Donnelly, Philip Hayward, 2013 The music for science fiction television programs like music for science fiction films is often highly distinctive introducing cutting edge electronic music and soundscapes There is a highly particular role for sound and music in science fiction because it regularly has to expand the vistas and imagination of the shows and plays a crucial role in setting up the time and place. Notable for its adoption of electronic instruments and integration of music and effects, science fiction programs explore sonic capabilities offered through the evolution of sound technology and design which has allowed for the precise control and creation of unique and otherworldly sounds. This collection of essays analyzes the style and context of music and sound design in Science Fiction television. It provides a wide range of in-depth analyses of seminal live action series such as Doctor Who, The Twilight Zone, and Lost, as well as animated series such as The Jetsons. With thirteen essays from prominent contributors in the field of music and screen media, this anthology will appeal to students of Music and Media as well as fans of science fiction television.

A Reference Guide to Television's Bonanza Bruce R. Leiby, Linda F. Leiby, 2005-03-15
Bonanza aired on NBC from September 12, 1959 to January 16, 1973, playing to 480,000,000 viewers in over 97 countries. It was the second longest running western series, surpassed only by Gunsmoke, and continues to provide wholesome entertainment to old and new fans via syndication. This book provides an in-depth chronicle of the series and its stars. A history of the show from its inception to the current made-for-television movies is provided, and an episode guide includes a synopsis of each show and lists such details as the main characters of each episode and the actors who portrayed them, the dates they stayed with the show, date and time of original broadcast, writer, director, producer, executive producer, and supporting cast. Also provided are character sketches for each of the major recurring characters, career biographies of Lorne Green, Pernell Roberts, Dan Blocker, and Michael Landon, brief biographical sketches of the supporting cast, a discography of recordings of the Bonanza theme, and recordings of the four major stars, and information on Bonanza television movies.

Irwin Allen Television Productions, 1964-1970 Jon Abbott, 2015-06-14
Before establishing himself as the master of disaster with the 1970s films The Poseidon Adventure and The Towering Inferno, Irwin Allen created four of television's most exciting and enduring science fiction series: Voyage to the Bottom of the Sea, Lost in Space, The Time Tunnel, and Land of the Giants. These 1960s series were full of Allen's favorite tricks, techniques, and characteristic touches, and influenced other productions from the original Star Trek forward. Every science fiction show owes something to Allen, yet none has equaled his series' pace, excitement, or originality. This detailed examination and documentation of the premise and origin of the four shows offers an objective evaluation of every episode and demonstrates that when Irwin Allen's television episodes were good, they were great, and when they were bad, they were still terrific fun.
