EU Cartel Enforcement Andreas Scordamaglia-Tousis, 2013-08-01 There has been a long standing debate on the compatibility of EU competition law with fundamental rights protection particularly as the latter is enshrined in the due process requirements of the European Convention on Human Rights ECHR This book a signal contribution to that debate assesses two questions of paramount concern first whether the current level of fundamental rights protection in cartel enforcement falls within the accepted ECHR standards and second how the often conflicting objectives of effectiveness and adequate protection of fundamental rights could optimally be achieved Following a detailed survey of relevant EU institutional substantive and procedural law rules the author offers a set of persuasive normative responses to both questions Proceeding from an in depth analysis of the pertinent rights and legal nature of competition proceedings under EU and ECHR law the author goes on to examine such elements of the perceived incompatibility as the following investigatory powers vested in competition authorities the privilege against self incrimination right to privacy fair trial probatory requirements degree of use of presumptions in EU practice Article 6 ECHR guarantees pertaining to the presumption of innocence proving coordination of competitive behaviour proving restriction of competition admissibility of evidence before EU Courts and the Commission assessment of the attribution of liability rules EU fining rules judicial review of cartel decisions by EU Courts and national sanctioning rules The author's extraordinarily thorough presentation is rounded off with a remarkably comprehensive bibliography that lists in addition to books and articles newspaper articles EU regulations and directives soft law guidelines and best practices EU and ECtHR case law EU Advocate General opinions European Commission decisions and European Ombudsman decisions General conclusions stress the necessity of introducing further reforms to enhance the effectiveness and legitimacy of fundamental rights in the context of competition proceedings Few books have taken such a thorough and far reaching approach to the reconciliation of effective public enforcement and fundamental rights or of effective deterrence with the principles of legality non retroactivity presumption of innocence and ne bis in idem In the depth of its appraisal of the entire spectrum of enforcement components from a fundamental rights perspective the book is without peers It will be warmly welcomed by any parties interested in the intersection of competition law and human rights Le secret de Peyton - De la haine à la passion + 1 roman gratuit Joss Wood, Kimberley
