Second Penguin Of Modern Womens Short Stories:

The Second Penguin Book of Modern Women's Short Stories Susan Hill, 1997 The Short Story Anthology and Women's Writing Aleix Tura Vecino, 2025-08-14 Hundreds of anthologies of women's short stories have appeared in the literary market between the 1970s and now. This publishing and cultural phenomenon is considered for the first time in this book which argues that during this period anthologies have become a literary technology used not only to make visible female short story writers but also to think about and mould ideas of womanhood. Through creative and contextualised readings of the most important anthologies produced in this period, this study shows that this literary form has contributed to and in some cases pioneered key developments in gender theory and feminist thought including questions of political combination among women which underlie contemporary global movements such as MeToo. In doing so, the book also develops the first book-length conceptualisation of the features and meaning-making mechanisms of the short story anthology as a literary form. This book will benefit academics and students working in the fields of short fiction publishing and women's studies as well as feminist scholars and a growing number of specialists interested in the anthology as a literary form worldwide.

British Women Short Story Writers Emma Young, 2015-06-30 Essays tracing the evolving relationship between British women writers and the short story genre from the late Nineteenth Century to the present day.

The Short Story and the First World War Ann-Marie Einhaus, 2013-07-31 Covering a range of topics, settings and styles, the book offers the first comprehensive study of short fiction from the First World War.

The Second Penguin Book of Modern Women's Short Stories Susan Hill, 1997 Authors include Helen Dunmore, Penelope Fitzgerald, Carson McCullers, Naomi Mitcheson, E. Annie Proulx and Roxana Robinson.

Susan Hill Jonathan Noakes, Margaret Reynolds, 2012-03-31 The Woman in Black, Strange Meeting, I'm the King of the Castle, A Little Bit of Singing and Dancing. In Vintage Living Texts, teachers and students will find the essential guide to the works of Susan Hill. Vintage Living Texts is unique in that it offers an in-depth interview with Susan Hill relating specifically to the texts under discussion. This guide deals with Hill's themes, genre and narrative technique, and a close reading of the texts will provide a rich source of ideas for intelligent and inventive ways of approaching the novels. Also included in this guide are detailed reading plans for all three novels, questions for essays and discussion, contextual material, suggested texts for complementary and comparative reading, extracts from reviews, a critical overview, a biography, bibliography and a glossary of literary terms.

The Facts on File Companion to the British Short Story Andrew Maunder, 2007 A comprehensive reference to short fiction from Great Britain, Ireland and the British Commonwealth. With approximately 450 entries, this A to Z guide explores the literary contributions of such writers as Joseph Conrad, James Joyce, D. H. Lawrence, Rudyard Kipling, Oscar Wilde, Katherine Mansfield, Martin Amis and others.

Women and Relationships in Contemporary Irish Women's Short Stories [?], 2021-07-01 This book examines archetypal motifs related to aspects of human relationships in contemporary Irish women's short stories from the late 1960s to the present.

These relationships examined embrace not only relationships between men and women as married couples and lovers but also women to women relationships as mothers daughters sisters or lovers This book has uncovered certain recurrent motifs which may be construed as archetypal and are employed as a narrative device to express a certain level of feminist awareness by Irish female writers in their stories against the backdrop of Irish feminism emerged in the late 1960s This feminist aspect of Irish women s stories appears to address the paradoxes of patriarchal ideology underlying male domination in male female courtship and marriages the conflict between patriarchally loyal mothers and rebellious daughters powerless but rival female siblings and peers competing for limited resources and male attention under the Father s law Motifs of resistance and subversion serve in these stories as metaphors unveiling female protests against an ideology which defines and confines women in the Irish patriarchal context This book demonstrates a process of transition during which Irish female writers progress from the depiction of women who struggle and fight against unfairness and distortion within an androcentric culture to a new direction in which such writers describe a situation where women recognise the internalisation of the false consciousness of patriarchy and out of this recognition may be eventually able to develop further their sense of self and individuality The archetypal motifs in Irish women s stories also illustrate a kind of continuity of an ancient female archetype of female rebellious powers which in female literary imagination never ceases to resurface in the face of patriarchal suppression
