Testament and the Dead Sea Scrolls intersect with the work of James H Charlesworth and examine Charlesworth's vast contribution to the field of biblical studies honoring the work of one of the most significant biblical scholars of his generation. Divided into five sections, this volume begins with a section on the Hebrew Bible and the New Testament texts with particular focus on the Gospel of John and Jesus studies. The contexts of these texts are considered with a focus on the Greco-Roman and Jewish worlds and the varying intersections between texts and the worlds that created them. The contributors then focus on the most significant body of Charlesworth's work: the apocrypha, pseudepigrapha, and the Dead Sea Scrolls, and the journey concludes with an assessment of the history of scholarship on the core areas addressed across the book.

Yahoel and Metatron Andrei A. Orlov, 2017-08-17 In this work, Andrei A. Orlov examines the apocalyptic profile of the angel Yahoel as the mediator of the divine Name, demonstrating its formative influence not only on rabbinic and Hekhalot beliefs concerning the supreme angel Metatron but also on the unique aural ideology of early Jewish mystical accounts. Back of dust jacket Abraham in the Old Testament and Early Judaism John Eifion Morgan-Wynne, 2020-04-23 In this book, John Morgan Wynne carefully examines the pivotal figure of Abraham in the Old Testament and Early Judaism. Our earliest literary evidence concerning Abraham is the stream of tradition known as J, the so-called Yahwist source, ca. tenth century BCE, and also the Elohist stream of tradition, ninth to eighth century or perhaps earlier. The subsequent eclipse of the Abrahamic tradition in the south is probably accounted for by the stress on the Davidic monarchy. However, Abraham's profile begins to rise again during and after the Babylonian exile when Jewish theologians had to come to terms with the traumatic events of the fall of the northern and southern kingdoms. He is frequently discussed in many non-canonical early Jewish writings as he became a figure of identification, a pre-eminently righteous man, and an example to imitate as Jews came to terms with being a subject people and with persecution.

Jesus and the Manuscripts Craig A. Evans, 2021-10-05 Jesus and the Manuscripts by popular author and Bible scholar Craig A. Evans introduces readers to the diversity and complexity of the ancient literature that records the words and deeds of Jesus. This diverse literature includes the familiar Gospels of the New Testament, the much less familiar literature of the Rabbis, and of the Qur'an, and the extracanonical narratives and brief snippets of material found in fragments and inscriptions. This book critically analyzes important texts and quotations in their original languages and engages the current scholarly discussion. Evans argues that the Gospel of Thomas is not early or independent of the New Testament Gospels but that it should be dated to the late second century. He also argues that Secret Mark, like the recently published Gospel of Jesus Wife, is probably a modern forgery. Of special interest is the question of how long the autographs of New Testament writings remained in circulation. Evans argues that the evidence suggests that most of these autographs remained available for copying and study for more than one hundred years and thus stabilized the text. Key points and features: Written by popular author and Bible scholar Craig A. Evans. Includes 20 pages of high-quality color photos. Walks readers through the various works of ancient literature, both biblical and non-biblical, that mention Jesus. Critically analyzes important texts and quotations in their original languages and engages the current scholarly discussion When Souls Had Wings Terryl Givens, 2010 The notion that we spring into existence ex nihilo at birth strikes many people as counter intuitive By contrast the idea that we have an eternal identity appeals to some deep intuition about the self And indeed belief in the soul s pre mortal existence has a long history in Western thought Terryl Givens offers the first systematic exploration of this fascinating if generally unfamiliar feature of Western cultural history

Dreams, Visions, Imaginations Jens Schröter, Tobias Nicklas, Armand Puig i Tàrrach, 2021-02-08 The contributions in this volume are focused on the historical origins religious provenance and social function of ancient Jewish and Christian apocalyptic literature including so called Gnostic writings Although it is disputed whether there was a genre of apocalyptic literature it is obvious that numerous texts from ancient Judaism early Christianity and other religious milieus share a specific view of history and the world to come Many of these writings are presented in form of a heavenly divine revelation mediated through an otherworldly figure like an angel to an elected human being who discloses this revelation to his recipients in written form In different strands of early Judaism ancient Christianity as well as in Gnosticism Manichaeism and Islam apocalyptic writings played an important role from early on and were produced also in later centuries One of the most characteristic features of these texts is their specific interpretation of history based on the knowledge about the upper divine realm and the world to come Against this background the volume deals with a wide range of apocalyptic texts from different periods and various religious backgrounds

The New Testament Moses John Lierman, 2004 This is a study of the NT witness to how Jews and Jewish Christians perceived the relationship of Moses with Israel and with the Jewish people This is a narrowly tailored study focusing specifically on that relationship without treating Moses in the New Testament comprehensively The study consults ancient writings and historical material to situate the NT Moses in a larger milieu of Jewish thought It contributes both to the knowledge of ancient Judaism and the to illumination of NT religion and theology especially Christology

Rodenbiker, 2025 The formation of the Christian biblical canon remains a contested and mysterious subject complicated by the dating of ancient texts disagreement among ancient writers and questions of the authenticity or not of various scriptural works The Catholic Epistles James 1 and 2 Peter 1 2 3 John and Jude are a significant wrench in the gears of the process that formed the New Testament collection not least because of issues like authorship and references to other Jewish and Christian scriptures This book explores the use of characters in the Catholic letters originating from the Jewish and Christian scriptural pasts who serve as both exemplary models of behaviour and authorial mouthpieces Such figures and their textual afterlives maintain links to both now canonical works and noncanonical tradition Bible Canon Prof. M. M. Ninan, 2018-09-12 Canon means the rules Every religion is based on principles of faith In the Abrahamic faiths these faith rules are based on the revelation of God through the Prophets How do we know that these prophets are speaking by inspiration of God On what basis do we build the canonical books of the Bible Who made these rules Who determined How and When
