Second Nature A Gardeners Education:

Second Nature Michael Pollan, 2018-09-01 One of the distinguished gardening books of our time from the 1 New York Times bestselling author of The Omnivore's Dilemma USA Today Chosen by the American Horticultural Society as one of the 75 greatest books ever written about gardening After Michael Pollan bought an old Connecticut dairy farm he planted a garden and attempted to follow Thoreau's example do not impose your will upon the wilderness the woodchucks or the weeds That ethic did not of course work But neither did pesticides or firebombing the woodchuck burrow So Michael Pollan began to think about the troubled borders between nature and contemporary life The result is a funny profound and beautifully written book in the finest tradition of American nature writing It inspires thoughts on the war of the roses sex and class conflict in the garden virtuous composting the American lawn seed catalogs and the politics of planting a tree A blend of meditation autobiography and social history Second Nature from the renowned author of The Botany of Desire In Defense of Food and other bestsellers is as delicious a meditation on one man's relationship with the Earth as any you are likely to come upon The New York Times Book Review Usually when Americans have wanted to explore their relationship to nature they've gone to the wilderness or the woods Michael Pollan went to the garden instead and he's returned with a quirky and pleasing book Annie Dillard A joy to read Los Angeles Times

Second Nature Michael Pollan, 1992 More than eight years ago Harper's editor Michael Pollan bought an old Connecticut dairy farm He planted a garden and adopted Thoreau's viewpoint Do not impose your will upon the wilderness the woodchucks or the weeds Here is his timely meditation and social history on man's relationship with nature and the environment The Aesthetics Of Human Environments Arnold Berleant, Allen

Carlson, 2007-05-24 The Aesthetics of Human Environments is a companion volume to Carlson's and Berleant's The Aesthetics of Natural Environments Whereas the earlier collection focused on the aesthetic appreciation of nature The Aesthetics of Human Environments investigates philosophical and aesthetics issues that arise from our engagement with human environments ranging from rural landscapes to urban cityscapes Our experience of public spaces such as shopping centers theme parks and gardens as well as the impact of our personal living spaces on the routine activities of our everyday life are discussed in terms of their aesthetic value and the nature of our aesthetic appreciation This volume will appeal to any reader concerned about the aesthetic quality of the world in which we live Domestic Wild: Memory, Nature and

Gardening in Suburbia Franklin Ginn, 2016-06-23 In Domestic Wild Franklin Ginn sets out to find a new sense of the wild at the heart of modernity Inspired by experienced skilful gardeners Ginn analyses what happens when plants animals and people meet in the suburbs of London Weaving major theories of landscape memory and nonhuman subjectivity with the practical wisdom of gardeners this book offers a radical new account of everyday gardening Amid spectacular horizons of planetary loss Domestic Wild argues that gardening offers a means to cultivate a renewed sense of intimacy with nature and ourselves Technology and Values Craig Hanks, 2009-05-04 This anthology features essays and book excerpts on technology and values written by preeminent figures in the field from the early 20th century to the present It offers an in depth range of readings on important applied issues in technology as well Useful in addressing questions on philosophy sociology and theory of technology Includes wide ranging coverage on metaphysics ethics and politics as well as issues relating to gender biotechnology everyday artifacts and architecture A good supplemental text for courses on moral or political problems in which contemporary technology is a unit of focus An accessible and thought provoking book for beginning and advanced undergraduates yet also a helpful resource for graduate students and academics Garden Plots

Shelley Saguaro,2017-05-15 Shelley Saguaro s unique book illustrates the persistent presence of gardens in literature Gardens in fiction do not simply represent a familiar theme Saguaro contends but are bound up with wider aesthetic and ideological issues As with literary forms so too are gardens subject to transformations Encompassing a wide array of twentieth and twenty first century authors including Virginia Woolf Eudora Welty Carol Shields J M Coetzee Toni Morrison Leslie Marmon Silko Jamaica Kincaid Don DeLillo and Philip K Dick this book s preoccupations are signalled in the evocatively titled chapters Botanical Modernisms Natural History and Postmodern Grafting Postcolonial Landscapes How Does Your Cyber Garden Grow and Coevolutionary Histories the Poetics of a Paradox Informed by postcolonial formalist feminist and psychoanalytic theories Garden Plots is a must read for all those alive to the space gardens inhabit in the literary landscape Spiritual Capital Samuel D. Rima,2017-07-05

