

30 Secrets to Exhibiting Success

1. On average 75% of visitors to an exhibition are there to buy or plan to buy in the future.
2. Exhibiting is the most cost-effective way of getting your products and services in front of customers.
3. Exhibiting is the only medium, which allows you to interact with potential customers, using all the 5 senses.
4. Decide why you are exhibiting and what you wish to achieve. Have some specific, measurable targets in mind. E.g. Get 300 qualified sales leads or conduct 50 research interviews.
5. Design your stand to help deliver your objectives.
6. Have one person in charge of every aspect of the exhibition.
7. 80% of stand success is down to staff, so train them.
8. If you can invite people, do. If you don't your competition will.
9. Formulate a plan to categorise leads for follow up.
10. At the show, let people know you are there, advertise.
11. Don't ask closed questions.
12. Keep your conversations with clients short and concise.
13. Turn off your mobile phone.
14. Focus, get all the details you can from your prospect.
15. Make a rota, so everyone knows where he or she is and what he or she is doing, when.
16. Make eye contact and smile.
17. Listen to your prospect and sell benefits not features. E.g. this is good for you because...
18. Go for it! Have staff whose presence says "Hi, how are you?"
19. You and your staff need to look fresh and feel fresh.
20. Use all 5 senses to attract people to your stand.
21. Have daily team debriefs.
22. Classify all leads.
23. Don't eat whilst on the stand.
24. Don't get into conversations about products you do not know, ask another team member to help/demonstrate.
25. Remember why you are there, stay focused on your objectives.
26. Talk less listen more.
27. Conduct a show debrief with the stand team.
28. Follow up leads, you will need to contact them at least 6 times.
29. Make use of all the information you have gathered.
30. Book early for next year.

they expect to have hands on experience of the objects and be actively involved with the exhibits learning informally and being entertained simultaneously Hands on museums and science centres provide the most remarkable example of how museums are redefining their roles in society improving access to real objects and real phenomena so that they can be enjoyed by more people In recent years museums have been thrust into intense competition for the public s time and money with all branches of the leisure industry from commercial theme parks to retail shopping and home entertainment This has upset the traditional stability of the museum and their visitors A hands on approach encourages a broader visitor base which in turn helps to bring in additional revenue at a time of declining public subsidy Tim Caulton investigates how to create and operate effective exhibitions which achieve their educational objectives through hands on access He concludes that the continuing success of hands on museums and science centres hinges on attaining the very best practice in exhibition design and evaluation and in all aspects of operations including marketing and financial and human resource management Hands On Exhibitions provides a practical guide to best practice which will be indispensable to all museum professionals and students of museum studies
