Second Poetry:

Second Bloom Anya Krugovoy Silver, 2017-09-06 In Second Bloom Silver looks unflinchingly and honestly at the suffering of cancer while at the same time celebrating the possibility of joy the persistence of beauty and love the simultaneous winnowing and comfort of faith These poems are contemplative and often personal but reach out to the world as a whole from IV poles to hula hoops from riding a roller coaster with one's son to comforting a dying friend at Christmas The poems glean their subject matter from ordinary life from art from the natural world Silver's poetry attempts to preserve the world's luminous moments and to hold grace and despair simultaneously in the human heart Second Language Lisel

Mueller, 1986-06-01 Second Language is the fourth volume of work from the highly acclaimed poet Lisel Mueller The second language of the title English supplanted Mueller's native language when she came to the United States from Hitler's Germany at age fifteen But other second languages are at work here as well The poems in this collection have to do with memory and metaphor two forces that enable us to interpret our experience Each is in a sense a second language and in Mueller's employ each gains expression in an imaginative and humanistic voice In English as a Second Language the various meanings of Second Language come together lucidly and effectively Romanticism, Self-Canonization, and the Business of Poetry Michael Gamer, 2017-02-17 This is the first book to examine how Romantic writers transformed poetic collections to reach new audiences In a series of case studies Michael Gamer shows Romantic poets to be fundamentally social authors working closely with booksellers intimately involved in literary production and resolutely concerned with current readers even as they presented themselves as disinterested artists writing for posterity Exploding the myth of Romantic poets as naive unworldly or unconcerned with the practical aspects of literary production this study shows them instead to be engaged with intellectual property profit and loss and the power of reprinting to reshape literary reputation Gamer offers a fresh perspective on how we think about poetic revision placing it between aesthetic and economic registers and foregrounding the centrality of poetic collections rather than individual poems to the construction of literary careers

Cajun Literature and Cajun Collective Memory Mathilde Köstler, 2022-12-19 How does Cajun literature emerging in the 1980s represent the dynamic processes of remembering in Cajun culture Known for its hybrid constitution and deeply ingrained oral traditions Cajun culture provides an ideal testing ground for investigating the collective memory of a group In particular francophone and anglophone Cajun texts by such writers as Jean Arceneaux Tim Gautreaux Jeanne Castille Zachary Richard Ron Thibodeaux Darrell Bourque and Kirby Jambon reveal not only a shift from an oral to a written tradition They also show hybrid perspectives on the Cajun collective memory Based on recurring references to place the texts also reflect on the Acadian past and reveal the innate ability of the Cajuns to adapt through repeated intertextual references The Cajun collective memory is thus defined by a transnational outlook a transversality cutting across various ethnic heritages to establish and legitimize a collective identity both amid the linguistic and cultural diversity in Louisiana and in the face of American mainstream culture Cajun Literature and Cajun Collective Memory represents the first analysis of the mnemonic strategies Cajun writers use to explore and sustain the Cajun identity and collective memory