Presenting a thorough comprehensive theory of spiritual capital based on solid academic research Spiritual Capital serves to reinforce and amplify the notion of a moral economic core that is beginning to feature in contemporary economic arguments In this rare major work wholly dedicated to the subject of spiritual capital Sam Rima explains the desperate need for revolutionary and transformational thinking in the area of economic policy and practice and makes the case for a new moral foundation to business and economics that directly addresses today s financial and business crisis Writing in an accessible style and drawing on examples from several continents Rima explains spiritual capital theory in terms of the resources needed for its creation how it is formed how it can be invested and what the return on investment can be The book provides practical tools for measuring a personal or organizational store of spiritual capital along with clear guidelines on how to engage in spiritual capital formation These will benefit business leaders interested in developing viable and sustainable enterprises capable of avoiding the disconnection between economic policy and social reality There are also recommendations here for policy makers regarding the macro application of spiritual capital theory This important contribution to Gower s Transformation and Innovation Series will appeal to business leaders and policy makers academicians and students in the fields of sociology theology and economics and anyone interested in social and economic justice issues social innovation and corporate social responsibility

 Barbara Burn,2014-03-04 Surprising as it may seem the first place an experienced gardener looks for advice and ideas is not the local gardening store or even the nearby botanical garden but a good library Gardeners have been sharing their wisdom for thousands of years and their books and treatises still provide a rich resource for growers and landscapers today Here in this volume is a bouquet of quotations that will strike a responsive chord with anyone who has ever worked the soil or just admired nature s handiwork Areas that are covered include the metaphorical Some men like to make a little garden out of life and walk down a path Jean Anouilh The Lark 1952 words of encouragement Then seek your job with thankfulness and work till further orders If it s only netting strawberries or killing slugs on borders And when your back stops aching and your hands begin to harden You will find yourself a partner in the Glory of the Garden Rudyard Kipling The Glory of the Garden 1911 reflection To sit in the shade on a fine day and look upon verdure is the most perfect refreshment Jane Austen Mansfield Park 1814 and the practical Three fundamental aspects of border design site shape and size have at least as great an effect on the ease of garden maintenance as does the actual selection of plants Frederick McGourty The Perennial Gardener 1989 and much more Drawing on sources ranging from the earliest agrarian civilizations to the present The Little Red Book of Gardening Wisdom is a treasury of great ideas that will delight amateur and expert gardeners alike     Design Your Natural Midwest Garden Patricia Hill,2007 Gardening with native species by award winning designer shows you how to combine varieties that are perfect for the soils and climates of the upper Midwest     Stuff Every Gardener Should Know Scott Meyer,2017-03-07 This handy little gift book is the perfect pocket guide to your garden For the green thumb in your life this delightful companion is blooming with fun facts and helpful ideas for everything from indoor seed starting to tips for hassle free roses What s the difference between heirlooms and hybrids How can I stop weeds from invading my flowerbeds And what s the best way to attract helpful beneficial insects All these questions and more are answered for gardeners of all ages and experience Topics include Tips for Hassle Free Roses How to Grow Perfect Tomatoes How to Start Seeds Indoors How to Extend the Growing Season And more     Paradise Transplanted Pierrette Hondagneu-Sotelo,2014-08-15 Gardens are immobile literally rooted in the earth but they are also shaped by migration and by the transnational movement of ideas practices plants and seeds In Paradise Transplanted Pierrette Hondagneu Sotelo reveals how successive conquests and diverse migrations have made Southern California gardens and in turn how gardens influence social inequality work leisure status and our experiences of nature and community Drawing on historical archival research ethnography and over one hundred interviews with a wide range of people including suburban homeowners paid Mexican immigrant gardeners professionals at the most elite botanical garden in the West and immigrant community gardeners in the poorest neighborhoods of inner city Los Angeles this book offers insights into the ways that diverse global migrations and garden landscapes shape our social world

