An Engraved Landscape is a contextual analysis of a substantial new corpus of engravings from the Wadi al Ajal situated in the Central Saharan region of south west Libya The wadi is renowned as the heartland of the Garamantian civilization which emerged from local mobile Pastoral communities in the 1st millennium BC and dominated trans Saharan trade and politics for over a thousand years Extensive archaeological and palaeoenvironmental investigations in recent years have provided detailed insight into the later prehistory and protohistory of the wadi and surrounding areas However prior to the fieldwork detailed in this work only a handful of carvings had been recorded in the wadi This work is based on systematic survey conducted between 2004 and 2009 which recorded around 2 500 previously unknown or unpublished engraved and inscribed rock surfaces All forms of engraving whether figurative or surface markings were viewed as significant residues of human interaction with the rock surface and were recorded The resulting database provides an opportunity to analyze the engravings in relation to their changing physical and cultural contexts and the discussion offers a fresh interpretation of Saharan rock art based on this substantial new evidence An Engraved Landscape also captures in detail a unique heritage resource that is currently inaccessible and threatened This record of the fragile engravings provides an important source of information for researchers and students Beyond the Empire's Borders: Uncovering the Secrets of Rome's Frontiers

Caitlin O'Connell,2008-09 From an internationally renowned field scientist comes this fascinating story of her unexpected discovery of a RsecretS new mode of elephant communication This unforgettable journey takes readers into the wilds of Africa where naturalists do their difficult work in a troubled land The Secrets of an Aborted Decolonisation Carlson Anyangwe,2010-10-08 A remarkable feature of the collapse of the British Empire is that the British departed from almost every single one of their colonial territories invariably leaving behind a messy situation and an agenda of serious problems that in most cases still haunt those territories to this day One such territory is the Southern British Cameroons There the British Government took the official view that the territory and its people were expendable It opposed for selfish economic reasons sovereign statehood for the territory in clear violation of the UN Charter and the norm of self determination It transferred the Southern Cameroons to a new colonial overlord and hurriedly left the territory The British Governments bad faith duplicity deception wheeling and dealing and betrayal of the people of the Southern Cameroons is incredible and defies good sense Ample evidence of this is provided by the declassified documents in this book Among the material are treaties concluded by Britain with Southern Cameroons coastal Kings and Chiefs and the boundary treaties of the Southern Cameroons treaties defining the frontiers with Nigeria to the west and the frontier with Cameroun Republic to the east The book contains documents that attest to the Southern Cameroons as a fully self governing country ready for sovereign statehood These include debates in the Southern Cameroons House of Assembly and the various Constitutions of the Southern Cameroons The book also reproduces British declassified documents on the Southern Cameroons covering the three critical years from 1959 to 1961 documents which speak to the inglorious stewardship of Great Britain in the Southern Cameroons This book removes lingering doubts in some quarters that the people of the Southern Cameroons were cheated of independence Its contents are further evidence of their inalienable right and sacred duty to assert their independence No one who reads this book can possibly be indifferent to the just struggle of the Southern Cameroons for sovereign statehood
