

A close-up, low-angle shot of a metallic, textured face, possibly a robot or a statue, illuminated by a warm, yellowish light. The face is highly detailed with visible ridges and grooves. A thick, red, viscous liquid, resembling blood, is smeared across the upper right portion of the face and forehead. The background is dark and out of focus.

Lost Paradise:

The Lost Paradise Janice F. Keilholtz, 2014-09-29 Way back when in 1963 and then again in 1969 two baby girls were born to Janice Keilholtz Landis and Wesley Landis While raising the two of us they attempted to teach us many life lessons One of the more important ones being trust The others being love and respect and so on Janice and Wes truly loved respected and trusted each other My sister and I witnessed this on a daily basis while growing up Anyone who knew or met them could see it right away However I didnt know that the true lessons of love respect and most of all trust were taught to us more not in life but in death The death of our mother Janice Keilholtz Landis Now when Mom was alive she had a box It was her box My sister and I had no knowledge of this box Dad knew of the box but not of the contents Mom had told him This is my box and you dont look in it And you know he ever did That is until she passed away Then when he was cleaning out a closet he came across the box When he opened it he discovered scrapbooks she had put together In one of them he found several poems she had written one of which was all the way back when she was in sixth grade She kept all of these a secret We had no idea she had written any of them She loved respected but most of all trusted our dad to not look in the box and he never did until her death As we read through them we found they were too beautiful to be kept a secret anymore and wanted to share them with everyone We hope you will enjoy them as much as we do Wesley Landis Leann Landis Weaver and Jennifer Landis Wootten

The Myth of the Lost Paradise in the Novels of Jacques Poulin Paul Socken, 1993 Socken analyzes the shape and direction of Poulin s creation narratives as they evolve in the novels and demonstrates their presence from the earliest quasi political Un cheval pour mon royaume to the highly introspective Le Vieux Chagrin The novels move from an outer directed concept of the lost paradise as a state to be attained beyond the self to a sense of the lost paradise as the kingdom within achievable first on the individual level as self knowledge and only afterwards on the social level Poulin introduces the theme of the soul and his personal concept of it as the soul for him is proof of the inner life that embodies the qualities of tranquility and tenderness associated with the lost paradise Lost paradise literature is universal and timeless Poulin s portrayal is placed in historical context so that his contribution to the genre can be fully appreciated Referring to studies by such critics as Mircea Eliade Northrop Frye Jerome S Bruner and Jack J

Adam Speaks: How I Lost Paradise Adam Pro, 2010-08-18 Adam speaks The story of Adam and Eve is known throughout the world It is a tale passed down through the beginning of humanity that is believed by Christians Jews and Muslims alike There isn t much to it other than the creation of man and woman and the loss of paradise attributed to their disobedience in biting an apple from a forbidden tree This book gives a detailed portrayal of the familiar story from the perspective of Adam It tells of the relationship Adam had with God before and after Eve was created and before and after the fall as well As a consequence to Adam s sin he is doomed to live many lives to witness the effect it has on mankind throughout history to the present day Adam narrates significant events of history such as the fall of Satan the first murder the great flood and the origins of the Jewish Christian and Muslim

new way of thinking about film endings Whereas existing works on the subject concentrate on narrative resolution this book explores the way film endings blend together a complex of motifs tropes and other elements to create the sense of an ending that is it looks at endings as endings Drawing on a wide range of examples taken from films of different periods and national cinemas the author identifies three key features which structure the work thresholds and boundaries water and above all the beach The beach combines water and a boundary and is the most resonant of the key sites to which film endings gravitate Although beach endings go back to at least 1910 they have increased markedly in post classical cinema and can be found across all genres and in films from many different countries As the leading example of the book s argument they illustrate both the aesthetic richness and the structural complexity of film endings The Unknown Schubert Lorraine Byrne Bodley,2017-07-05 Franz Schubert 1797 1828 is now rightly recognized as one of the greatest and most original composers of the nineteenth century His keen understanding of poetry and his uncanny ability to translate his profound understanding of human nature into remarkably balanced compositions marks him out from other contemporaries in the field of song Schubert was one of the first major composers to devote so much time to song and his awareness that this genre was not rated highly in the musical hierarchy did not deter him throughout a short but resolute and hard working career from producing songs that invariably arrest attention and frequently strike a deeply poetic note Schubert did not emerge as a composer until after his death but during his short lifetime his genius flowered prolifically and diversely His reputation was first established among the aristocracy who took the art music of Vienna into their homes which became places of refuge from the musical mediocrity of popular performance More than any other composer Schubert steadily graced Viennese musical life with his songs piano music and chamber compositions Throughout his career he experimented constantly with technique and in his final years began experiments with form The resultant fascinating works were never performed in his lifetime and only in recent years have the nature of his experiments found scholarly favor In The Unknown Schubert contributors explore Schubert s radical modernity from a number of perspectives by examining both popular and neglected works Chapters by renowned scholars describe the historical context of his work its relation to the dominant artistic discourses of the early nineteenth century and Schubert s role in the paradigmatic shift to a new perception of song This valuable book seeks to bring Franz Schubert to life exploring his early years as a composer of opera his later years of ill health when he composed in the shadow of death and his efforts to reflect i Glimpses of Paradise Penny Olsen,2007 The history of the Paradise Parrot from its discovery in the 1800s to its extinction in the 1920s and how claims of sightings have continued to the present day Our Indifferent Universe Surazeus Astarius,2019-01-25 Our Indifferent Universe presents 903 poems written 2015 2017 by Surazeus that explore what it means to be a human in our indifferent universe Journal of an Ordinary Grief Mahmoud Darwish,2012-02-29 Winner of the 2011 PEN Translation Prize A collection of autobiographical essays by one of the greatest poets to come from Palestine Indispensable reading for anyone interested in

The Arab Nahda as Popular Entertainment , 2023-11-16 What was popular entertainment like for everyday Arab societies in Middle Eastern cities during the long nineteenth century In what ways did caf culture theatre illustrated periodicals cinema cabarets and festivals serve as key forms of popular entertainment for Arabic speaking audiences many of whom were uneducated and striving to contend with modernity's anxiety inducing realities. Studies on the 19th to mid 20th century's transformative cultural movement known as the Arab nahda renaissance have largely focussed on concerns with nationalism secularism and language often told from the perspective of privileged groups. Highlighting overlooked aspects of this movement this book shifts the focus away from elite circles to quotidian audiences. Its ten contributions range in scope from music and visual media to theatre and popular fiction. Paying special attention to networks of movement and exchange across Arab societies in Lebanon Syria Egypt Iraq and Morocco this book heeds the call for translocal transnational cultural histories while contributing to timely global studies on gender sexuality and morality. Focusing on the often marginalized frequenters of cafés artist studios cinemas nightclubs and the streets it expands the remit of who participated in the nahda and how they did.
