Caring for Words in a Culture of Lies Marilyn Chandler McEntyre,2009-06-02 The author offers 12 strategies of stewardship for those concerned with preserving the vitality and precision of the spoken and written word Caring Confrontations for Education and Democracy R. Scott Webster,2021-11-29 Caring Confrontations for Education and Democracy makes a compelling case for redirecting current practices of education to focus on being educated rather than having an education The book offers a detailed analysis of how an education for democracy must encourage commitment to important ideals and strengthen the vulnerabilities of people which make them easily manipulated by politicians and the media It addresses the need for education that focusses on people s mode of being so that in addition to becoming knowledgeable and skilful people develop the disposition that is more appropriate for democratic living Through embodying this approach of authentic spiritual growth through education this book explores the idea of caring confrontations and critical reflection to enable personal change and growth Providing a thoughtful analysis of the role of education in democracy the book will be of great interest to researchers academics and students in the fields of philosophy of education educational theory and democratic education New York Magazine ,1985-11-25 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Caring Connections ,1990 A Community Spirit of Caring Begins with You Jan Roberts,2001-08 The Spirit of Caring Movement is based on the simple yet transformative belief that the cultural emphasis on materialism and self interest is not what is most important to people Instead most people are yearning for a meaningful connection to others and to a purpose greater than themselves This movement validates the basic goodness of people and seeks ways to have this goodness reflected as a top priority wherever people work play and live It seeks to strengthen ethics and meaning in schools business law media healthcare neighborhoods and other areas of our lives

Self-Care in Relationships Julie Nelson PhD,2018-04-05 For each of us there is an association between relationships and self care We are all wired to interact and connect with others yet we are not formally educated about how to care for ourselves throughout that process Dr Nelson can help you Be intentional about practicing self care both in and out of relationships Explore your values to guide your relationship choices Choose safe supportive relationships that feel good to you Preserve your energy and resources by avoiding damaging relationships Use effective communication skills to create the kind of interactions that you want Learn to manage grief when relationships change In Self Care in Relationships Dr Nelson guides you through the basic skills required to connect with others in healthy ways This easy sensible approach comes from a compassionate and personal place as Dr Nelson shares the genuine experiences of real people New York Magazine

Helm,2010-01-07 Bennett Helm presents a reexamination of our common understanding of ourselves as persons in light of the phenomena of love and friendship He argues that the individualism that is implicit in that understanding cannot be sustained if we are to understand the kind of distinctively personal intimacy that love and friendship essentially involve New York Magazine ,1987-02-09 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea New York Magazine ,1985-02-25 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Renewing Pastoral Practice Neil Pembroke,2013-05-28 This is the first comprehensive treatment of the relationship between the doctrine of the Trinity and pastoral care and counselling Neil Pembroke contends that an in depth reflection on the relational dynamics in the Godhead has the capacity to radically renew pastoral practice Pembroke applies the notion of relational space to care in a parish setting The life of the triune God is defined by both closeness and open space The divine persons indwell each other in love but they also provide space for the expression of particularity This principle of closeness with space is applied in three different pastoral contexts namely community life spiritual friendship and pastoral conversations The specialized ministry of pastoral counselling is the focus in the second half of the book Informing the various explorations is the principle of participation through love the divine persons participate in each other s existence through loving self communication Pembroke shows how this trinitarian virtue is at the centre of three key counselling dynamics the counselling alliance empathy and mirroring Weekly World News ,2003-11 Rooted in the creative success of over 30 years of supermarket

New York, 1989-05 Caring For Someone You Love
Suzanne Elise Abels, M.S., 2018-03-19 My nonfiction self-help book Caring for Someone You Love deals with helping my father during the last year of his life. Healthy and active all his life, Dad suddenly took a fall at age 80 that resulted in a downward spiral that rendered this fiercely independent man suddenly dependent. Caring for Someone You Love is the story of how this affected both of us. It is a story of love and adjustment and lessons learned, a personal story with broad implications at a time when our older population is larger than ever before in history. With more than 40 million Americans 65 and older, countless sons and daughters will one day find themselves in my position. My father's end of life was an inspiration to me. It is my hope this book will be an inspiration to others. I am also the author of an earlier book Kindness on a Budget which illustrates the gifts of being kind daily, both for the giver and the receiver alike. I am an experienced promoter, having discussed Kindness on a Budget on numerous radio shows and as a featured guest speaker before various organizations.
