The Unsired Lee Duke, 2013-11-27 Throw away your crucifix for it will not protect you not in this chillingly original take on the vampire legend Its a tale of bloody revenge that will expose the modern day workings of the Vampire Clans and their constant war with those who would hunt them to extinction Its a story that explains away the myths handed down through centuries of ignorance that keeps us from believing the horrifying truth about the real vampires living among us today It is the winter of 1362 in what was then a small Lithuanian farming village on the edge of the Carpathian Mountains A man and a child lay dead their throats savagely ripped open and their bodies drained of blood The mans pregnant wife on hearing the news goes into premature labor giving birth to an underdeveloped baby boy The infant is not expected to live and the mother remains weak and sickly The attending midwives leave the two of them alone to share what precious moments they have left together The creature responsible for the attacks is an injured vampire being chased through the nearby forest by a band of determined Hunters In his need for blood to repair both the injuries and replenish his strength the vampire doubles back losing the Hunters in the process Reentering the village hidden from sight by the raging storm and the dark of night the vampire breaks into one of the small homes to feed upon the defenseless mother as she clutches her newborn baby protectively to her breast In the course of his savage feeding the vampire unknowingly allows some of his own blood and that of the mother to spill into the infants mouth The blood feeds and nurtures the dying infant turning him into something very very different This horrific act will set in motion a series of events that will leave a trail of death and destruction across seven centuries and three continents before it finally reaches the new lands of America One man not quite human or of the undead will stand between the two warring factions of Hunters and Vampires a saviour to some and a deadly enemy to others and this is his story Like Blade meets Bond directed by Tarantino

The Valet's Tragedy Andrew Lang, 1903 Historical mysteries including the case of Sir Edmund Berry Godfrey The Selected Works of Andrew Lang Andrew Lang, When the learned first gave serious attention to popular ballads from the time of Percy to that of Scott they laboured under certain disabilities The Comparative Method was scarcely understood and was little practised Editors were content to study the ballads of their own countryside or at most of Great Britain Teutonic and Northern parallels to our ballads were then adduced as by Scott and Jamieson It was later that the ballads of Europe from the Faroes to Modern Greece were compared with our own with European M rchen or children s tales and with the popular songs dances and traditions of classical and savage peoples The results of this more recent comparison may be briefly stated Poetry begins as Aristotle says in improvisation Every man is his own poet and in moments of strong emotion expresses himself in song A typical example is the Song of Lamech in Genesis I have slain a man to my wounding And a young man to my hurt Instances perpetually occur in the Sagas Grettir Egil Skarphedin are always singing In Kidnapped Mr Stevenson introduces The Song of the Sword of Alan a fine example of Celtic practice words and air are beaten out together in the heat of victory In the same way the women sang improvised dirges like Helen lullabies like the lullaby of Danae in Simonides and flower songs as in modern Italy Every function of life war agriculture the chase had its appropriate magical and mimetic dance and song as in Finland among Red Indians and among Australian blacks The deeds of men were chanted by heroes as by Achilles stories were told in alternate verse and prose girls like Homer s Nausicaa accompanied dance and ball play priests and medicine men accompanied rites and magical ceremonies by songs These practices are world wide and world old The thoroughly popular songs thus evolved became the rude material of a professional class of minstrels when these arose as in the heroic age of Greece A minstrel might be attached to a Court or a noble or he might go wandering with song and harp among the people In either case this class of men developed more regular and ample measures They evolved the hexameter the laisse of the Chansons de Geste the strange technicalities of Scandinavian poetry the metres of Vedic hymns the choral odes of Greece The narrative popular chant became in their hands the Epic or the mediaeval rhymed romance The metre of improvised verse changed into the artistic lyric These lyric forms were fixed in many cases by the art of writing But poetry did not remain solely in professional and literary hands The mediaeval minstrels and jongleurs who may best be studied in L on Gautier s Introduction to his Epop es Fran aises sang in Court and Camp The poorer less regular brethren of the art harped and played conjuring tricks in farm and grange or at street corners The foreign newer metres took the place of the old alliterative English verse But unprofessional men and women did not cease to make and sing
