Secondary Wholeschool Audit:

The Secondary Whole-school Audit Brian Drakeford, Jeffrey Cooling, 2013-10-28 First published in 1998 The Education Reform Act of 1988 introduced into schools in England and Wales a range of major reforms including the National Curriculum the transfer of certain key powers and responsibilities from LEAs to schools and new and altogether more comprehensive procedures for the monitoring of school performance Offering a view as to whether or not the OFSTED inspection process will actually secure improvement through inspection is not the purpose of this publication The Secondary Whole School Audit has been produced in response to OFSTED s explicit inspection criteria which provide schools in England and Wales for the first time in their history with clear direction and standards against which they can continuously judge current strengths and weaknesses and review developmental targets

Teaching English as an Additional Language in Secondary Schools Seán Bracken, Catharine Driver, Karima Kadi-Hanifi, 2016-11-10 With increasing numbers of learners in secondary schools having English as an additional language it is crucial for all teachers to understand the learning requirements of these students and plan distinctive teaching approaches to engage and support them This book provides school leaders trainee teachers and qualified teachers with the skills and practical knowledge they need to strengthen the learning outcomes of students for whom English is an additional language Teaching English as an Additional Language in Secondary Schools sets out realistic ways in which EAL learners can be engaged and stretched in their learning building on their prior literacy cultural experiences and language learning It clearly explains the theory and key research into how additional languages are acquired and offers practical classroom teaching and learning strategies to show teachers how they can help EAL learners to access the curriculum and reflect on their learning through assessments Features include tasks to help put the ideas into practice case studies illustrating the key challenges faced by EAL learners summaries of key research findings reflections to encourage deeper thinking Drawing on the daily experiences of teachers and teaching assistants this book will be essential reading for all trainee and practising teachers that want to ensure students with EAL fulfil their true learning potential

Leading Learners, Leading Schools Robin Brooke-Smith, 2003-12-16 In this book Robin Brooke Smith explores the dynamics of schools as complex organisations He presents a radical departure from established school improvement and effectiveness orthodoxies offering a refreshing new approach to managing change and enhancing collective learning Based on the author s own experience of managing and leading schools this book explores such questions as How can schools learn as a generative process How can schools become adaptive and co evolve with their internal and external environments How can education leaders navigate their institutions out of the comfort zone and into the creative state The book concludes with a series of practical lessons for leading schools in complex conditions and will be of great value to reflective action orientated heads principals and deputies as well as academics and researchers in education management

Secondary Education at the Crossroads Phillip Hughes, 2006-09-23 Education is a universal priority Currently it is at a crossroad In every society it is valued as a major road to produce more productive more harmonious and healthier citizens Yet in every setting there is deep dissatisfaction with the overall performance of education and there are major moves towards reform sometimes superficial but more often fundamental These reform processes have had only moderate and very uneven success Too often they are episodic reflecting a short term approach which is frequently changed for the latest enthusiasm or the most recent administration In Asia and the Pacific countries many systems are in the process of construction or reconstruction Can we learn from the experiences of others Given the multiplicity of efforts at reform and the variety of situations for reform there may well be lessons we can learn from each other s efforts and each others failures and successes This book features contributions from experienced researchers who have worked in many different settings and bring their own insights to attack this universal problem Creativity and Education Anne Harris,2016-06-15 This book advances an environmental approach to enhancing creativity in schools by interweaving educational creativity theory with creative industries environmental approaches Using Anna Craft s last book Creativity and Education Futures as a starting point the book sets out an up to date argument for why education policy should be supporting a birth to workplace approach to developing creative skills and capacities that extends across the education lifespan The book also draws on the voices of school teachers students and leaders who suggest directions for the next generation of creative teachers and learners in a rapidly evolving global education landscape Overall the book argues that secondary schools must find a way to make more room for creative risk innovation and imagination in order to adequately prepare students for creative workplaces and publics
