Secret Life Of The Harvest Mouse:

Secret Life of the Harvest Mouse Stephen Harris, 1979      The Secret Life of an Arable Field Sophie McCallum, 2021-11-30 The Field looks at the eco system of an arable field complete with photographs from crops trees hedgerows and wildflowers to the wide variety of animals farmland birds insects butterflies and moths that they support and how they depend on each other and are all vital for the wonderful environment we need to thrive and enjoy The book focuses on the relationship between these key species how they work together and interact with their environment in order to survive It is about the eco system and how they all link together and how every species no matter how seemingly insignificant plays a vital part in the food chain and ultimate survival of all species For every species referred there is a photograph detailing it with over 120 color images throughout the book The animals and birds that live within this habitat are reported on and the insects including detailed analysis of bumblebees honeybees and ants as well as more hidden species such as the earthworm are described in their role in life with in depth facts and photos Wildlife such as badgers muntjacs hedgehogs and fallow deer and their habits are detailed along with birds that survive on farmland and are now sadly becoming rare Included in this range are corn buntings skylarks goldfinches kestrels yellow wagtails and jackdaws although there are many more The main aim of this book is to give a detailed description of the private life of these creatures and show how they depend upon and work together in harmony creating the environment that we are so adeptly eradicating The Government have set out a package of reforms to deliver 300 000 new homes a year by the mid 2020s Our havens of nature are being destroyed and this book will examine with photographs and text what really makes the field a special place both for wildlife and humans alike

Secret Lives Stephen Dalton, 1988      A Lifetime of Mammals Derek Warren, 2018-01-09 A comprehensive description of the UK s mammal population Fully illustrated from the author s extensive photographic collection This book is the result of over fifty years of studying and photographing the mammals of the UK in their natural environment It consists of full descriptions of our native mammals and the landscapes in which they live It concentrates on the larger mammals such as the badger and foxes but also all the smaller mammals such as stoats weasels and polecats and rodents including squirrels voles and various mouse species Finally it also describes some introduced animals both long established such as the rabbit and brown hare as well as briefer descriptions of the more recently introduced ones such as the mink The book deals with how some of the mammals such as the badger have had their profiles raised through the work of the author together with Dr Ernest Neal It was the combined work of various badger experts including Derek Warren and Dr Neal and several MPs that resulted in the two badger bills being presented to parliament The book contains a chapter by Adrian Middleton a retired veterinary surgeon on colour variations in mammals where these variations are described in detail All of these descriptions within the book are accompanied by photographs of the various mammals taken by the author      The Countryman John William Robertson Scott, 1980      Proposals for Future Monitoring of British Mammals David Whyte Macdonald, 1998      The
