The Untold Story Iain Calder, 2004-07-28 The flashing bulbs of the paparazzi The iconic names Liz Michael Jackson Jackie O Jen and Brad Americans are obsessed with the famous and the beautiful their lives loves break ups and breakdowns From Entertainment Tonight to People from primetime to the E channel our appetite for celebrity news is seemingly insatiable But in the beginning only the National Enquirer went boldly where other publications feared to tread In this no holds barred account of the most infamous tabloid in America Iain Calder its former editor in chief tells all Over the course of a career that spanned four decades Calder brought the lurid newspaper to new heights dramatically raising circulation by combining his streetwise journalist background with the genius of Enquirer publisher Generoso Pope Jr Calder was born in a small village in Scotland left school at sixteen and rose through the ranks of the Glasgow newspapers His intense work ethic ruthless tricks to throw competitors off his scent and nose for a story served him well and he was tapped to head the Enquirer's London bureau. At that point the lowly Enquirer was a collection of gory photos of car crashes and murder victims but Calder corralled the best freelance journalists in Europe and started honing the formula that would transform the tabloid: a unique mix of celebrity scandal, hard-nosed reporting and feel-good stories. Pope moved him to the American offices of the Enquirer and the duo transformed the tabloid and in the process American journalism. Calder exposes the stories behind the headlines and the wickedly intrepid Enquirer tactics for getting the scoops. With Calder at the helm the National Enquirer ran the infamous shot of Gary Hart and Donna Rice and the record-breaking photo of Elvis in his coffin. And it was the New York Times that dubbed the Enquirer the Bible of the O J Simpson trial after reporters infiltrated O J's inner circle. From the contents of Henry Kissinger's trash and the identity of John Belushi's drug dealer to Princess Grace's tragic death, the Enquirer told us what inquiring minds wanted to know as it took celebrity news from the back pages to the front pages and television screens of mainstream publications and programs. Calder re-creates the exhilaration of being at the Enquirer during its most extraordinary period and details the way he and his staff broke the biggest exclusives of the day. At its core The Untold Story is also a love letter from Calder to the glorious tabloid he helped create. Inside the National Enquirer George Bernard, 1977. The former National Enquirer reporter recalls his five unforgettable years of tracking down and writing sensational and outrageous stories, many of which too outrageous then, now make their first appearance. Tabloid Secrets Neville Thurlbeck, 2015-05-12. In nearly twenty years at the top of the News of the World, Neville Thurlbeck, chief reporter, news editor and scoop hunter extraordinaire, served up some of the most famous, memorable and astonishing headlines in the paper's existence. They lit up the world of tabloid journalism and featured names such as David Beckham, Fred and Rose West, Jeffrey Archer and Robin Cook among many others. Along the way, Thurlbeck was drawn into encounters with Cabinet ministers, rent boys, sports stars, serial killers, drug lords and, on one occasion, a devil worshipping police officer. He worked with MI5 and the National Criminal Intelligence Service, foiled a murder and gave Gordon Brown a tongue-lashing to remember all in the name of journalism. Now in Tabloid Secrets he reveals for the first time the truth about how he broke the stories that thrilled, excited and shocked the nation and secured the paper up to fifteen million readers every week. The result is a fascinating, scandalous, swashbuckling insight into some of the biggest and most sensational scoops by Fleet Street's most notorious reporter. Tabloid Prodigy Marlise Kast, 2008-05.
