You'll find that it defines self esteem and explains how self talk and choices shape your life, explains passive aggressive and assertive attitudes and presents them through role play, tells how to make friends and how to be a friend to others, explores how childhood experiences influence your present self image, shows why taking time for yourself is important to how you feel about your life, presents basic skills for living and practices them through group activities, speakers and games. The Learning About Myself LAMS Program for At Risk Parents is a complete blueprint for changing lives. It teaches basic skills and creates observable changes in appearance, confidence and self image. The book's language is simple to understand and you can easily adapt the program to all ages and both sexes.
