energy in reclaiming freedom of expression as a Black queer woman and aims to understand herself the world around her and her experiences Brown Clay explores the idea to be unapologetically Black and embrace the intersectionality of tangled roots in identity The Road Goes on Forever Jake Hessman,2010-08 If you had complete freedom from all obligations both personal and financial and thousands of options lying ahead of you how would you decide which one to pursue This is the position Chris Coupland finds himself in on a frigid New Year s morning when his relationship with Hope ends abruptly From loss and confusion through success and reconciliation his choices and the resulting journey may surprise you Avoiding demons and chasing dreams his search for Hope or even just hope will be the catalyst for the change he never knew he needed His challenge now is to decide which path to take and whether to take that path alone or with someone The Souls of Dumah Mark Thornton,2000-12-22 What if it were possible to experience life after death without dying To actually see what happens to another person s soul after death That is the goal of Dr Miles VanBurin a wealthy surgeon with an obsession for uncovering the secrets of the human soul The Annual biography and obituary ,1820 South of Tradition Trudier Harris,2010-04-15 With characteristic originality and insight Trudier Harris Lopez offers a new and challenging approach to the work of African American writers in these twelve previously unpublished essays Collectively the essays show the vibrancy of African American literary creation across several decades of the twentieth century But Harris Lopez s readings of the various texts deliberately diverge from traditional ways of viewing traditional topics South of Tradition focuses not only on well known writers such as Zora Neale Hurston Ralph Ellison James Baldwin and Richard Wright but also on up and coming writers such as Randall Kenan and less known writers such as Brent Wade and Henry Dumas Harris Lopez addresses themes of sexual and racial identity reconceptualizations of and transcendence of Christianity analyses of African American folk and cultural traditions and issues of racial justice Many of her subjects argue that geography shapes identity whether that geography is the European territory many blacks escaped to from the oppressive South or the South itself where generations of African Americans have had to come to grips with their relationship to the land and its history For Harris Lopez south of tradition refers both to geography and to readings of texts that are not in keeping with expected responses to the works She explains her point of departure for the essays as a slant an angle or a jolt below the line of what would be considered the norm for usual responses to African American literature The scope of Harris Lopez s work is tremendous From her coverage of noncanonical writers to her analysis of humor in the best selling The Color Purple she provides essential material that should inform all future readings of African American literature The Nugents of Carriconna Tighe Hopkins,1891 That'S the Way It Is Molly Stringer,2016-03-23 Memories flood my mind as I reminisce how my journey has been a lifetime of happenings that speak to my soul with lessons that can be applied to our daily lives These memories are conjured up at odd and sometimes inconvenient times As I sat in church last Sunday and the pastor began his message my mind captured a thought of bygone days that spoke loud and clear to my mind and I scrambled in my bag for a pen and paper to put my thoughts down Brother Tim must have thought he had really said something profound and he did but I did not write that down It is my hope that all who read my memories and the lessons that I glean from them will take them to heart and identify with them and feel happiness insight and perhaps laughter as they share my memories and truths The Annual Biography and Obituary for the Year ..., 1820 Collection of Auction Catalogs on Japanese Art

Cassandra Falke,2018-05-31 The current revival of interest in ethics in literary criticism coincides fortuitously with a revival of interest in love in philosophy The literary return to ethics also coincides with a spate of neuroscientific discoveries about cognition and emotion But without a philosophical grounding this new work cannot speak convincingly about literature's relationship to our ethical lives Jean Luc Marion's articulation of a phenomenology of love provides this philosophical grounding The Phenomenology of Love and Reading accepts Jean Luc Marion's argument that love matters for who we are more than anything more than cognition and more than being itself Cassandra Falke shows how reading can strengthen our capacity to love by giving us practice in love's habits attention empathy and a willingness to be overwhelmed Confounding our expectations literature equips us for the confounding events of love which Falke suggests are not rare and fleeting but rather constitute the most meaningful and durable part of our everyday life "Vestige and the Skies of Cmaj."
