Girls Will Be Boys Laura Horak, 2016-02-26 2016 Choice Outstanding Academic Title Finalist for 2016 Richard Wall Memorial Award by the Theatre Library Long listed for the 2017 Kraszna Krausz Best Photography Book Award from the Kraszna Krausz Foundation Marlene Dietrich Greta Garbo and Katharine Hepburn all made lasting impressions with the cinematic cross dressing they performed onscreen What few modern viewers realize however is that these seemingly daring performances of the 1930s actually came at the tail end of a long wave of gender bending films that included more than 400 movies featuring women dressed as men Laura Horak spent a decade scouring film archives worldwide looking at American films made between 1908 and 1934 and what she discovered could revolutionize our understanding of gender roles in the early twentieth century Questioning the assumption that cross dressing women were automatically viewed as transgressive she finds that these figures were popularly regarded as wholesome and regularly appeared onscreen in the 1910s thus lending greater respectability to the fledgling film industry Horak also explores how and why this perception of cross dressed women began to change in the 1920s and early 1930s examining how cinema played a pivotal part in the representation of lesbian identity Girls Will Be Boys excavates a rich history of gender bending film roles enabling readers to appreciate the wide array of masculinities that these actresses performed from sentimental boyhood to rugged virility to gentlemanly refinement Taking us on a guided tour through a treasure trove of vintage images Girls Will Be Boys helps us view the histories of gender sexuality and film through fresh eyes National Library of Medicine Audiovisuals Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), 1991 Afterlives: Allegories of Film and Mortality in Early Weimar Germany Steve Choe, 2014-07-31 Weimar cultural critics and intellectuals have repeatedly linked the dynamic movement of the cinema to discourses of life and animation Correspondingly recent film historians and theorists have taken up these discourses to theorize the moving image both in analog and digital But many important issues are overlooked Combining close readings of individual films with detailed interpretations of philosophical texts all produced in Weimar Germany immediately following the Great War Afterlives: Allegories of Film and Mortality in Early Weimar Germany shows how these films teach viewers about living and dying within a modern mass mediated context Choe places relatively underanalyzed films such as F W Murnau's The Haunted Castle and Arthur Robison's Warning Shadows alongside Martin Heidegger's early seminars on phenomenology Sigmund Freud's Reflections upon War and Death and Max Scheler's critique of resentment It is the experience of war trauma that underpins these correspondences and Choe foregrounds life and death in the films by highlighting how they allegorize this opposition through the thematics of animation and stasis A Companion to Rainer Werner Fassbinder Brigitte Peucker, 2012-02-20 A Companion to Rainer Werner Fassbinder is the first of its kind to engage with this important figure Twenty eight essays by an international group of scholars consider this controversial director's contribution to German cinema German history gender studies and auteurship A fresh collection of original research

A Time of One's Own Catherine Grant, 2022-08-29 In A Time of One's Own Catherine Grant examines how contemporary feminist artists are turning to broad histories of feminism ranging from political organizing and artworks from the 1970s to queer art and activism in the 1990s Exploring artworks from 2002 to 2017 by artists including Sharon Hayes Mary Kelly Allyson Mitchell Deirdre Logue Lubaina Himid Pauline Boudry and Renate Lorenz Grant maps a revival of feminism that takes up the creative and political implications of forging feminist communities across time and space Grant characterizes these artists' engagement with feminism as a fannish autodidactic and collective form of learning from history This fandom of feminism allows artists to build relationships with previous feminist ideas artworks and communities that reject a generational model and embrace aspects of feminism that might be seen as embarrassing queer or anachronistic Accounting for the growing interest in feminist art politics and ideas across generations Grant demonstrates that for many contemporary feminist artists the present moment can only be understood through an embodied engagement with history in which feminist pasts are reinhabited and reimagined

Rebirth of a Culture Hillary Hope Herzog, Todd Herzog, Benjamin Lapp, 2008-08-01 After 1945 Jewish writing in German was almost unimaginable and then only in reference to the Shoah Only in the 1980s after a period of mourning silence and processing of the trauma did a new Jewish literature evolve in Germany and Austria This volume focuses on the re-emergence of a lively Jewish cultural scene in the German speaking countries and the various cultural forms of expression that have developed around it Topics include current debates such as the emergence of a post Waldheim Jewish discourse in Austria and Jewish responses to German unification and the Gulf wars Other significant themes addressed are the memorialization of the Holocaust in Berlin and Vienna the uses of Kafka in contemporary German literature and the German and American Jewish dialogue as representative of both the history of exile and the globalization of postmodern civilization The volume is enhanced by contributions from some of the most significant representatives of German Jewish writing today such as Esther Dischereit Barbara Honigmann Jeanette Lander and Doron Rabinovici The result is a lively dialogue between European and North American scholars and writers that captures the complexity and dynamism of Jewish culture in Germany and Austria at the turn of the twenty first century