Analysing the Boundaries of the Ancient Roman Garden Victoria Austen, 2023-02-09 This book demonstrates how the Romans constructed garden boundaries specifically in order to open up or undermine the division between a number of oppositions such as inside outside sacred profane art nature and real imagined Using case studies from across literature and material and visual culture Victoria Austen explores the perception of individual garden sites in response to their limits and showcases how the Romans delighted in playing with concepts of boundedness and separation Transculturally the garden is understood as a marked off and cultivated space Distinct from their surroundings gardens are material and symbolic spaces that constitute both universal and culturally specific ways of accommodating the natural world and expressing human attitudes and values Although we define these spaces explicitly through the notions of separation and division in many cases we are unable to make sense of the most basic distinction between garden and not garden In response to this ambiguity Austen interrogates the notion of the boundary as an essential characteristic of the Roman garden

Global Ecologies and the Environmental Humanities Elizabeth DeLoughrey, Jill Didur, Anthony Carrigan, 2015-04-10 This book examines current trends in scholarly thinking about the new field of the Environmental Humanities focusing in particular on how the history of globalization and imperialism represents a special challenge to the representation of environmental issues Essays in this path breaking collection examine the role that narrative visual and aesthetic forms can play in drawing attention to and shaping our ideas about long term and catastrophic environmental challenges such as climate change militarism deforestation the pollution and management of the global commons petrocapiatalism and the commodification of nature The volume presents a postcolonial approach to the environmental humanities especially in conjunction with current thinking in areas such as political ecology and environmental justice Spanning regions such as Africa Asia Eastern Europe Latin America and the Caribbean Australasia and the Pacific as well as North America the volume includes essays by founding figures in the field as well as new scholars providing vital new interdisciplinary perspectives on the politics of the earth disaster vulnerability and resilience political ecologies and environmental justice world ecologies and the Anthropocene In engaging critical ecologies the volume poses a postcolonial environmental humanities for the twenty first century At the heart of this is a conviction that a thoroughly global postcolonial and comparative approach is essential to defining the emergent field of the environmental humanities and that this field has much to offer in understanding critical issues surrounding the creation of alternative ecological futures

Locating Suburbia Paula Hamilton, Paul Ashton, 2013-01-01 The identity of suburbia so far as it can be ascribed one is shifting and insecure a borderline and liminal space Dominant stereotypes have listed it as on the margins beyond edges of cultural sophistication and tradition and the areas that make up sprawl But in the twenty first century this static view has to be modified As is evident from this collection suburban dwellers themselves have redefined themselves This collection explores the range and complexity of twenty first century responses to city suburbs predominantly in Sydney It draws on a range of approaches from history to creative non fiction and multi media

The Green Thread Patrícia Vieira, Monica Gagliano, John Charles Ryan, 2015-12-24 The Green Thread Dialogues with the Vegetal World is an interdisciplinary collection of essays in the emerging field of Plant Studies The volume is the first of its kind to bring together a dynamic body of scholarship that shares a critique of long standing human perceptions of plants as lacking autonomy agency consciousness and intelligence The leading metaphor of the book the green thread echoing poet Dylan Thomas phrase the green fuse carries multiple meanings On a more apparent level the green thread is what weaves together the diverse approaches of this collection an interest in the vegetal that goes beyond single disciplines and specialist discourses and one that not only encourages but necessitates interdisciplinary and even interspecies dialogue On another level the green thread links creative and historical productions to the materiality of the vegetal a reality reflecting our symbiosis with oxygen producing beings In short The Green Thread refers to the conversations about plants that transcend strict disciplinary boundaries as well as to the possibility of dialogue with plants

A Companion to Aesthetics Stephen Davies, Kathleen Marie Higgins, Robert Hopkins, Robert Stecker, David E. Cooper, 2009-04-27 A COMPANION TO AESTHETICS This second edition of A Companion to Aesthetics examines questions that were among the earliest discussed by ancient philosophers such as the nature of beauty and the relation between morality and art while also addressing a host of new issues prompted by recent developments in the arts and in philosophy including coverage of non Western art traditions and of everyday and environmental aesthetics The volume also canvases debates regarding the nature of representation the relation between art and truth and the criteria for interpretation which are among the most hotly discussed topics in contemporary philosophy In this extensively revised and updated edition 168 alphabetically arranged articles provide comprehensive treatment of the main topics and writers in aesthetics Major additions include historical overviews from the prehistoric to the present and a section on the individual arts A Companion to Aesthetics will serve students of philosophy literary criticism and cultural studies as well as the educated general reader both as a work of reference and with its many substantial essays as a guide to the best thinking about the arts from the ancient Greeks to the dawn of the twenty first century
